NINETY-SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the
STATE OF MISSOURI
FIRST REGULAR SESSION

FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 9, 2013

The House was called to order at twelve o'clock noon by the Honorable Robin Carnahan, Secretary of State.

Prayer by Father Leo Spezia, Most Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Eureka, MO.

O God, Whose divine wisdom embraces our universe, how blest are You. How great Thou art. As we gather for this session of the Missouri House of Representatives, we begin with an attitude of gratitude and thanksgiving.

Thank You for our military personnel, all law enforcement officers, and our fire service and emergency service personnel throughout our great state and nation, who protect and serve Your people and guard their lives and property. It is with thanksgiving that we pause to remember the persons who have made the ultimate sacrifice to help ensure Missouri's safety. We thank them for their service.

Rally the Republicans and Democrats around Your common good so that our great state will truly become one of opportunity for all – including the least, the last, and the lost.

Bless every elected official of our state. Bless them, their families, and their leadership.

O God, the One Who has always been, and always will be, the true maker of just laws, we give You the honor and the glory. Bless our state this day and always. We ask this in Your Name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Missouri State Highway Patrol, Troop F Color Guard, presented the Colors.

ADDRESS BY SECRETARY OF STATE ROBIN CARNAHAN

Good Afternoon. I'm Secretary of State Robin Carnahan. Welcome to the opening of the 97th Regular Session of the Missouri General Assembly.

First, I want to thank those of you who are returning to continue your service to our state. And I want to give a very special congratulations and thank you to the 50 new members who are taking the oath of office for the first time.

My job today is to preside over the opening of this session until a Temporary Speaker is chosen.

2 Journal of the House

But, before we get to that, I'll follow the longstanding tradition of saying a few words before handing over the gavel one last time.

This is the fourth time I've been honored to preside over the opening of a new legislative session, and every time I have the same feeling.

Like most visitors who walk through these doors, I'm first struck by the beauty and majesty of this place. But, quickly my thoughts turn to the history that's been made here. Right here in this room.

Think about it: Millions of Missouri children and parents are better off because of difficult votes your predecessors took to invest in our schools and teachers, and to ensure our kids have access to affordable, quality healthcare.

This room has witnessed important votes to protect our citizens; help small business owners; invest in our roads; help the sick, disabled and less fortunate; and provide retirement security and decent healthcare to our seniors. And that only scratches the surface of the important work that has passed through this chamber.

Over the coming days, you, too, will have the opportunity to make history. You'll be asked to make difficult choices...to balance the costs and benefits of various programs that could have a profound impact on millions of lives.

And the ugly, seldom talked-about truth is, every one of you will be asked to cast votes on issues before you've had enough time and information to fully understand the consequences. And you'll very likely be asked to vote in situations when you find none of the choices appealing.

When that day comes, and inevitably it will, the question each of you will need to answer for yourself is: How will you decide whether to vote yea or nay?

Of course, the easiest and most obvious path is to go along with your party's leaders and vote the way they want you to.

That's playing it safe. But that certainly isn't why your friends and neighbors back home voted to send you here...they expect more of you. And I'm guessing you expect more of yourselves.

So how else will you be able to make those tough choices when a difficult vote is called?

Some of you may fall back on trying to fit your vote neatly into some ideological box...something easy to explain. Is it pro-freedom, pro-business, anti-tax? You name it.

But the reality is, very few issues you'll be asked to vote on are that simplistic. And besides, oversimplifying complicated policy questions also isn't why your neighbors voted to send you here.

Of course, some of you may be tempted to turn to lobbyists or special interest groups for information and guidance on how to vote...you don't need me to tell you how folks back home might react to that.

Or you can choose to do what people back home expect of you when those tough votes come...by tuning out all the noise and thinking hard about how your vote will affect them. Those families with sick kids and jobs with no insurance, those working parents struggling with more than one job just to cover the bills, that aging WWII veteran or that 18-year-old student who may not have driver's licenses, but sure don't want to lose their right to vote.

It's your job, indeed it's your solemn obligation, to think about those people not about politics when you decide how to vote...think about those real Missourians whose lives will be impacted, for better or worse, by choices you make.

Your friends and neighbors sent you to this majestic chamber to represent the interests of your community because they trust your judgment. They trust your integrity. They trust that you will work hard at understanding all the trade-offs, all the complications, and all the implications, to speak your mind and look out for their interests...rich and poor; old and young; business owners and union workers; healthy and sick; liberal and conservative; Republican and Democrat.

They trust that you'll look beyond the partisan rhetoric and lobbyist influence peddling and work to find common ground and commonsense compromises that solve real problems and keep Missouri moving down the path of a prosperous future.

Every Missourian you represent has hopes and fears about that future. Your job in the coming months is to pass laws that are fair and create opportunities for all of those who are ready to work hard and play by the rules. But it's also your job to look out for our most vulnerable citizens and ensure they, too, are treated with dignity and respect.

I hope that you take a few minutes today, and indeed every day when you look in the mirror, to remind yourself why you are here and think about the history that's been made in this room.

Think about the responsibility you've been entrusted with...not only to make history, but also to do good. For our children, families and the millions of Missourians whose lives and futures depend on the votes you'll cast here.

That will be your lasting legacy.

May God bless you as you go about this important work.

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER TIMOTHY W. JONES

Friends and colleagues:

Let me first say thank you for the immense honor you have given me to serve as your Speaker. I am truly blessed to be able to lead such a remarkable group of public servants and I am excited to work with each and every one of you in the coming months to advance the policy items that mean the most to you and to all the people of your districts.

Let me also thank the members, past and present, who so graciously escorted me to the dais to receive this honor. Thank you for your support and friendship.

Let me give extra special thanks to my good friend Danie Moore, the former Lady from Callaway, who made the trip to Jefferson City today to serve on the escort committee. Danie was a mentor and a friend during my first years here in the House. She was an immense help to me as I learned my way in this legislative body. I know there are many of you who can say the same. Thank you, Lady from Callaway, for being such a conscientious public servant and such a giving and caring soul.

And thank you to another of my mentors...someone who has given me sage advice throughout my entire life...who has helped make me the man and the legislator I am today...someone who happens to be my uncle...and the father of our colleague, the Gentleman from Moniteau. Please join me in welcoming the former Gentleman from Moniteau...our friend and fellow public servant...my uncle, Kenny Jones. Thank you for being a guiding force in my life and for teaching me what it means to serve with honesty and integrity.

Thanks as well to the Chief Justice of the Missouri Supreme Court, Richard Teitelman, for swearing us in as members of the House, to Judge Dan Pelikan for administering the oath of office I have taken as your Speaker, and to our House Chaplains, Monsignor Kurwicz and Father Spezia, for providing us with their spiritual guidance as we embark on this important legislative session.

Let me also take a few moments to thank my family for the support they have given me as I have pursued this dream of public service. A heartfelt thank you to my parents who are with us today and to all of my family and friends, many of whom have driven great distances to share in this moment with me. Your love and support have enabled and empowered me to make this incredible journey. It's a journey that has meant long hours here in the Capitol, travel to all four corners of our great state, long hours and days away from home, and apart from my loving wife, Suzanne, and our beautiful daughters, Katherine and Abigail. Even as my duties here have kept me away from the people I love the most, they have never wavered in their commitment to support me, to ground me, and to remind me what truly matters most in my life. Without the encouragement and the love they have given me over the years, I would not be here today. Suzanne, Katie, Abby – thank you for giving me the opportunity to make this dream a reality. I could not have done it without you.

The truth is, when you make sacrifices such as these – and we all make them when we choose to serve – you do so with the hope that the precious moments you miss in your personal life are outweighed by the opportunity you gain in your public life to do something truly remarkable, not just for the ones you love – but for every man, woman and child who calls our great state of Missouri home.

As I've traveled around the state over the course of the last few months and during the last six years as I have served as a state representative, I've had the opportunity to meet with and learn the stories of so many outstanding Missourians. From single parents who have overcome adversity to provide a brighter future for their children, to business owners who have found a way to not only survive but thrive in the face of challenging economic times, to farm families who have endured and overcome some of the toughest years in memory. All have markedly different backgrounds and experiences, but all share the common traits of diligence and determination that have allowed them to succeed in the face of adversity. All have an unrelenting desire to see Missouri become a state where our opportunities outnumber our obstacles—where government can maintain a level playing field that gives all Missourians the chance to make their dreams a reality.

In all that we do, the people expect us to abide by a simple rule – that government shall serve not as the ruler of the people, but that the will of the people shall rule their government. As our state motto forever reminds us, the welfare of the people shall be the supreme law of the land. It is a motto that should be in our hearts and our minds with every action we take as public servants.

As we embark on the 2013 legislative session, we have within our grasp the ability to make our state stronger and more prosperous than it has ever been.

The people of this state sent the largest Republican caucus in the history of the Missouri House to Jefferson City to advance a bold and ambitious policy agenda – one that will mean more and better jobs for those in need of work, innovative solutions to our current and future energy needs, and outside-the-box thinking when it comes to reforming a system of education that has far too often failed to meet the needs of our young people.

Over the last few months I have met with many of you across the state to discuss the agenda items we want to address during this session. From our discussions and our conversations – from the input I have received from the people we are elected to serve – we have developed what I refer to as the “Triple E Agenda.” It’s an agenda I believe that can make Missouri the strongest state in the nation in the areas of Economic Development, Energy Policy, and Education.

Economic Development and Job Creation

Regardless of our party affiliations – or the area of the state from which we hail – we all can agree that effective economic development and job creation policies are essential to ensure a bright future for Missouri.

While our economy has begun to show signs of life and the unemployment rate continues to be significantly below the national average, it is clear we must do more to make Missouri’s business climate one that is friendly to existing and potential employers, and that encourages the creation of good-paying jobs that will allow Missouri families to prosper.

One of my top priorities for this legislative session is to reform our medical malpractice system—so we can protect Missouri businesses and our entire system of health care from frivolous lawsuits and encourage new job creation. When the Supreme Court struck down the caps last year, it opened a floodgate of lawsuits that threaten to drive the cost of medical malpractice insurance through the roof, which will increase the cost of care and will encourage the use of so-called “defensive medicine.” The truth is, unless we take action to fix this problem, we will see millions of dollars in the health care industry diverted away from care from health care investment – from health care education – from creating health care jobs—and instead those precious dollars will be needed for legal defense costs.

These are facts that cannot be denied.

Unless we act, health care costs will increase and health care quality will decline as many of our best doctors will inevitably flee the state. That is why we will work this session to stave off this looming threat by reinstating a reasonable cap – by making reforms that will ensure health care providers are not in danger of being targeted by harmful, needless litigation. We must also work to improve our business climate by making Missouri’s employment law standards comparable to national standards. Court decisions have pushed employment laws above and beyond what is required by federal law – something that has negatively impacted our ability to attract new employers to our state and maintain the ones that are already doing business here. It’s time to give Missouri employers the kind of certainty in the legal system that will allow them to focus on growing their businesses and creating jobs rather than worrying about unnecessary lawsuits.

Another element to improving our business climate and encouraging economic development will be to improve our workers’ compensation system. We must make sure that both workers’ compensation and the Second Injury Fund remain solvent to ensure employers are protected from the costs of workplace accidents. If the insolvent Second Injury Fund cannot be salvaged without unfairly penalizing job creators with excessive taxation – we must follow the lead of many other states and begin the task of winding down this fund which has been mismanaged for decades.

One of the most critical components of the economic development portion of our Triple E Agenda is focused on maintaining and creating incentive tools that work.

This session I want to see this legislative body make a commitment to “Cut, Cap and Create.”

Missouri has a significant number of tax credit programs – 61 in all – and it is no secret not all of these programs are accomplishing a useful goal. It will be a House priority to make changes this session that encourage oversight over these programs – eliminate the credits that do not work – cap programs at a reasonable level to provide budget certainty, create new programs that are fiscally responsible, have significant taxpayer protections and that are immediately fiscally positive.

Our benevolent tax credits must be part of this discussion as well. These credits have been instrumental in helping so many worthwhile causes, from pregnancy resource centers to food pantries. This year we must work to reinstate the credits that have helped our charitable organizations to do so much for so many.

We also must give careful consideration to ways we can supplement our economic development efforts by improving our state’s infrastructure. We must work to make sure our roads and bridges – our essential transportation routes – are maintained, are repaired, and are rebuilt and that our essential state services – and the college campuses where young minds are prepared for the future – have the resources and facilities they need to succeed. This means giving serious consideration to a bonding proposal that could generate billions of dollars for these crucial projects. It will help us meet the demands we face today as well as those our state will face in the future.

Energy Policy

The second component of the Triple E I will ask this body to focus their efforts on this year deals with our state’s energy future. We must work to ensure Missouri embraces responsible energy policies that will encourage affordable energy prices and technological development. We must continue to explore and pursue opportunities with the Department of Energy to develop the small modular reactor industry here in our state.

We must ensure Missouri becomes part of this incredibly exciting industry of the future. We must also work to ensure our regulatory framework does not impede Missourians from using existing energy sources or pursuing new developments using our God-given natural resources like coal and natural gas. Only by using an “all of the above” energy framework can we hope to achieve energy independence.

In all that we do, we must adhere to the free-market principles that have made this country great. The free market should dictate and drive our energy independent future – not government subsidies which engage in artificial market controls and support crony capitalism. Exciting new energy endeavors are part and parcel of this equation, but we must also embrace the abundance of natural resources laid out before us.

Education Reform

The final E in the House agenda is education funding and reform. Although we may at times differ in our opinions of how to reach our goals, we can all agree that a strong, effective education system – as guaranteed by our state constitution – is the key to ensuring prosperity for future generations of Missourians.

One of the top concerns we must address this session is protecting education funding from continued encroachment by the Governor’s welfare expansion funding demands. It is irresponsible to place the immediate benefits of entitlement funding ahead of education. The students of today will become the job creators and business and community leaders of tomorrow.

Our children deserve access to the highest quality education available, but our schools will not be able to provide this level of education if their funding is consistently slashed to the bone to fund an ever-increasing, bloated entitlement system that is full of waste, fraud and abuse.

We must also work to improve and reform our education system in general. Our two largest school districts are failing. We must provide these districts and every other district in our state the tools to ensure that effective teaching, not bureaucracy, is the number one priority.

A key component of accomplishing this goal is to ensure schools are able to evaluate teacher performance. Hold poor teachers accountable for their actions while rewarding the overwhelming majority of good and excellent teachers. Our antiquated, overly bureaucratic education system is the antithesis of innovation and excellence. Teachers should be rewarded for their performance and encouraged to boldly engage in the technological innovations that will create the highly skilled workforce of tomorrow that we so desperately need.

We must enhance local control of the education system. There is no one-size-fits-all approach to education. We should recognize that local districts and parents need to have more influence over their curriculum and policies. Innovative policies exercised at the local level could provide a road map for success to schools across our state.

Finally, we must work to ensure that parents are provided the opportunity to be involved in their children's education. Education cannot just begin and end at the schoolhouse door. It must continue at home, and parents should take an active role in ensuring their children are learning what they need to succeed. This can be accomplished by providing parents more power to intervene in failing school districts and force the necessary changes to ensure access to an effective education.

I hope you will follow with me this session as we place these three components at the forefront of our discussions. While I think these issues are the key to building a better Missouri, there are many other policy issues that will reach this floor, in this Chamber, for discussion in the months to come.

Whether it's creating a fiscally responsible spending plan that makes the best possible use of your taxpayer dollars...

...protecting the rights of millions of hardworking men and women who are employed in Missouri
...defending the time-honored traditions of farming, hunting and fishing that have made this state the great place it is today

...ensuring that all life is held sacred and our children are able to grow into healthy, productive adults
...or standing in defense of the rights and freedoms that our founding fathers handed down to us more than 200 years ago...

we will have important decisions to make that extend beyond these policy goals we have outlined with my Triple E Agenda.

With every decision we make, I hope we can keep in mind all of the Missourians out there who are counting on us to make the right decisions to put the policies in place that will pave the way for prosperity.

They have sent our caucus here in record numbers – a veto-proof super majority – because we have proven to be effective leaders in our communities and because they now expect us to lead the way on issues that matter to Missouri's families and businesses in all parts of our great state.

The citizens who entrusted us with this duty want nothing more than a government that removes the barriers to success rather than creates them...

... that keeps the playing field level rather than tipped in favor of one group or another
...that focuses its attention on the needs of all the people rather than the political schemes of a powerful few.

I have asked some of these remarkable people to join us here today as special guests.

Outstanding Missourians like Rhonda Broussard, who founded the St. Louis Language Immersion School.

I am thrilled to have Rhonda with us today as one of our special guests. I ask all of you to join me in recognizing her for the groundbreaking work she has done to provide a world-class education to hundreds of Missouri children.

The more than 500 young people her school educates come from all walks of life and 44 different zip codes. And while they have different backgrounds, they share in the immense opportunity to receive an education that will give them fluency in a foreign language, a mastery of the English language, and an undeniable educational advantage that will open the doors of opportunity for them both now and in the future.

With her hard work and determination and the incredible vision she has shared with the young people of the City of St. Louis Rhonda Broussard has shown us what our system of education can look like when we embrace innovation and support creative solutions. Her work has made, and will continue to make, a profound positive impact in the lives of hundreds, and soon-to-be thousands, of young people.

Rhonda, for your hard work, your dedication and your desire to make a difference the members of the Missouri House say thank you, and we pledge to continue to support policies that will allow dreams like yours to become reality.

We're blessed to have Rhonda with us today. We're equally blessed to have another outstanding Missourian in the Chamber with us from Northeast Missouri. Please join me in welcoming Cindy O'Laughlin.

Cindy and her husband Russell are the proud owners of a small, family-run business that is such a key component in our state's economic success. First begun by Russell's father, O'Laughlin, Incorporated has been in operation for six decades and has expanded from a small dump truck operation to a flourishing, multifaceted business that provides a variety of services to individuals and larger corporations throughout the state providing jobs for nearly 50 employees in three different small Missouri communities.

O'Laughlin Inc., like thousands of small businesses across Missouri and across our nation, is a vital part of the rural communities in which it operates. Not only do Cindy and Russell provide good-paying jobs with benefits to dozens of industrious Missourians, they donate their time, effort and, yes, their money, to make their communities stronger and more vibrant.

When we talk here in this chamber about the policies we support and how they impact business owners, we are talking about exceptional Missourians like Cindy and Russell O'Laughlin. The decisions we make here help create a business environment that allows businesses like hers to succeed through good, old-fashioned hard work and determination and her success, and the success of so many other small businesses, is what drives our economic engine and allows our state to move in a more positive and prosperous direction.

Cindy, we thank you for all that you and your family have done to create such a successful Missouri business that supports Missouri communities and provides jobs to hard-working Missourians. As a legislature, we pledge to you that we will continue to support policies that keep your tax burden low, the bureaucratic red tape to a minimum, and allow you to continue the tradition of success that your family started 60 years ago.

For our final outstanding Missourian... it was more than 40 years ago that he immigrated to the United States from his native country of Chile. Today he lives and owns a successful business in Wildwood. Please help me make Sergio Cuevas feel welcome.

It has been my privilege to get to know Sergio and to learn his story – a story that personifies the American dream.

Sergio left behind a country oppressed by a communist regime to come to our great nation where he was able to quickly climb the ladder of success. He obtained a quality education, developed his business acumen as a salesman and a supervisor, and ultimately achieved his dream of owning and operating his own business.

He started his Missouri-based business in 2003 with one employee and one contract. Today, Clean-Tek Floor Solutions employs more than a dozen Missourians and has worked successfully with private businesses and governmental agencies on both the state and federal level. From the work his company has done with our department of transportation to waterproof 15 Missouri bridges, to the cleaning services Clean-Tek has provided to Lambert International Airport, Sergio and his employees have developed a reputation for providing quality work and exemplary service.

Sergio's dream was made possible because he left behind a country that was oppressed by an overly intrusive government where his freedoms were suppressed and his rights were ignored. He came here to our nation and our state where we defend these freedoms – where government stays out of the way so enterprising individuals like Sergio have the opportunity to succeed.

Sergio, we appreciate the commitment you have made to making your dream come true right here in Missouri and for being such a vital part of our state's growing economy. Our promise to you is that we will continue to protect the freedoms and rights that inspired you to leave your homeland and make the journey to America four decades ago, and we will keep government out of your way as you continue to grow and expand your business in the decades to come.

All three of these outstanding Missourians may seem to have little in common, but they share with each other, and with us, the dream of a Missouri where jobs are plentiful, our children have access to a quality system of education, and our energy needs are met in a safe and affordable way.

And it is together that we can move our state in the direction of achieving these goals of placing policy into practice and turning sound bites into substantive change.

This session I challenge all of you to put aside any differences we may have – whether partisan, regional or otherwise – and work together to advance an agenda I believe will position Missouri for both immediate and long-term prosperity.

The opportunity lies ahead. While the hours will be long and the challenges numerous, I know we, as a collective of conscientious and compassionate public servants, have the dedication and the determination necessary to make a difference.

Our work begins today.

It begins now.

Let me once again say thank you for providing me this incredible honor of serving you as your Speaker – for allowing me to work with you on matters that will make our great state of Missouri that much greater.

May God bless you all, and may God bless the people of the great state of Missouri.

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER PRO TEM SMITH

Before I say anything else, let me simply say thank you.

Thank you to my family and friends who have supported me in my efforts to serve the people of Missouri. Without their love and encouragement I would not be here today.

Let me also thank each of you...my colleagues here in the Missouri House...for giving me the immense honor of serving as your Speaker Pro Tem. For those of you who have served with me for years now...we have developed friendships that will endure long past our time in this chamber. For those of you who are joining us for the first time, I look forward to the relationships that we are sure to build...and the memories we will make in what I hope will be a productive final two years for me here in Jefferson City.

As your Speaker Pro Tem, I want each of you to know that my door will always be open. Regardless of the side of the aisle you are on, I will be here to help you in any way I can. There will be times that we disagree...and inevitably there will be some differences...but at the end of the day we are all bound by the same purpose...to do what is right and best for the people of the great state of Missouri.

As I begin my final two years of service...I do so with an unwavering belief that now, more than ever, the legislature must act to protect Missouri from the encroachment of an overreaching federal government...a government that is out of touch with reality...and threatening to re-define the basic relationship our founders envisioned between the people and their government.

These are perilous times as the rights of states continue to be threatened by a seemingly endless list of mandates and regulations handed down from above. From the job-killing, economy-crippling edicts contained in the ill-conceived federal health care plan...to the cumbersome and invasive regulatory efforts that threaten to put a stranglehold on many of the family farmers and small businesses that drive our economy...to the endless sea of bloated bureaucracy that transforms even the most mundane inquiry from a private citizen into a herculean task...the actions of our federal government have time and time again reminded us that we, as states, must fend for ourselves...that we will not receive help from our federal counterparts when it comes to defending the conservative principles of fiscal responsibility and a limited and responsive government.

With every action taken by these out of touch Washington D.C. bureaucrats...we are sent one very clear message...that they have forgotten it is we, the states and the people, who created the federal government...not the other way around. Instead they ignore the intentions of our founding fathers...by acting as if the federal government created the states.

But we know the great men who founded this nation believed otherwise. In fact it was Thomas Jefferson, who clearly spelled out their intentions when he said, "I consider the foundation of the Constitution as laid on this ground that 'all powers not delegated to the United States, by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states or to the people.' And yet, Congress has defied the will of our founders...and worked to seize a boundless field of power...and in doing so, has encroached on the rights of states. Their arrogant disregard for the very nature of our system of government has given birth to policies that ignore our freedoms and trample on our rights, and with every action they have taken, they have forced states like ours to rally together to defend our sovereignty. So as we take action as states to stand in defense of our people...we simply follow the role defined by the men who created this nation.

I'm proud to say here in Missouri we have slapped away the overreaching hand of the federal government...with our passage of both the Health Care Freedom Act and last year's Proposition E...and with the many actions we have taken to defend our personal freedoms and embrace fiscal responsibility. In Missouri, we do not need the threats of "fiscal cliffs" and maxed-out "debt limits" to balance our budget and keep our fiscal house in order.

And we are not alone in our defense of the liberties of the people and in the conservative principles that have made this nation great. As we look across the nation, we see other states following our lead in telling the federal government it has gone too far. Furthermore, we see now that our states are truly the laboratories of democracy.

While Capitol Hill is firmly entrenched in a mindset of overtaxing and overspending...states are taking new and innovative approaches to solving the problems of their constituents...and bolstering their economies for long-term success.

From Texas where they are embracing revolutionary new ideas to help ensure all young people can afford a college education so they can train the workers of the future...to Kansas where they have taken bold steps to lower the tax burden, develop the workforce and put effective economic development tools in place...states are showing us the kind of leadership that is sorely lacking in Washington, D.C.

When it comes to a shining example of a government that embraces fiscally responsible spending...a commitment to reducing the size of bureaucracy and increasing the attention paid to the needs of the people...and a vision for the future that holds promise and hope rather than mountains of debt...it is the states we must look to for inspiration.

Our federal government, with a fiscal cliff solution that cuts spending far too little...and increases the tax burden far too much...has proven once and for all that it is too big and too out of touch to adequately address the needs of the people of the United States. And so, we as state legislators stand ready to answer the call to duty that our constituents elected us to carry out.

Here in Missouri, we will continue to provide Missouri-based solutions to the problems we face as Missourians.

As your Speaker Pro Tem, I hope you will stand with me to defend the traditional rights of farmers, hunters and fishermen. These proud and long-standing traditions that have been handed down from generation to generation have been under siege by Washington D.C. special interests and federal bureaucrats. These out-of-state radicals have sought to destroy an important part of the Missouri way of life.

Together we can stand in defense of our many farmers, hunters and fishermen...with language that will protect and preserve the time-honored traditions that Missouri families have carried on for generations...and that will forever enshrine this vital way of life that must continue if future generations are to have the kind of Missouri, and the kind of America, that our forefathers envisioned.

I also ask you to join me this session in taking a stand against our federal government on the issue of welfare reform. For more than a decade now the welfare-to-work program has been a successful model for helping put people back on their feet and back to work. Now the politicians in D.C. have opened the door to transform the system into a true entitlement program with handouts to those who have no desire to be productive members of society. This year in Missouri we will send the message loudly and clearly that we will reject their plans for a system that would encourage dependency on government handouts...and instead support a program that puts our neediest citizens on a path to gainful employment and self-sufficiency.

We have the opportunity this session to do great things for the people of Missouri...an opportunity to remind our federal government that we the people, and we the states, have the answers to the problems the career politicians in Washington, D.C. have been unable or unwilling to solve.

Across this nation, state legislatures just like ours are coming together to provide innovative solutions that should serve as inspiration for a federal government that has clearly lost its way.

Here in the people's House, we serve the will of those who elected us to office, and with every action we take, and every vote we make, we do so for the good of the families we serve.

Our founding fathers envisioned a government of citizen-legislators...and as I look across the chamber today, I see that vision is reality here in Missouri.

At a time when our federal government continues to stand in the way of progress and innovation...as it has grown too big and too burdensome...states have led the way. With the decisions we make together we send a message to the people of Missouri...and to the out-of-touch bureaucrats in Washington, D.C....that we, as a state, have done it better...and will continue to do it better both now and in the future.

Thank you again for giving me the immense honor of serving as your Speaker Pro Tem.

May God bless each and every one of you...and may God bless the great state of Missouri.

LETTER OF OBJECTION

January 9, 2013

Mr. Adam Crumbliss
Chief Clerk
Missouri House of Representatives
Missouri State Capitol
Jefferson City, MO 65101

Dear Mr. Crumbliss:

We the undersigned hereby object to the swearing-in of candidate Kent Hampton as state representative for the 150th District pending the outcome of a valid election to determine who should represent the district in the Missouri House of Representatives during the 97th General Assembly.

Pursuant to RSMo. 115.600, the election authority for Dunklin County petitioned the court for a new election in the 150th District due to mistakes by the election authority that cast doubt on the validity of the November 6, 2012, general election in that district. A judge has agreed the November 6 results are not valid and has ordered a new election.

None of the parties to the court action – including Candidate Hampton – has claimed that the November 6 results are valid and even Candidate Hampton has agreed that a new election must be held. The dispute remaining to be resolved by the courts is whether the law authorizes a partial new election in only certain precincts or if an entirely new election must be held.

As a result, it was improper to administer the oath of office to Candidate Hampton and seat him in the 97th General Assembly when he hasn't yet been validly elected to the office and resolution of the situation remains pending. Should Candidate Hampton lose the upcoming new election in the 150th District, any votes he casts prior to that time could be called into question and potentially jeopardize the validity of legislative actions.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jake Hummel
House Minority Floor Leader
State Representative District 81

/s/ Gail McCann Beatty
House Assistant Minority Floor Leader

Valda Stroesser and Sarah Alsager of Jefferson City, MO, sang the National Anthem.

The benediction was given by Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki.

"Behold," saith the Lord, "I have set before thee an open door." (Revelation 3:8)

Almighty God, as we enter the door of a new year and of a new session of the House of Representatives we pause in Your presence to offer unto You the devotion of our hearts and to pray for guidance, strength, and wisdom as we face the crucial days and weeks that lie ahead.

In this high hour of a new beginning give to us, the new leaders of our House and people, a deep sense of humility, a broad spirit of understanding, a great attitude of good will, and a real faith in You that we may govern well, by the votes we cast this year, for the good of all and that freedom and justice may live long in Missouri. In this time of transition may there be a spirit of unity among us and may we go forward together to a greater House and a better state.

And the House says, "Amen!"

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SECOND DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 10, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

*The Lord give thee wisdom and understanding....that thou mayest keep the law of the Lord, thy god.
(I Chronicles 22:12)*

O God of all goodness, in this sacred moment we bow at the altar of prayer thanking You for this glorious state in which we live. May we now and always prove ourselves a people mindful of Your presence, eager to do Your will, and ready to serve our fellow citizens. Save us from bitterness and discord. Mold us into a people united in purpose and principle, in faith and fortitude.

Grant Your wisdom to all members of this House of Representatives, especially our Speaker. Direct their decisions, prosper their planning, and expedite their efforts as they seek to promote the welfare of Missouri and the good of its citizens. (f) When a motion has been decided by a committee, any member voting on the prevailing side may move to reconsider the vote provided that: (i) the chair still has possession of the bill; and (ii) the motion to reconsider is made on the same day on which the motion was decided or at the next day on which the committee convenes with a quorum present at a properly scheduled meeting at which the original motion would be in order. A majority of the members appointed to the committee is required to sustain any motion to reconsider. The motion to reconsider shall be a recorded vote.

Committee Hearings

Rule 27. All bills afforded a committee hearing shall be considered by giving the sponsor or handler, the proponents, the opponents, and those testifying for informational purposes a reasonable opportunity to be heard. Persons addressing the committee must keep their remarks to the point and avoid repetition and are subject to call to order by the chair for failure to do so. In the discretion of the committee chair, the length of time allowed one speaker or questioner may be limited.

This rule may be waived by unanimous consent of all members of the committee, whether in attendance or not. Failure to take the bill up for consideration at the designated time requires that the one legislative day notice be given again before it is taken up for consideration.

Other Duties

Rule 31. Each committee, in addition to the duty above prescribed, shall perform such other duties as may be required by the House. If it shall become necessary to compel the presence of any person before a committee, the production of records or documents, or to receive sworn testimony before a committee, a subpoena may be issued under the hand of the Speaker as provided by law and an oath or affirmation may be administered by the chair of the committee as provided by law.

(e) At the conclusion of the investigation, the Committee shall report its findings, conclusions, and recommendations to the House, whereupon the House shall act by resolution to sustain or reject the Committee recommendations. The Committee may recommend that the House expel the member as provided in Article III, Section 18 of the Missouri Constitution, or that the House punish the member as provided in Article III, Section 18 of the Missouri Constitution, by reprimand on the adoption of the resolution or by censure by the Speaker in open session.

House committee amendments and House committee substitutes to Senate consent bills shall be deemed adopted on the fifth legislative day.

AMENDMENTS AND SUBSTITUTES

Rule 46. (a) In Writing and Distributed in Advance. Proposed amendments must be reduced to writing. Every amendment shall be distributed in advance of the time the bill is initially taken up for consideration. It shall not be in order to offer a substitute amendment to an amendment to an amendment. When an amendment is offered, a substitute for that amendment is offered and an amendment to the substitute is offered, it shall not be in order to offer a substitute for the amendment to the substitute. Any proposed amendment in the third degree shall be out of order. Any bill may be withdrawn by the sponsor before amendment or decision thereon. Any amendment that increases the amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated in the House appropriations bills shall be required to be submitted with a separate amendment that makes an equal reduction in general revenue or general revenue equivalent in the same bill or any other of the bills still pending. If the reduction is in another bill, the decreasing amendment shall be taken up first, and the increasing amendment may be taken up only if the decreasing amendment is adopted.

2. If a member's decreasing amendment is adopted and the same member's increasing amendment is defeated, the decreasing amendment's adoption is void.

3. The offering and adoption of an amendment decreasing the amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated without a balancing increase in the same amendment or a paired amendment creates no right of another member to offer an increasing amendment in any amount up to the amount of the decrease effected by the decreasing amendment, and no member may be recognized for the purpose of making such an amendment.

4. For the perfection of the House appropriations bills of the state budget only, it shall be permissible to amend any line item as often as the House pleases, as long as prior adopted amendments to the line item are taken into account.

5. No House Bill or House Committee Substitute of the state budget shall be adopted until all properly offered amendments to the first 12 House appropriations bills or substitutes have been disposed of.

Committee Substitute Printed

Order of Amendments

Rule 48. When amendments to any bill, motion or proposition are pending, they shall be voted on in the following order:

(1) Amendments to the amendment are disposed of before the substitute is taken up. Only one amendment to the amendment is in order at one time; but as rapidly as one is disposed of by rejection or incorporation as a part of the amendment, another is in order as long as any member desires to offer one.

(2) Amendments to the substitute are next voted on, and may be offered, one at a time, and as rapidly as one is disposed of by rejection or incorporation as a part of the substitute amendment, another is in order as long as any member desires to offer one, until the substitute amendment is adopted.

(4) The amendment is voted on last. If any substitute has not been agreed to, the vote comes on the amendment as amended.

(5) The House Committee Substitute is next voted upon, after opportunity for amendment. If the House Committee Substitute is adopted, there shall be an additional vote for the perfection of the bill, as amended.

(6) If there is no House Committee Substitute, or if the House Committee Substitute is not adopted, the original House Bill is next voted upon, after opportunity for amendment.

On Speaking

Rule 81. When any member is about to speak in a debate or deliver a matter to the House, he/she shall rise from his/her seat and respectfully address himself/herself to “Mr. Speaker” or “Madam Speaker”. The member shall refer, as appropriate, to other members as “Lady”, “Gentleman” or “Representative”. The member shall confine himself/herself to the questions under debate and avoid personality and derogatory personal comments. If any member violates the rules of the House, the Speaker, or any member, may call him/her to order. Any member called to order shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain, and the House shall, if appealed to, decide the case.

Appeals

Rule 82. If there is no appeal, the decision of the Speaker is final. If the decision of the Speaker is in favor of the member called to order, he/she may proceed; if otherwise, and the case requires it, he/she shall be liable to the censure of the House.

Member to Rise or Seek Recognition

Rule 83. The Speaker shall not recognize any member desiring to speak unless such member arises or appropriately seeks recognition at or near his/her desk. When two or more members seek recognition at the same time the Speaker shall name the member who is to speak first, the other members having the preference next to speak.

Member May Speak - How Often

Rule 84. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House, nor more than once until all other members desiring to speak have spoken. Except when reporting a bill or resolution from a committee, no member may speak or inquire for more than fifteen minutes unless by unanimous consent of the House. When the question is to Third Read and Pass a House Consent Bill or a Senate Consent Bill, the floor handler of the bill and the ranking committee member from the party not the same as the bill handler, shall not speak or inquire for more than ten minutes. Other members shall not speak or inquire for more than five minutes on such bills. The provisions of this rule shall not take precedence over any limitations set pursuant to Rule 25 [(32)] (34).

No Member Shall Name Another Member in Debate

Rule 85. No member shall name another member in debate, but shall refer to the member by district number or county.

No member shall walk between two members who are engaged in debate or inquiries in the Hall of the House.

No member shall be recorded as voting when he/she was not present when the vote was taken. Nothing herein contained shall prohibit a member from voting “Present” on a question, and such vote shall be recorded in the Journal. In the case of equal division the question shall be lost. In the event that a member’s vote (or absence) is incorrectly recorded in the Journal, he/she shall file with the Chief Clerk an affidavit stating that he/she was in the chamber at the time the vote was taken, that he/she did in fact vote, that the vote (or absence) was incorrectly recorded and the correct vote that should have been recorded. In addition to any other penalty provided by rule or law, the filing of a false affidavit shall subject that member to censure by the House.

(b) A member may not authorize any other person to cast his/her vote or record his/her presence. No other person may cast a member's vote or record a member's presence. A vote by a member of a committee with respect to any measure or matter may not be cast by proxy.

Verification of the Roll

Members Not to Interrupt Calling of Ayes and Noes; Changing Vote

Rule 90. Except as otherwise specifically allowed by these rules no member shall be permitted to interrupt a roll call, and no member shall be allowed to vote or change his/her vote (except to have his/her vote correctly recorded) after a verification has begun, or after the final vote is announced.

Demand for Verification

Rule 91. Any five members may demand a verification of the roll call if such is made at any time prior to the time the voting has ended; which, in the event of electronic voting, shall be when the Speaker orders the voting board closed. A demand for verification and a call for absentees are the only reasons for which a member may interrupt a roll call vote.

Bell to Signal Recorded Vote

Rule 92. At a reasonable time prior to the beginning of calling the ayes and noes on any question, a bell notifying the members of a roll call shall be sounded. After the votes are registered the absentees shall be noted and upon demand of any member, another bell signifying that a call of absentees is being taken shall be sounded and a reasonable time shall be allowed after the sounding of the bell before the voting is closed.

Roll Call Votes

Rule 93. In all cases where a rule of the House of Representatives refers to the "calling of the names of the members" or "calling of the ayes or noes" or "calling of the roll", such reference shall be understood to refer also to the "taking" of the vote by electronic roll call system. There shall be a taking of the vote by electronic roll call system on the motion of any one member which is seconded by four other members immediately standing. A vote by electronic roll call shall be limited to thirty minutes, except in the cases of quorum calls. In the event that the electronic roll call system is inoperable, the taking and recording of such vote shall be done by calling the name of each member and recording the respective aye, no or present votes. Any member not responding when his/her name is called shall be recorded as absent.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRD DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 14, 2013

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

A faithful man shall abound with blessings. (Proverbs 28:20)

Eternal God, we rejoice in the glory of a new day of transitions and in the beginning of another week. During this period of history in state leadership which always brings about changes, causes some to hope and some to be shaken, we would use this hallowed moment of prayer to be assured of Your presence and to tap the spiritual resources we need as we face the pressing duties of these hours.

May we feel Your spirit leading us as we make our decisions, may we possess Your power which holds us steady amid the constant pressures of daily life, and may our trust in You deliver us from those tensions which would tear us to pieces, and from those worries which would wear us out. All through this Inauguration Day may we think our best, do our best, and be our best, and be worthy of our calling to this high office.

Hasten the day when justice and love shall rule the hearts of all and reign in the lives of all people.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Sawyer Lincoln Richardson, Katherine Jones, Abigail Jones and Grace Allen.

The Journal of the second day was approved as printed by the following vote:

INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF JEREMIAH W. (JAY) NIXON
55TH GOVERNOR OF MISSOURI

Thank you, Judge Burlison. Thank you, President Pro Tem Dempsey and Speaker Jones.

Let me begin by thanking the people of Missouri for the privilege of serving a second term as your Governor. I am grateful and humbled that once again you have given me the opportunity to lead our state forward. I will honor the trust and confidence you have placed in me each and every day.

I'm joined today by Missouri's First Lady – my lovely wife, Georganne – our sons, Jeremiah and Will, and the rest of our family. I'd like to welcome Missouri's former governors, our statewide office holders, members of the Missouri Supreme Court, legislators and the people of Missouri.

When I first came to the Capitol as a freshman senator from my hometown of De Soto, I was just 30 years old – the youngest person in the Senate. I had the good fortune to serve with many thoughtful, dedicated and capable legislators on both sides of the aisle. Then, as now, Republicans and Democrats were deeply committed to their beliefs. Then, as now, we had a divided state government, with a governor of one party, and the other party holding a majority in the legislature. Disagreement and debate were daily fare.

But it was possible to disagree while continuing to advance the public good. Cooperation wasn't considered a sign of weakness, but rather a prerequisite for progress. And progress is not partisan. We understood that, first and foremost, we were all Missourians.

So no matter which way the pendulum of power might swing, or which way the political winds blew, our bedrock Missouri values of hard work, optimism, faith and compassion never wavered. Those steadfast values have served the people of our state well for generations, and will serve us well for generations to come. Now, some pundits like to say that politics in the Show-Me State has never been more partisan, more difficult than it is today. But as history tells us, that's simply not true.

One hundred and fifty years ago, Missouri was bitterly divided in the struggle for our nation's survival – and its soul. For a time, Missouri had two state governments, two state capitals and two governors. Two state flags fluttered above the boys in blue and gray, the sons of farmers and cobblers, tinkers and slaves. They fought and died on blood-soaked ground from the Bootheel to the Iowa border. They rose with valor and fell with honor at Liberty and Lexington, Carthage and Wilson's Creek, Boonville and Fredericktown.

Our newest state park commemorates the Battle of Island Mound, where the first African-American troops shed their blood for the Union in 1862. Centralia was the site of an infamous massacre, when confederate guerrillas bushwhacked more than 100 Union soldiers and hacked them to ribbons. Taking part in the killing spree were two young brothers from Clay County: 20-year-old Frank and 16-year-old Jesse James.

Twelve of Missouri's governors served in the military during the Civil War. That's right: twelve. And for years after the war's official end, the suffering, retaliation and political struggles dragged on – crippling our economy, testing our resolve. That my friends? That was hard politics. But from that time forward the arc of Missouri history shows us that even the deepest divisions can be healed.

The people of Missouri are tough and resilient. And generation after generation, a bold vision for the future and a passion for progress spur us forward. We pushed back the wilderness, tilled the prairie and opened the western frontier. We built railroads and highways, founded great universities and hospitals, tamed mighty rivers and even conquered space.

In good times and bad, through hellish drought and high water, the people of Missouri have proved their mettle. And, as we've seen these past few years, when our backs are against the wall, we come together: When the American auto industry was on the ropes in 2009, we pulled together and got it back on its feet. More vehicles made in Missouri means thousands of jobs for hardworking folks in every corner of our state.

In a competitive and volatile global marketplace, we stepped up our game to set all-time records for exports in agriculture, biotech and defense – deals worth billions, creating prosperity at home. When Mother Nature hit our neighbors with ice storms, floods, drought and the most devastating tornado in our history, we rallied to their side. We were there at every step – from rescue to rebuilding. And the strength and resilience of Missourians inspired the world.

History has left its indelible mark on our landscape and our character. But history is not destiny. We do not inherit the future. We must build the future. A future without limits: where all our children get an education that prepares them to compete for the best jobs in the global economy; where the brightest minds in science and technology advance the frontiers of human knowledge; where business and the arts flourish; where the bounty of Missouri's farms and fields will feed, clothe and power the planet; and where the natural beauty of our state is preserved and cherished for all time.

I am more optimistic than ever about our future. We will put our shared principles ahead of our small differences and work together for the common good. The people of Missouri deserve – and expect – no less. And that is how I intend to lead.

Throughout my quarter century of public service, I've had the opportunity to visit with thousands of Missourians from all walks of life, in every corner of this great state. Year after year, I've met them in the halls of this historic Capitol, exercising their First Amendment rights: midwives and math teachers; farmers and firefighters; Muslims and Mennonites; soldiers and Scouts. They may not – and in fact do not – always agree. But they are a vivid reminder that democracy is a chorus of many voices. And our democracy and our state are stronger for it.

On days like this one, I can look out the windows of my office and see the flags of our state and our nation, their colors bright against the winter sky, the wide Missouri River in the distance. It's a beautiful sight. It is a reminder of the bold pioneers who walked this land before us, who explored the wilderness, who dedicated their lives to the creation of a more perfect union, who fought and died so that we might one day enjoy peace and prosperity. I think, too, of the bold pioneers who someday will explore new frontiers beyond our imagining.

Today, I took a solemn oath to serve all the people of Missouri, to do everything in my power to make your lives better, and to make life better for our children and grandchildren. I pledge my oath to the waitress pulling double shifts just to feed and clothe her kids, praying that nobody gets hurt or sick – because she can't afford a doctor's bill.

I pledge my oath to the battle-weary veteran, home from Afghanistan, who deserves a job worthy of his skills and sacrifice. I pledge my oath to the farmer who plows and plants through flood and drought, year in and year out. Hard working, God-fearing, decent folk. I carry them in my heart. Their strength gives me strength. Their courage gives me courage.

And to live a life of service to the people of Missouri is my greatest honor. Our time here is fleeting. But the work we do will endure. Together we can – and we will – build a bright future for the great state of Missouri in the greatest nation on earth.

May God Almighty guide us in our work. Thank you and God bless.

Musical selections were performed by the 135th Army Band, MOARNG, Springfield, Missouri.

The Benediction was given by the Reverend Daniel Hilty, Senior Pastor, First United Methodist Church, Jefferson City, Missouri.

The Colors were retired by the Joint Service Color Guard.

Governor Nixon and Mrs. Nixon were escorted from the platform by the Legislative Inaugural Committee.

The Joint Session was dissolved by President Pro Tem Dempsey.

A musical selection was performed by the 135th Army Band, MOARNG, Springfield, Missouri.

Speaker Jones resumed the Chair.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FOURTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 15, 2013

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Why art thou cast down, O my soul? Hope thou in God. (Psalm 42:5)

God of life, Who loves all the children and the simple, teach us to trust You and to live in good will with all our people. Forgive those moments when we find it difficult to believe in You, discouraging to trust one another, and disheartening to have faith in ourselves. We are weighed down by the problems we face as a state and by the burdens we carry day by day. So often we want to change conditions and circumstances without any thought of changing ourselves or of letting Your spirit change us.

So we pause in Your presence now, praying that You will change us, restoring our faith in You, retrieving our belief in one another, and renewing our respect for ourselves. May we live this day keeping our lives and the lives of our citizens in Your strong loving hands.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Rose Marie Lant, Stephen Lant, Catherine Lant, Logan Lant, Jennie Hubbard and Hunter Houghton.

The Journal of the third day was approved as printed by the following vote:

- b. Report the bill “Do Pass” to the House with a limitation on the time of debate.
- c. Send the bill back to the originating committee in the form as originally referred by the Speaker.

When the Committee on Rules sends the bill back to the originating committee, that committee may amend the bill and report the bill again without the need to reconsider the initial vote by which the committee voted the bill “Do Pass”.

2. When a bill is automatically referred to the Committee on Rules with a recommendation that it “Do Pass - Consent”, the Rules Committee shall review the bill for the purpose of determining whether or not it should have “consent” status. The Committee on Rules may decide, by a majority of those present, whether or not to place the bill on the appropriate “Consent” calendar. When the Committee on Rules declines to place the bill on the appropriate “Consent” calendar, it may consider whether or not to report the bill to the House with a “Do Pass” recommendation, without “consent” status. The authority of the Committee on Rules with respect to limiting debate shall apply to bills reported by it as “Do Pass - Federal Mandate”.

4. When the Rules Committee shall place a limitation on the time of floor debate on a bill, or on amendments, such time shall be divided equally between, and controlled by, the floor handler of the bill and the floor leader of the political party other than that of the floor handler, or their respective designee(s). The floor handler shall always have the right to have the final one minute of designated time. If time has been allocated and unused by either side and no member from that side is seeking recognition, the Speaker may declare additional time waived and recognize the members of the other side to complete use of their time. Nothing in this rule shall entitle any member to speak longer than the House Rules otherwise allow.

5. In reviewing bills automatically referred to it from another committee, the Committee on Rules may, but is not required to, take such testimony as it deems appropriate to make its decisions. The committee shall not amend any bill that was not initially referred to the Committee on Rules.

2. If a member's decreasing amendment is adopted and the same member's increasing amendment is defeated, the decreasing amendment's adoption is void.

3. 4. For the perfection of the House appropriations bills of the state budget only, it shall be permissible to amend any line item as often as the House pleases, as long as prior adopted amendments to the line item are taken into account.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 16, 2013

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do His commandments: His praise endureth forever. (Psalm 111:10)

God of Glory, we bow before You with our daily devotions, grateful to be alive, opening our hearts to You and endeavoring to make them channels for Your power in our state. Keep our thinking clear and clean, our emotions in complete control, and give us the mind to keep our bodies healthy and fit for finer service to You and for greater service to the state of Missouri.

Give to these Members of the House faith, hope and love, that they may lead our people into the right paths of enduring peace and abounding goodwill.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fourth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

Dear Chief Clerk Crumbliss:

I am writing to respectfully request that House Bill No. 94 be withdrawn. The bill was seeking to require a full-time nonresident student in a college, university, or technical school to pay the same hunting, trapping, and fishing license or permit fee as a resident applicant. The Missouri Department of Conservation has informed me that this is a rule already.

I appreciate your consideration and hope that you will contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTH DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 17, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

O give thanks unto the Lord; for He is good: for His mercy endureth forever. (Psalm 106:1)

O God, Who is worthy of a nobler praise than our lips can utter, and worthy of a greater love than our hearts can offer, in Your presence we bow this moment as into Your hands we commit our lives and hearts.

May the thoughts in our minds become channels for Your goodness, may the noble dreams in our hearts find their fulfillment in You and may the work of our hands be honest and true. Together may we build a greater and a better state upon the foundations of the faith of our parents and our faith in the possibility of a new day.

Open our eyes to the manifestations of Your spirit in our world. Give us courage in weakness, steady us when we would fall, enlarge our sympathies that we may become all God's children. Make us a people grateful for our privileges, faithful in our stewardship, and sensitive to the needs of our innocent.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 22, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Have no anxiety about anything; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. (Philippians 4:6)

Eternal God, Whose mercy is from everlasting to everlasting and Whose truth endures forever - in this moment of prayer may we hear Your voice speaking to us and with receptive minds may we respond. Always and in all ways You are very, very near. Help us to be aware of Your presence and to keep ourselves open to the leading of Your spirit. Strengthen us when we fail; support us when we fall and sustain us when we falter.

Open our eyes that we may see the higher virtues, open our ears that we may hear the greater voices as they speak to us, open our hands that we may deal wisely and justly the events that life hands to us - not that we may always win but that we may act fairly and honorably. By Your spirit help us to live together in this land of our birth and preserve us, O God, for in You do we put our trust. Finally, grant eternal rest to Stan Musial who brought honor and dignity to baseball in Missouri.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

HCS HB 110 - Smith (120)

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

EIGHTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 23, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

The Lord is the strength of my life. (Psalm 27:1)

O God, Whose still small voice calls us to turn aside for a moment from the weary ways of a busy world to wait upon You and to find our strength in You - make us aware of Your Spirit, as we bow before the altar of Your presence. Amid the haste of daily duties and the pressure of persistent problems may we find in You strength for the day, wisdom to make sound decisions, and the spirit of good will to motivate all our endeavors on behalf of our beloved state.

With a consciousness of Your presence alive within us and tapping the unfailing resources of our faith may our souls be restored, our minds refreshed, our bodies renewed, and together may we be made ready for the tasks and the responsibilities we face these hours in the People's House. Bless our chief justice and all members of the Missouri Supreme Court who will be present and in our midst today.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ashley Euritt and Abbey Euritt.

The Doorkeeper announced the approach of the Honorable Richard B. Teitelman, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Missouri. Chief Justice Teitelman was duly escorted to the House Chamber and to the Speaker's dais where he delivered the following message to the assembly in Joint Session.

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY ADDRESS

Chief Justice Richard B. Teitelman

Mr. Speaker, Mr. President, Mr. President Pro Tem, members of the General Assembly: Thank you for welcoming me here again this morning. I am humbled to stand before you today to deliver this 40th state of the judiciary address.

Before I begin, let's take a moment of silence to remember the great Stan "the Man" Musial, who not only was a great baseball player but also a humanitarian who treated everyone with graciousness and dignity.

I congratulate all of you – and especially the new legislators coming to Jefferson City for their first session – for your commitment to serving your fellow citizens. I want to offer particular congratulations to your new leaders: in the House, Speaker Tim Jones; Speaker Pro Tem Jason Smith; and Majority Floor Leader John Diehl; and in the Senate, President Pro Tem Tom Dempsey; and Majority Floor Leader Ron Richard.

I was struck by something President Pro Tem Dempsey said on the opening day of the legislative session. He observed that this remarkable state truly has been “the land of opportunity for so many.” Like Senator Dempsey, I too see Missouri as a land of opportunity, where people reach out to others and help them succeed.

I know my colleagues on the Supreme Court share my sentiments. Let me introduce success stories in their own right: Judges Mary Russell, Patty Breckenridge and Zel Fischer, all of whom practiced law in small firms in rural Missouri communities; Judge George Draper III, whose father – while serving as an assistant attorney general in the 1960s under Tom Eagleton – was refused service at restaurants here in Jefferson City; and Judge Laura Denvir Stith and our newest addition, Jefferson City native Judge Paul Wilson, both of whom learned the importance of public service at an early age from parents who were community leaders.

I remain grateful to have the opportunity to serve with such wonderful people who are so dedicated to serving the constitution and the people of Missouri.

Monday, as we celebrated the birth of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., I thought of success stories here in Missouri – stories like those beginning in 1920 with the election of Republican Representative Walthall Moore and continuing through the 1960s with Senator Theodore McNeal, Representative DeVerne Calloway, Representative Leon Jordan and Representative Harold Holiday Sr.; through the 1970s with Representative Orchid Jordan and Senator Gwen Giles; and into the 1980s with Senator Lee Vertis Swinton – men and women who, across generations, cast their votes in this great institution as Missouri’s first black legislators.

I also thought about Lloyd Gaines and Lucile Bluford, both of whom sought in the 1930s to become students at the University of Missouri. Their struggles helped lead to opportunities. In just the past decade, the university’s enrollment of African-Americans alone has increased by more than 80 percent, and now nearly 20 percent of the university’s freshmen are minorities.

Truly, opportunities for success abound in Missouri. One more recent success story is that of Alice Conway, assistant general counsel at Monsanto.

She is remarkable for her educational achievements – she earned her Ph.D. in comparative literature at the same time as she earned her law degree from Washington University in St. Louis; she is a mezzosoprano who has studied at Julliard; and she has studied not only English but also French, German, Latin and Spanish literature.

She is all the more remarkable because she did all this reading in Braille, as she has been blind since infancy. Her mother translated many of her reading materials into Braille by hand. Alice now manages commercial and employment law issues for Monsanto.

We in the judiciary are doing what we can to create more opportunities for people in Missouri to gain access to our courts. Thanks largely to grant funding, we are providing interpreters as needed in all criminal, family, domestic and juvenile cases, and we now have a dedicated language-access point of contact for every county in the state.

At the Supreme Court, we are working to provide closed-captioning services for the oral arguments we stream online, and we will be providing informational brochures in Braille and audio files for the blind.

The judiciary’s educational efforts are expanding statewide. We continue to welcome thousands of your constituents as visitors touring our beautiful Supreme Court Building. And we now have more than 125 individuals – business and civic leaders, teachers, lawyers, court staff, judges and others – volunteering their time to help educate our citizens about the role Missouri’s courts serve in our outstanding system of government as well as the importance of the constitution and the laws.

One example of a local community coming together to get young people excited about these important issues is Houston, Texas – Missouri, that is. Former legislator and now Associate Circuit Judge Doug Gaston has engaged local leaders and high school students together in a “Constitution Project.”

Much like we all have to work together, he has worked with the local police department, sheriff’s office, newspapers, radio stations, lawyers, and, of course, school administrators and teachers to provide legal experience.

During this Constitution Project, students from four Texas County high schools spent part of their fall semester participating in a mock criminal case. Some students investigated the crime scene and analyzed the evidence, others reported in the local newspaper and radio stations about the progress of the investigation and case, and the rest served as prosecution and defense attorneys. The project helped them see first-hand how so many facets of our constitutional system of government work together.

Winners were chosen at the school and county level and awarded scholarships. Along with Judge Gaston and some of the local leaders who made the Constitution Project possible, we have several of the winners here with us today: county winners Brittany Scott and Nathan Poynter, both of Houston High School; and Houston High School winner Dusti Turner. Let's recognize them for their wonderful efforts.

This Constitution Project has been such a success that the members of the Supreme Court Committee on Civic Education – in partnership with the Missouri Highway Patrol, the Missouri Press Association, the Missouri Broadcasters Association and the Missouri Bar – hope to bring it to other local communities, eventually having a statewide competition.

As another statewide effort, the courts continue to try to make it easier and more affordable for people to file cases. The Supreme Court, all three districts of the court of appeals, and the circuit courts in Callaway and St. Charles counties are up and running in the Missouri eFiling System, and an additional 25 county circuit courts plan to join the eFiling System this year.

Although Judge Ray Price Jr. left the Court last summer to return to private practice, his legacy remains. Thanks largely to his commitment to being “smart,” and not just “tough,” about the way we deal with those in the criminal justice system, we now have treatment court divisions serving all but two of our 45 judicial circuits.

With a graduation rate exceeding 50 percent, Missouri now has more than 12,000 graduates who successfully have completed treatment court programs. In addition, nearly 600 drug-free babies have been born to treatment court participants.

One drug court graduate has received national recognition: Josh Palmer of Malden was featured in a nationwide meth-prevention media campaign sponsored by the Office of National Drug Control Policy. Josh's first encounter with meth at 17 spiraled into a full-blown addiction that eventually cost him his job, his house and the trust of his family. Through the drug court program in Dunklin County, Josh was able to beat his addiction and turn his life around. He now lives with his wife and children and works as a substance abuse counselor for youth in Hayti. Josh, will you please stand and be recognized?

Missouri's treatment courts are celebrating their 20th anniversary this year. One of the reasons we have drug courts in Missouri is because of the leadership of Albert Riederer – a former court of appeals judge and three-term Jackson County prosecutor – who died December 27 after a courageous battle with cancer. While he was prosecutor, Albert spearheaded the effort to fund a drug court in Kansas City that was just the second in the country. One of his partners in this effort – Jim Nunnally, former administrator of the Jackson County “COMBAT” program to help fight drug abuse and drug-related crime – was honored earlier this month for his contribution to the development of the Jackson County drug court.

We appreciate everything that people like Albert and Jim have done for their community, their state and, indeed, the nation – as Missouri has become a national leader in drug courts. It has three “mentor courts” established as educational training sites for other drug courts throughout the country. And last fall, Jackson County's family drug court received a national award of excellence for being one of just five peer learning courts.

Because it brings positive change to Missourians and their communities, this model of providing treatment to certain nonviolent criminal offenders has moved beyond just drug courts. In 2010, your legislation made Missouri one of the first states in the nation to establish DWI courts.

And we now have three regional treatment courts serving the unique needs of our military veterans. One success story is Kennedy, who served in the Army in the 1980s and who, a decade later, fell into drug and alcohol abuse, leading to multiple arrests. Kennedy graduated from the St. Louis veterans treatment court this past September and now coordinates a computer clinic to help others in that program learn basic computer skills. The treatment court was his key to freedom from addiction and crime. Let's salute Kennedy, who is here with us today.

We also want to thank you in the legislative branch and those in the executive branch for working with the judiciary during the last year to implement meaningful reforms that make sentencing for nonviolent offenders more effective and our state safer.

We too can create amazing opportunities when we strive to follow the example of cooperation among the branches of government set by civic leaders such as Albert Riederer and our own longtime Supreme Court clerk, Tom Simon, who also died late last year.

These leaders, and so many more like them in Missouri, embody Dr. Martin Luther King's belief, drawn from the words of the prophet Amos, that we should not be satisfied until "justice rolls down like water and righteousness like a mighty stream." And with students like those in Texas County embracing the ideals of justice laid out in our constitution, Missouri will be in good hands in the years to come.

I know all of us on the Court – and all of you here today – firmly believe in our state's motto – carved into the dais in this beautiful chamber – "Let the welfare of the people be the supreme law." I am humbled to serve with you.

I know you all are very busy, but if you have the opportunity, please join us now for lunch, graciously provided by the Missouri Bar, downstairs in Hearing Room 3. For those who enjoyed the knishes last year, we are bringing more this year, and it also will give you a great opportunity to meet the Bar's new executive director, Sebrina Barrett.

Thank you. And God Bless America!

The Joint Session was dissolved by Senator Richard.

Speaker Jones resumed the Chair.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 139 ETHICS COMMITTEE RULES OF PROCEDURE

RULE 1. Scope and Authority

These Rules of Procedure govern the conduct of the investigation of complaints of ethical misconduct by a member of the House and are adopted pursuant to House Rule 36.

RULE 2. Definitions

As used in these Rules, unless the context requires otherwise, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings, and the use of masculine gender shall include the feminine.

(1) Censure - A sanction which recognizes the respondent's conduct constituted a legal or moral wrong, and which shall include punishment in the form of denying privileges of office, which recommendation is included as part of the committee's report and requires the presence of the respondent in the chamber during consideration and vote by the entire House on such resolution.

(2) Letter of Reproval - A sanction which expresses disapproval of conduct based on the appropriateness of such conduct by a legislator, regardless of whether the conduct constitutes a legal or moral wrong and is included as part of the committee's report.

(3) Reprimand - A sanction which recognizes the respondent's conduct constituted a legal or moral wrong and which may include punishment in the form of denying privileges of office, which recommendation is included as part of the committee's report, is issued by the Speaker and the recommendation for reprimand is made a public record.

RULE 3. Quorum

A quorum exists when a majority of the members of the Committee are present.

RULE 4. Form of Complaints

A. All complaints filed with the Speaker against a member of the House shall be made by a member. The complaints shall be confidential and shall be referred to the Committee on Ethics within ten (10) days and shall be in writing and under oath, setting forth in simple, concise and direct statements:

- (1) The name and legal address of the member or members acting as complainant;
- (2) The name of the member of the House alleged to have engaged in the commission of a crime, misconduct, willful neglect of duty, corruption in office or other acts constituting ethical misconduct. "Misconduct" means:
 - (a) Any conduct constituting a legal or moral wrong which materially impairs the member's ability to perform the duties of his office or substantially impairs public confidence in the General Assembly;
 - (b) Any conduct constituting a conflict of interest under Chapter 105, RSMo;
 - (c) The intentional filing of a false complaint or the filing of a complaint in reckless disregard of the truth.
- (3) The nature of the alleged crime, misconduct, neglect, corruption or other unethical act, including when applicable, the specific law, rule, regulation or ethical standard violated;
- (4) The facts alleged to have given rise to the violation; and
- (5) Where the facts are alleged upon the information and belief of the complainant, the complaint shall so state and set forth the basis for such information and belief.

B. All documents in the possession of the complainant that are relevant to and in support of the allegations shall be appended to the complaint.

RULE 5. Initial Examination of the Complaint by the Committee

A. Within thirty (30) days of the assignment of the complaint by the Speaker, the Committee shall determine if it is in compliance with Rule 4 of these Rules, and whether on the face of the complaint, the allegations contained therein are within the jurisdiction of the Committee, and if so, whether the allegations merit proceeding to a preliminary hearing. The complainant shall not act as a member of the Committee at a hearing in which the complainant is likely to be called as a necessary witness. A respondent shall not act as a member of the Committee for purposes of his complaint.

B. Complaints determined not to be in compliance with Rule 4 of these Rules shall be returned to the complainant with a general statement that it is not in compliance with the Rules of Procedure. The complaint may be resubmitted in the proper form.

C. Once a determination has been made that the complaint complies with Rule 4 of these Rules, a majority of the Committee appointed shall vote by roll call to either:

- (1) Defer action pending completion of any other administrative, disciplinary, commission, or judicial proceeding;
- (2) Proceed to a preliminary hearing;
- (3) Dismiss the complaint. When a motion to proceed to a preliminary hearing fails on a recorded vote, the complaint shall be immediately dismissed.

D. In determining whether or not to proceed the Committee shall consider the following:

- (1) The credible evidence contained in the complaint or appended thereto of the commission of a crime, misconduct, willful neglect of duty, corruption in office, or other acts violating applicable ethical standards;
- (2) Other administrative or disciplinary action by other interested bodies;
- (3) Criminal investigation, Missouri Ethics Commission proceeding, or judicial proceedings, either civil or criminal; and
- (4) Other relevant circumstances that would justify expediting, declining or deferring action by the Committee.

E. Complaints determined to be in compliance with Rule 4 of these Rules and accepted for a preliminary hearing shall be transmitted to the respondent with a copy of the Rules of Procedure and notice in writing that the respondent has twenty-one (21) calendar days to respond to the complaint either by way of answer or motion pursuant to Rule 6 of these Rules. The complainant shall also be notified, in writing, of the action of the Committee. Examination of the complaint and the determination of Rule 5.C. shall be conducted in a closed meeting.

RULE 6. Answers and Motions

A. If the Committee determines that the complaint merits proceeding to a preliminary hearing, the respondent shall have twenty-one (21) calendar days in which to respond to the complaint by way of answer or motion, unless this time period is waived by the respondent. Any answer or motion shall be in writing, signed by the respondent and his counsel, if he has one, and shall be limited to the following:

- (1) An admission or denial under oath, of the allegations set forth in the complaint, including negative and affirmative defenses, and any other relevant information, including supporting evidence which the respondent may desire to submit. Failure to file an answer within the time prescribed shall be considered by the Committee as a denial of each allegation;
- (2) An objection to the jurisdiction of the Committee to investigate the complaint; or
- (3) An objection to the participation of any member of the Committee in an investigation of the complaint on the grounds that the member cannot render an impartial and unbiased decision in the case. The majority of the members present shall rule on the objection to the participation of any member of the Committee. A temporary replacement shall be made to serve on the Committee on Ethics for all actions concerning a particular complaint for any member of the Committee who is prevented from acting on a complaint under these rules.

B. Any motion submitted pursuant to this rule is not in lieu of an answer and shall be accompanied by a memorandum of points and authorities. Answers or motions not submitted within the twenty-one (21) calendar-day period shall not be considered by the Committee.

C. The Chairman of the Committee shall pass upon such motions as soon as practicable and notice of the decision shall be furnished to the respondent and the complainant. A motion to quash a subpoena shall be decided by the Chairman of the Committee.

D. Time limitations imposed by this Rule may be extended when, in the discretion of the Chairman, such extension would facilitate a fair and complete inquiry and may be shortened when the Chairman determines that there are special circumstances compelling expedition, and upon twenty-four (24) hours notice of said action to the respondent and the claimant.

E. In the event that a special counsel is retained by the Committee, the attorney-client privilege is applicable to the Committee and not to the House.

RULE 7. Preliminary Hearings

A. A preliminary hearing may be held to hear arguments based on the pleadings submitted in the case. The preliminary hearing shall be an open meeting. The committee shall provide the complainant and the respondent or counsel for the complainant and respondent an opportunity to present, orally or in writing, a statement, which shall be under oath or affirmation, regarding the allegations and any other relevant questions arising out of the pleadings. A complainant or respondent who is represented by counsel shall not be questioned in the absence of counsel unless an explicit waiver is obtained.

B. The committee shall require that testimony be given under oath or affirmation. The form of the oath or affirmation shall be: "Do you solemnly swear (or affirm) that the testimony you will give before this Committee in the matter now under consideration will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth (so help you God)?" The oath or affirmation shall be administered by the Chairman or Committee member designated by him to administer oaths. Members of the committee shall be given an opportunity to question the complainant and respondent or counsel for the complainant or respondent following the opening statements.

C. At the conclusion of the preliminary hearing, a majority of the Committee shall vote by roll call to either:

- (1) Dismiss the complaint, or
- (2) Proceed by
 - (a) undertaking an investigative hearing; or
 - (b) deciding the case based upon the preliminary hearing.

A decision based upon a preliminary hearing shall require the consent of the respondent.

D. If the committee decides to make a summary decision of the case and the respondent accepts this disposition the Committee may, by a majority vote, recommend one of the following sanctions:

- (1) Letter of reproof;
- (2) Reprimand; or
- (3) Censure.

RULE 8. Investigative Hearings

A. An investigative hearing may be held on the record to receive evidence upon which to base findings, conclusions, and recommendations, if any, to the House. The Committee may require, by subpoena or otherwise, or by subpoena duces tecum, the attendance and testimony of such witnesses and the production of such books, records, correspondence, memorandums, papers and documents as it deems necessary. The Committee may obtain a court-issued subpoena in the event that any person refuses to obey the subpoena issued by the Committee.

B. Prior to setting a hearing date and issuing subpoenas for witnesses, the Committee shall resolve the scope and purpose of the hearings. A copy of this statement of scope and purpose shall be furnished to all witnesses. During the course of the hearings the Committee may expand or contract the scope in light of evidence received.

C. The order of the investigative hearing shall be as follows:

- (1) The Chairman shall open the hearing by stating the Committee's authority to conduct the investigation, the purpose of the investigation and its scope.
- (2) The complainant and the respondent or counsel for the complainant and respondent shall be permitted to make opening statements. Such opening statements shall not exceed fifteen minutes each.
- (3) Testimony from witnesses and other evidence pertinent to the matter under investigation shall be received in the following order:
 - (a) Witnesses and other evidence offered by the complainant;

- (b) Witnesses and other evidence offered by the respondent;
- (c) Witnesses and other evidence offered by the Committee staff; and
- (d) Rebuttal witnesses.

(4) The Chairman or his designee shall examine each witness. The Committee members may then question the witness. The respondent or his counsel may then cross-examine the witness. Redirect or recross examination may be permitted in the Chairman's discretion. With respect to witnesses offered by the respondent, a witness shall be examined first by the respondent or his counsel, if he has one, and then may be cross-examined by the complainant or his counsel, if he has one, and then may be cross-examined by the Chairman or his designee. Committee members may then question the witness. Redirect and recross examination may be permitted in the Chairman's discretion.

D. Testimony of all witnesses shall be taken under oath. The form of the oath shall be: "Do you solemnly swear (or affirm) that the testimony you will give before this Committee in the matter now under consideration will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth (so help you God)?" The oath shall be administered by the Chairman or Committee member designated by him to administer oaths.

RULE 9. Admissibility of Evidence

A. The object of the hearings shall be to ascertain the truth. Any evidence that is relevant and probative shall be admissible, unless privileged or unless the Constitution otherwise requires its exclusion. Objections going only to the weight that should be given to evidence will not justify its exclusion.

B. The Chairman or other member presiding shall rule upon any question of admissibility of testimony or evidence presented to the Committee. The Chairman or other member presiding may limit the presentation of repetitious evidence. Rulings shall be final unless reversed or modified by a majority vote of the Committee members present.

C. At an investigative hearing, the burden of proof is on the complainant with respect to each count to establish the facts alleged therein clearly and convincingly by the evidence that he introduces.

RULE 10. Witnesses

A. A subpoena to a witness shall be served sufficiently in advance of his scheduled appearance to allow him a reasonable period of time, as determined by the Committee, to prepare for the hearing and to employ counsel should he so desire.

B. Except as otherwise specifically authorized by the Chairman, no member of the Committee or staff shall make public the name of any witness subpoenaed by the Committee before his scheduled appearance.

C. Witnesses at investigative hearings may be accompanied by their counsel for the purpose of advising them concerning their constitutional rights and to raise objections to procedures or to the admissibility of testimony and evidence. Counsel for a witness other than the respondent shall not be permitted to engage in oral argument with the Committee. After a witness has testified, his counsel may submit to the Committee, in writing, any questions he wishes propounded to his client and any request for additional witnesses or other evidence. Such request may be granted in the discretion of the Committee.

D. The respondent may apply to the Committee for the issuance of subpoenas for the appearance of witnesses or the production of documents on his behalf. The application shall be granted upon good cause shown by the respondent that the proposed testimony or evidence is relevant and not otherwise available. The application shall be denied if not made at a reasonable time or if the testimony or evidence would be merely cumulative.

E. The respondent is entitled to present witnesses in his behalf. However, the Chairman may limit such testimony when, in his discretion, he finds the testimony is repetitious or cumulative.

F. Each witness subpoenaed by the Committee shall be reimbursed for those reasonable expenses approved by the Committee.

G. Each witness shall be furnished a printed copy of the Rules of Procedure and the pertinent provisions of the Rules of the House applicable to the rights of witnesses.

H. Within ten (10) calendar days before the scheduled investigative hearing, the Chairman shall notify the respondent, in writing, of the witnesses that are to appear before the Committee. Within five (5) calendar days before the scheduled investigative hearing, the respondent shall notify the Committee, in writing, of the witnesses that are to appear in his behalf. Additional witnesses may be brought before the Committee, in the discretion of the Chairman or other member presiding and upon good cause, if their whereabouts or existence were unknown to the respondent at the time for submission of the witness list to the Committee.

RULE 11. Findings, Conclusions and Recommendations

A. At the completion of the preliminary hearing or investigative hearings, the Committee, by a majority vote of its members, shall, within forty-five (45) days, adopt a report stating its findings and conclusions on the complaint. The report shall be filed with the Chief Clerk of the House and shall be printed in the House Journal. In the event the Committee finds that the complaint is not well-founded, the report shall so state, and shall include a copy of a Letter of Reproval if the Committee authorized such sanction. In the event the Committee finds that the complaint is well-founded, the report shall state the Committee's recommendation in a resolution appended thereto.

B. The resolution shall state the Committee's findings and conclusions on each allegation in the complaint with the recommendation that the House:

- (1) Expel the member as provided in Article III, Section 18 of the Missouri Constitution;
- (2) Punish the member as provided in Article III, Section 18 of the Missouri Constitution, by reprimand on the adoption of the resolution, or by censure by the Speaker in open session; or
- (3) Take no further action, stating the reasons therefor.

RULE 12. Matters Not Covered in These Rules of Procedure

The Rules of Procedure of the United States House of Representatives Committee on Ethics of the 113th Congress shall be taken as guidelines in deciding questions, issues, and other matters not otherwise provided for in these Rules of Procedure, except that the Rules of the Missouri House of Representatives governing the party representation on committees shall apply to this Committee.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

NINTH DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 24, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Bernskoetter in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

The Lord will give strength unto His people; the Lord will bless His people with peace. (Psalm 29:11)

O merciful God, from Whom no secrets are hidden, help us in this opening moment of prayer to draw near to You with sincere and humble hearts. With Your presence alive within us may we face the tasks of this day with courage and faith and in all honesty of mind and heart. May no deceit dim our vision, no hatred mar our relationship with others, and no pretense affect our attitude toward ourselves.

Into this state which we love with all our hearts may there come a new and greater unity of spirit so that no sinister powers without conscience and without morals may seek to destroy our freedoms and to belittle our reverence for personality. As we live through these days of destiny which call aloud for wisdom and good will, make us worthy of our positions and give us courage and strength to preserve liberty, to defeat tyranny, and to establish a just and enduring peace in Missouri. Not easy, O Lord, not easy, but with You we can do it and by Your grace we will.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TENTH DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 28, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Pastor Paul Meinsen.

Through the prophet, Isaiah, the LORD stated, "For I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is no one like Me, declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things which have not been done, saying, 'My purpose will be established, and I will accomplish all My good pleasure'...Truly I have spoken; truly I will bring it to pass. I have planned it, surely I will do it." (Isaiah 46:9-10, 11b)

Father, I give thanks this afternoon for Your mercies, abounding loving kindness and grace. Your Word teaches us to do justice, love mercy, and to walk humbly with You. Please give each one of us the wisdom to know what is just and how to show mercy. Please give each one of us a heart that is desirous to do what is just and to show mercy.

I also pray, O Lord, for these You have ordained to lead the State of Missouri. May they govern in a way which glorifies You. May they seek that which is righteous and may they defend it with honor. In their discourses may they speak with respect for all.

I pray too, O Lord, for my fellow citizens of this great state. I pray that we will learn what it means to respect and honor those whom You have appointed to lead. Too many times, we have prayed for these leaders out of one side of our mouth and then spoken words of scorn, hatred and dishonor from the other. Instead, Lord, even if we disagree on issues, may we, as citizens, always show the honor due to these servants of Yours.

I pray that we will render unto Caesar that which is due; may we render unto You that which belongs to You.

May we fear You and You alone. Draw each one unto Yourself.

We call upon You in this prayer. Please answer and be glorified. For You are good, and Your love endures forever.

To the honor of Your name, O Lord, I pray in Your Son's name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the eighth day was approved as printed.

The Sergeant-at-Arms announced the approach of the Honorable Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon, Governor of the State of Missouri. The Governor was duly escorted to the House Chamber and the Speaker's dais, where he delivered the following message to the Assembly in Joint Session.

STATE OF THE STATE
ADDRESS BY GOVERNOR JEREMIAH W. (JAY) NIXON

Thank you, President Pro Tem Dempsey, Speaker Jones, judges of the Missouri Supreme Court, Lieutenant Governor Kinder, state officials, members of the legislature, members of my cabinet, and my fellow Missourians.

This evening it is my pleasure to be joined by Missouri's outstanding First Lady, Georganne Nixon, and our son Jeremiah.

Before I begin to lay out our state's agenda for the year, I would like to thank the people of Missouri for the privilege of serving a second term as Governor. I am grateful for your continued trust and support, and the opportunity to lead our great state forward.

Looking around this chamber tonight, I see folks with different backgrounds, different ideologies, and different interests. But whatever our small differences may be, we are united in a common purpose: to serve all the people of Missouri...to make their lives better...and to make life better for our children and grandchildren.

These past four years, Missouri has weathered historic challenges – from nearly double-digit unemployment to the tornado in Joplin. But together, we met each challenge with courage and conviction, and moved our state forward. That makes me proud to be a Missourian. That makes me more optimistic than ever about our future. Because the people of the Show-Me State know how to work together. And once our minds are made up, nothing can stop us. That's who we are. That's what we do.

Some who answer the call of service put their lives at risk to protect the lives of others. They serve here at home whenever danger and disaster threaten. They serve in perilous outposts in every corner of the globe, to defend our freedom and liberty. We call them heroes. They make us proud.

Last December, I again had the opportunity to visit our troops in Afghanistan and Kuwait. One of them is with us tonight. Sergeant Joseph Schicker served with the Guard's Agribusiness Development Team in Afghanistan. Just hours after his team arrived at their base, Taliban insurgents attacked. In successfully repelling the attack, several Missouri Guardsmen, including Sergeant Schicker, were wounded. For his part in the battle, Sergeant Schicker received the Combat Infantry Badge and the Army Commendation Medal with Valor.

I personally had the honor of pinning Sergeant Schicker with the Purple Heart during the ADT's welcome home ceremony in September. Sergeant Schicker, you represent every man and every woman who has ever fought to defend our great nation, in every era and on every field of battle. Will you please stand, with all the members of our military past and present, and accept the heartfelt gratitude of your state?

In the last four years, we've overcome our share of challenges. Missouri was hit by unprecedented natural disasters. We came together to help our neighbors hit hard by twisters and ice storms, floods and drought.

In the grip of an historic recession, we did what every family in Missouri did: we tightened our belts and cut spending. Together, we balanced the budget while holding the line on taxes. We dramatically reduced the size of state government, while making it more efficient. We protected our spotless Triple-A credit rating. And unlike most states, we did it without reaching into taxpayers' wallets, or putting it on the credit card.

And you know what? It worked. And as a result, our economy is moving forward.

Last year, Missouri employers added more than 40,000 new jobs. We're exporting more goods than ever before...training more workers than ever before...and bringing Missouri's auto industry back to life.

Two weeks ago – on the day after my inauguration – I went back to Detroit to meet with auto suppliers and manufacturers. We got our first good look at the Ford Transit, one of the fantastic new vehicles we're going to build right here in the Show-Me State. A top Ford exec said that if we hadn't come together during that special session two years ago, the Claycomo plant would have closed. That would have put those 4,000 workers out of a job, and pushed Missouri's auto industry to the brink.

Instead?

Automakers are investing more than $1.5 billion in Missouri, creating thousands of jobs at the Ford plant in Claycomo, the GM plant in Wentzville, and suppliers in every corner of our state. By coming together in that special session, we saved Missouri's auto industry.

So when the skeptics say that nothing gets done in this building, or when the press writes that the two parties can't come together, think of those workers and their families. And remember that what we do here really matters. And that same spirit is needed now more than ever, to keep Missouri moving forward. Together, we've kept our fiscal discipline, and our economy is gaining ground. We now have a unique opportunity to build a better future for our children. We must seize it.

And nothing will have a greater impact on our children's future than the commitment we make now to their education. So in my budget, we increase funding for education. And we increase it by $150 million.

- * That's $17 million more for early childhood education.
- * That's $34 million more for higher education;
- * And that's $100 million more for our K-12 classrooms.

Our children are our first priority. They are Missouri's future. Of course, with increased funding, come higher expectations. We expect better test scores, better graduation rates, more college degrees and more Missourians ready to compete for the best jobs in a global economy. We've all got to do better, and that means everybody: students and teachers; parents and principals; coaches and college presidents. Increased funding means increased accountability.

We know the early years of a child's life are critical. Over the past few weeks I've visited preschool classrooms in Greenville, Nixa, Parkway and St. Joseph – local communities committed to giving their kids a strong foundation for lifelong learning. And the first official business of my second term was to meet with leaders in preschool education. We discussed ways to ensure that every young child comes to school ready to learn and ready to succeed. The clear consensus: early childhood education is a smart investment with a big return. We want every child, in every Missouri community – no matter their family's circumstances – to get the best possible start. That is why, with an increase of $17 million, we'll more than double funding for our Missouri Preschool Program, and put more money into programs like Early Head Start.

Tonight, we are fortunate to be joined by the St. Louis Pre-School Teacher of the Year, Linda Smith, of Dewey International School. Joining her is St. Louis Public Schools Superintendent, Dr. Kelvin Adams. Under Dr. Adams's strong leadership, the St. Louis schools have made steady progress over the past five years, as they work to earn full accreditation. That kind of progress is only possible when everyone pulls together toward a shared goal. Mrs. Smith and Dr. Adams, please stand. Thank you for the lifelong commitment you've made to our children.

In the past four years, our schools have made steady gains. Math scores are up. Reading scores are up. And I'm proud to report that Missouri's high school graduation rate is now the seventh highest in the nation. But we must commit to even higher goals.

That's why my budget includes $100 million in new funding for our K-12 classrooms. We'll use it to train more teachers, modernize equipment, and lengthen the school year.

Right now, Missouri has the fourth-shortest school year in the nation. Adding six more days to the next school year will give teachers more time to work with their students, and give kids more time to learn.

But we won't stop at K-12. This year, we'll help even more Missouri families afford college. That's been a top priority of mine since Day One. On my watch, we led the nation in holding down the cost of tuition. But the cost of college is still out of reach for too many Missouri families. And too many students who do attend college graduate with crushing debt. That's why my budget includes more than $75 million for our Access and Bright Flight scholarships. And it increases funding for our A+ scholarships, which cover tuition and fees at all our public community colleges. To qualify for an A+ scholarship, high school students must keep their grades up, have excellent attendance, and stay out of trouble.

Since I've been Governor, we've expanded the A+ program to 150 more schools. But there are still schools that aren't part of the A+ program, so their students can't even apply for A+ scholarships. That's unfair to these kids, and we're going to fix it. This is the year we will expand our A+ scholarship program to every public high school in the state, so that every qualified student in this state has the opportunity to go to community college – tuition free.

The dream of a college education should be within reach for all Missouri families. Because education is the best economic development tool there is.

While our colleges and universities are doing a great job, and graduating more students than ever before, we're also holding these schools to higher standards than ever before.

Two years ago, I convened a summit to lay out my agenda for higher education. I challenged the leaders of all our public two- and four-year institutions to develop a new funding model – based on performance. And that's what we did. My budget includes an increase of $34 million for higher education. But instead of funding schools based merely on what they've received in the past, we'll tie new funding to specific performance goals – like increased student retention, higher graduation rates and improved learning. We will achieve higher academic goals – with greater accountability.

Now, we've made it our mission to help more high school students graduate, go to college, complete their degrees and enter the workforce. That's the traditional path. And I'm glad more students are taking it. But there are nearly 750,000 Missourians who started college but never completed their degrees. They left school, got jobs, started families, moved on with their lives. At this point, some of these folks may feel that going back to college is too expensive, or too hard to juggle with work and raising kids. I want to change that and help these adult students finish the degrees they started years ago, so they can get better jobs and meet their full earning potential. This year, we'll do more to help these adult students finish their degrees online, from an accredited university that's putting down new roots in Missouri. Let me tell you about its history.

In 1995, 19 governors came together to provide a realistic option to help adult students complete their degrees at an affordable price. They founded Western Governors University, a nonprofit institution that offers bachelors and masters degrees in four areas Missouri's employers are looking for: business, health care, teacher preparation and information technology.

It's designed to meet the needs of real people with real lives. You can take your tests after work, on weekends or at night, after the kids are asleep. Instead of paying tuition by the credit hour, students can take as much coursework as they want for a flat rate. And how quickly you earn your degree depends on how quickly you master the subject matter: you advance at your own pace. The point is that with today's technology, we can make it easier than ever for folks to finish their degrees without disrupting their lives, and help them move up the economic ladder.

In the past three years, Indiana Governor Mitch Daniels, and the states of Texas and Washington have established WGU in their states. And starting this year, we will begin enrolling students at WGU-Missouri. We'll be helping Missourians who never finished college, who are underemployed and who need degrees to move up, reach their full potential. Now that's a mission we can all get behind.

Throughout state government, we've applied business principles to make the most efficient use of taxpayer dollars. Cutting waste. Doing more with less. Making better use of technology.

And as a result, the state workforce is now the smallest it has been in 19 years. From the time I became Governor to the end of Fiscal Year 2014, we will have reduced the size of state government by 4,500 positions, and cut $1.8 billion in state spending. We've sharply cut energy use, sold off surplus property and reduced leased space. We've put more state services online – from license plates to child support. And in addition to applying business principles to make state government more efficient, we must use those same principles to make government more business friendly.

Now, Missouri's already rated one of the Top-Ten best states to do business, because of things like our low tax rates, low workers comp rates, low energy costs and strong workforce. But talk to small business owners and they'll tell you: there's still too much red tape. Too many bureaucratic hurdles. We hear those concerns, and we're doing something about it.

First, we need to streamline Missouri's economic incentive programs – and there are a lot of them – so that they're easier to use and understand.

Second, we need to simplify our convoluted environmental permitting process. Currently, business owners have to go to as many as six commissions at the Department of Natural Resources to get permits. And that's before they turn the first shovel of dirt. We need to consolidate those commissions into one, to help businesses grow and create jobs.

And while we're at it, I propose that we eliminate another ten commissions at DNR that are redundant and unnecessary. We can take common-sense steps to cut red tape for businesses – without backing off our commitment to protecting our air, land and water.

We also must address the Second Injury Fund. This year, let's work together and solve this issue for the benefit of Missouri workers and employers.

In a highly competitive global economy, employers need access to a highly skilled, well-trained workforce. That's why I've made it a top priority to give Missouri workers the skills they need to compete for the jobs of tomorrow. Since I've been in office, we've dramatically increased our investment in worker training, helping 150,000 Missouri workers sharpen their skills and get better jobs in their field. So once again, my budget increases funding for workforce training that's custom-tailored to the needs of Missouri employers.

Investing in Missouri workers' skills – that's real economic development. But job training doesn't just happen in the classroom or on the work site. Some of Missouri's best workers got their training serving us in the armed forces. Helping our veterans get work when they come home is not only honorable and patriotic, it's good for Missouri businesses. If you're looking for an employee who shows up early, stays late, works hard all day and knows how to overcome adversity – hire a veteran.

In 2010, we launched Show-Me Heroes. We've asked every employer in the state to reach out, recruit and interview veterans first for new job openings. I'd like to thank all the legislators in this room who helped us strengthen this program by adding job training, so our veterans can re-enter the civilian workforce quickly and be even more successful on the job. More than 2,700 employers have signed the Show-Me Heroes pledge, putting more than 4,000 of our proud Missouri veterans to work. And tonight, again, I call on every Missouri business to go to our website – MO.gov – and take the Show-Me Heroes pledge. Because it's not enough to honor and support our service members abroad. We must honor and support them at home, with jobs that are worthy of their skills and work ethic.

For the third straight year, I am proud to report that we are shipping more Missouri goods around the world than ever before. Missouri exports hit record levels in 2010, and topped the $14 billion mark with double-digit growth in 2011. And we're on track to break records again. That's because we're taking a pro-active approach.

In October of 2011, I led a group of Missouri business leaders on a highly successful trade mission to China. We secured agreements to sell $4.6 billion in Missouri goods. In April of 2012, we went to Brazil, and signed our first-ever trade agreement with the state of Sao Paulo, the financial capital of one of the world's fastest-growing economies. And this coming March, I will lead a trade mission to South Korea and Taiwan.

We're making this a priority because it's critical for every business in the state – no matter how small – to think globally. Because companies that once only did business with customers around the corner are finding new customers around the world. And when we sell more Missouri products overseas, we're creating more jobs here at home. That's why my budget includes $2.3 million to enter new markets, expand foreign trade, and help Missouri businesses develop a world-wide customer base.

One of our export superstars comes from one of Missouri's oldest family-owned businesses, Volpi Foods in St. Louis. Next time you are in St. Louis, stop by their shop on The Hill. Volpi is a prime example of a traditional business that with visionary new leadership has broken the mold. With the help of our departments of Agriculture and Economic Development, Volpi has doubled its exports in growing markets like Japan, South Korea, Taiwan and Costa Rica. Please welcome the CEO of Volpi Foods, Lorenza Pasetti.

There's no doubt that Missouri is ready to meet the challenges of a global economy. But quite frankly, the biggest economic decision facing our state right now is how to move forward on health care. This isn't the time to re-open the debate or reargue the merits of the President's health care plan. I had some problems with it, and I know many of you did as well. But Congress passed it – the President signed it – and the Supreme Court upheld it. It's the law of the land. And it's not within our power to rewrite federal laws, even if we wanted to. It is within our power – it's our responsibility – to now do what's right for Missouri.

And the question before us is a narrow one. Will we bring the tax dollars that Missourians send to Washington back home to strengthen our Medicaid system here in Missouri? Or will we let the tax dollars that Missourians send to Washington be spent in other states instead? Other states would get the benefits, and we'd get the bill. The answer is clear: the people of Missouri deserve to see their tax dollars come back to their communities.

Friends, let's put the politics of health care aside for just a moment and look at this as a business decision for the state of Missouri.

The Missouri Chamber of Commerce supports the Medicaid expansion – not because they're big supporters of this President and his agenda – but because it's the smart thing to do. They know that bringing billions of dollars back to Missouri is good for our state's economy.

The Kansas City Chamber of Commerce has endorsed the Medicaid expansion. So have the chambers in Independence, Springfield, Lee's Summit and St. Louis. So have the Civic Council of Greater Kansas City, Kirksville REDI, and our friends at the Associated Industries of Missouri. Would the leaders from these business organizations who have joined us tonight because of the importance of this issue please stand? Thank you for your leadership on this critical issue.

For these business leaders, this is not a political decision. It's an economic one. And we shouldn't let last year's politics get in the way of next year's economic growth.

Moving forward with this plan will bring a total of $5.7 billion to Missouri for the first three calendar years – at no additional cost to the state. The University of Missouri estimates this will generate an additional 24,000 jobs – and that's just in 2014. We're talking about good jobs – for nurses, doctors, pharmacists, therapists and medical technicians.

Strengthening Medicaid will strengthen our economy. Without question, it's the smart thing to do.

Now I know there are some who have voiced concern that Washington will not live up to its commitment. Let me address that directly: I support including a provision that rolls back the Medicaid expansion if Washington doesn't honor its financial commitment. If Washington drops the ball, we'll do what's right for Missouri. We'll always do what's right for Missouri. And there's a human element to this that can't be ignored. A stronger Medicaid system will make health care available to 300,000 of our friends and neighbors.

Let's be clear about who these people are. They're working Missourians – folks who work day and night, but simply can't afford health coverage. These are not people who aren't trying, or hoping to game the system. They're folks we see every day – some holding down two jobs just to make ends meet. We're talking about a family of four, with a household income of roughly $32,000 a year. They wait tables and clean office buildings. They cut hair and trim trees. They work in factories, and repair cars and trucks.

Making it easier for these hardworking Missourians to get basic health insurance is the right thing to do. And because these folks can't afford doctors' bills or insurance, they often end up in our hospital emergency rooms, because it's the only option for their family. In their shoes, you'd probably do the same thing. It's a terrible way to deliver health care. It drives up premiums for people who do have health insurance. That must change.

I'm well aware this is a tough issue politically. But across the country, we're seeing governors and state legislators put politics aside to do what's undeniably best for their states. Republican governors in places like Arizona, North Dakota, New Mexico and Nevada are using federal funds to strengthen their Medicaid systems. Not because it's the easy thing for them to do politically, but because it's the right thing to do.

Here in Missouri, we must make the smart business decision. The right human decision. And bring the tax dollars we send to Washington back to work here in Missouri.

On another health care front, in recent years we have seen the tragic consequences when people with serious mental illness don't get the help they need. Right now, many people with severe mental illness only get treatment when they reach a crisis point. That's too late. My budget includes $10 million to help those with mental illness get timely, effective treatment in their own communities. That money will be used to:

- * Provide more services in our community mental health centers;
- * Increase mental health first-aid training for professionals so they can recognize the early warning signs of mental illness;
- * Train law enforcement in mental health crisis-intervention; and
- * Teach families how to care for loved ones who suffer from severe mental illness.

We must do everything in our power to get folks the treatment they need, before it's too late. Each day in our state and across the country tragedies occur that don't make headlines, and often don't get reported at all. I am talking about domestic violence.

Last year, our network of shelters for victims of domestic violence provided safe haven for thousands of women and children. But thousands of others were turned away because the shelters were full. We know that battered women are at greatest risk when they make the courageous decision to leave an abusive partner. Finding shelter can literally make the difference between life and death for these women and for their children. That is why my budget includes a 29 percent increase in funds to provide more beds, more treatment, more safety at domestic violence shelters throughout our state. No child – no mother – who has been the victim of domestic violence should ever be turned away and left to fend for themselves during these moments of crisis.

These past four years, we have opened new doors for thousands of Missourians with disabilities.

I'm passionate about this work, as I know many of you in this room are as well. Together, we passed landmark legislation in 2010 to ensure that children with autism get the medical care they need. Issues like this transcend politics. And now thousands of youngsters are getting the therapy that, just a couple years ago, their families couldn't afford. We will keep moving forward by funding training for more therapists to help even more children with autism lead happier, healthier lives.

In October of 2010, we started the Partnership for Hope. And it's already helped thousands of people with developmental disabilities live fuller lives. My budget includes funds to expand this vital program to 1,000 more Missourians, some of whom have spent years waiting for services. By the end of 2014, we'll be serving more than 3,500 people with developmental disabilities.

Missourians like Vishal Patel. Vishal is 23. He has a rare form of cerebral palsy, and gets around in a motorized wheelchair. For years Vishal had to crawl, or have his parents carry him upstairs in their home, to take a shower. The Partnership for Hope provided Vishal with a stair lift, a roll-in shower, a permanent ramp and the physical therapy he needs. But as he told me in a letter, his real dream was to get a real job – with a real paycheck. The Partnership arranged for him to volunteer every Friday at a movie theater in St. Peters. And Vishal did so well that just before Christmas they offered him that real job, with a real paycheck. His first day was January 4th.

Vishal represents the many Missourians with disabilities who are now entering the workforce, thanks to the Partnership for Hope and the enlightened business owners who recognize the value of these outstanding workers. Vishal is here tonight with his job coach, Pam Westhoff, and Peg Capo, who runs the program in St. Charles County. Please welcome the newest member of Missouri's workforce, Vishal Patel.

At the start of my speech, I spoke about unique opportunities and the importance of seizing them.

With our perfect Triple-A credit rating intact and interest rates at all-time lows, we now have a unique opportunity to move forward with a bond issuance. It would allow us to modernize our K-12 classrooms and college research labs, mental hospitals and state parks. Some of our state's most important buildings need long-overdue improvements, including this one.

Interest rates today are about half of what they were in 1995 when Governor Carnahan issued bonds, and about a third of what they were when Governor Bond did the same in 1983, when interest rates were more than 8 percent. But the bond issue must be focused on our state's most pressing needs. And we must have a way to pay for it.

When we talk about our state's long-term needs, nothing is more important than our schools.

A bond issuance will allow the state to establish a permanent, low-interest loan fund dedicated to improving our local schools. Which is why I am proposing the creation of the BOOST Fund. BOOST stands for Building Opportunities in Our Schools Today. Because, folks, let's not kid ourselves. If we want our children to get a first-rate education and compete in a 21st-century global economy, they'll need first-rate, 21st-century facilities: state-of-the-art computers and science labs, libraries and wired classrooms. The BOOST Fund will go to work in your communities, in schools in every corner of Missouri.

In addition, a targeted bond issuance will provide funds for cutting-edge university research facilities in areas critical to our competitiveness, such as engineering, math, and science.

Bond proceeds will also allow us to build a new and improved Fulton State Mental Hospital. We have a moral responsibility to these patients and their caregivers to provide the best possible environment: one that is safe, secure and conducive to healing.

Bonds will also pay to upgrade accommodations in our state parks. It's an investment that will have a big impact on tourism. And tourism is big business in Missouri. Last year, Missouri welcomed 36 million visitors, pumping nearly $11 billion into our state's economy. But we can do even better. Updating our cabins and lodges, and building brand-new, top-of-the-line facilities at our most popular parks will create jobs, help our economy, and make our parks an even bigger draw. Our 87 state parks and historic sites are a priceless legacy that belongs to all of us. Hunting, fishing, hiking and camping are part of our Missouri way of life. Investing in Missouri's state parks today will help preserve our outdoor heritage for our grandchildren and their grandchildren.

As I said before, we can only move forward with a bond issuance if we have a way to pay for it.

Saying "we'll figure it out later" won't work. That's not how we became a Triple-A state. The way to pay for the bond issuance is to finally get our tax credit system under control.

We've worked on reining in tax credits for years. In 2010, I appointed a statewide, bipartisan, tax credit commission to study the issue. That commission tapped the expertise of Missouri leaders in business, education, labor and government. They recommended a series of pragmatic, fiscally responsible reforms to rein in tax credit expenditures and ensure these programs provide a strong return on taxpayers' investment. But two years later, these reforms have yet to pass, and the costs of inaction continue to grow.

Last year tax credit redemptions grew to a staggering $629 million – one-twelfth of our entire general revenue budget. That's not fiscally responsible. This is the year to get comprehensive, fiscally responsible tax credit reform legislation to my desk, and get smart, strategic investments in our state moving forward.

But all of the ideas and proposals I outlined tonight mean very little if the people of Missouri lose faith in the system.

Missouri's ethics laws are among the weakest in the nation. Every year as governor, I've put forward my agenda for ethics reform, and I know many of you have made genuine efforts to pass legislation. The list of reforms we must implement is long. Everything from curbing committee-to-committee transfers to banning office holders from doubling as paid political consultants to finally closing the revolving door between the legislature and lobbyists. All things we must do. But above all, the single most destructive force to our system is the unlimited sums of money pouring into the campaign accounts of candidates seeking public office.

We must institute – we must re-institute – strict campaign contribution limits.

Each time a wealthy individual or business or special interest sends a check for $20,000 or $50,000 or $100,000 to a candidate, the public's trust erodes a little bit more. And eventually, if we continue on this path, there will be no trust left at all.

I've led the fight for campaign contribution limits for many years. As attorney general, I stood before the U.S. Supreme Court and successfully argued in support of Missouri's contribution limits. And as governor, I stood before you every year and made the case for them. This year, if the legislature does not send a campaign contribution limit bill to my desk, I will do everything in my power to get it on the ballot and make sure it passes.

The people of Missouri have voiced their opinion on this matter already at the ballot box, and their support for contribution limits was overwhelming. We all know it would pass once again. Let's work together and get it done this session. The era of unlimited contributions to candidates must end.

These past four years, we've been faced with some historic challenges. And by working together, we've tackled them head-on ...and made great strides in the Show-Me State.

We've kept our fiscal discipline, balanced the budget and put strict cost controls in place throughout state government. And as a result, our economy is making solid, steady progress. The signs are everywhere. Businesses large and small are hiring again. Missouri's unemployment rate has been lower than the national average for 40 consecutive months. New building permits are up. Personal income is up, and wages are up.

And now we are in a position to make smart, long-term investments that will boost our children's academic achievement, protect Missourians' health, strengthen our workforce, improve our quality of life and create prosperity for generations to come. We have unique opportunities before us. Now is the time to seize them.

Just two weeks ago, I stood at the steps of this Capitol and spoke of my vision for the future of our beloved state: a future where all our children get an education that prepares them to compete for the best jobs in the global economy; where the brightest minds in science and technology advance the frontiers of human knowledge; where business and the arts flourish; where the bounty of Missouri's farms and fields will feed, clothe and power the planet; and where the natural beauty of our state is preserved and cherished for all time.

That future is ours to build. And we can only do it by working together.

When I first came to the Capitol in 1987, I was the youngest person in the Senate. I had a lot to learn. And I was fortunate to serve with many dedicated and capable legislators on both sides of the aisle. They showed me what public service is and what it requires of each of us.

Republicans and Democrats didn't agree on everything back then, just like they don't now. We had a divided state government, with a governor of one party, and the other party holding a large majority in the legislature – just like we do now. But we worked together to get things done for the good of the people.

I've been in public service for a long time. More than a quarter of a century. And in those many years, my faith in the people of Missouri has never faltered. My faith in our bedrock values has never wavered. And I have always been mindful of, and inspired by, the words inscribed on the Great Seal of Missouri, on our flag and in these marble halls:

“Let the Good of the People Be the Supreme Law.”

This is our call to action, our common oath and rallying cry. This is our sworn duty. Ours is a sacred calling. Our time is short. Let every action we take in these halls and in the offices of government be guided by that supreme law: the good of the people.

Now let us seek God's everlasting grace and protection to finish the good works He has entrusted to our care.

God bless Missouri. And God bless the United States of America.

Thank you.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

ELEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 29, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the Lord. (Psalm 31:24)

O eternal God, Whose law is truth and Whose life is love, as we enter the gates of a new day we would pause in reverence before You to acknowledge our dependence on You and to pray for strength as we face the demanding responsibilities of this day.

Give us courage and faith for the tasks before us. May we now and always do our best to preserve liberty, to prevent tyranny from spreading, to promote peace in our state, and to proclaim the good news of freedom to all people in Missouri.

May we live worthily as Your children and be faithful and true in every experience. Help us to rise above fear and hatred and to maintain our integrity in this free land of our birth. We do not pray for easy tasks but for power to meet them; not for easy burdens but for strength to carry them; not for less dangerous times in which to live but to keep loyal to our ideals in an all too un-ideal world. So may we go forward conscious of Your presence, eager to do Your will and to live in good will with all Your children.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWELFTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 30, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicky, Chaplain.

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths. (Proverbs 3:5,6)

Our Ancient God, You have given us the morning light, give us also the morning blessing as we lift our hearts to You in prayer in the People's House on this day.

Grant us the blessings of wisdom - not only to make wise choices, but also to find the right paths we ought to take. Lift high our vision that we may see clearly and be given courage to walk in Your way.

Grant us the blessings of love. Deepen our understanding, expand our sympathy, enlarge our capacity for good will. Give us grace to rise above the low prejudices that separate us and help us to enter the realm of high principles where all people are brought together in spirit and in love.

Grant us the blessings of faith - in these difficult and trying times may we keep our faith with You and in You, and may this faith keep us strong and pure and good. As public servants grant us wisdom, grant us love, grant us faith that in these days we fail not our citizens nor You.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTEENTH DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 31, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Bernskoetter in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

That He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might by His spirit in the inner man. (Ephesians 3:16)

O Living God, Who is the light of life and the glory of every noble endeavor, we thank You for this quiet moment when facing important issues and carrying heavy responsibilities in that we can turn our hearts to You, Who alone can renew our strength and hold us steady amid the troubles of this time. In the secret place of the Most High may we find the resources we need for this high hour.

In all the perplexities of this period may we not lose our perspective and certainly not our poise. May the principles of freedom and justice upon which this state was founded still be our support as we face the challenge of this day. Grant that our faith may be triumphant over our fears, our courage surmount every discouragement and our loyalty to truth and good will be the solid ground upon which we walk together. Strengthened by Your spirit may we think clearly, plan creatively and act courageously.

And the House says, "Amen!"

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FOURTEENTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Tommie Pierson.

Almighty God, our Father,

Once again, You have allowed us to gather here in the people's House of Representatives. Our heartfelt condolences and prayers go out to Representative Sandy Crawford and her family on the loss of her father-in-law Wayne Crawford.

Thank You for our new members, and I thank You for the returning members. I am thankful for the hearts of the people who were touched in the hopes that we will deliberate and pass bills that will improve their lives.

Let the spirit of unity, love and respect for those whose ideas are different from our own be embraced. Let us not be disturbed when others share their beliefs. Grant us the wisdom to understand that everyone has the right to their opinion, but not every opinion is right.

Let us be thankful for the privilege to serve, and to be thankful for good health and the ability to have joy in our hearts.

Today, let the spirit of God "anoint our heads with oil and our cups run over, surely goodness and mercy and unfailing love shall follow us all the days of our lives, and through the length of our days, the house of the Lord shall be our dwelling place."

Let us embrace the words of the prophet Amos, "Let justice roll down like waters and righteousness like a mighty stream." We ask it all in the name of Jesus.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTEENTH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

A moment of silence was observed in memory of Father David Buescher who served as House Chaplain from 2000 through 2005.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

They looked unto Him, and were lightened; and their faces were not ashamed. (Psalm 34:5)

O God, source of all life and the ever-flowing fountain of love, we open the gates of a new day with prayer and bow before You reverently and in all humility of mind and heart. At this time we need to renew our strength, to restore our courage, and to receive Your spirit which makes us equal to every situation. So we pray that now and all through these days You will help us to be conscious of Your presence, and by Your grace may we do Your will.

Save us from recounting our resentments, from harboring any hatred, and from remembering the slights that dim the lights of our day. May we accept the duties of this week with confidence, carry our responsibilities with faith, and enjoy the work we are doing building a better and a stronger state. Always and in all ways may we follow the way that leads beyond the dark to the dawn and You.

We recall our Missouri history today when a bolt from the heavens in 1911 reduced the old Capitol to fiery rubble, yet from its ashes rose this magnificent structure. May God continue to protect and bless all who work at and visit our Capitol, as the People's House.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fourteenth day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTEENTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Smith in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Bear ye one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ. (Galatians 6:2)

Almighty God, before the work of a new day begins we would be still in Your presence and receive the benediction of Your spirit. May the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in Your sight. Cleansed by Your forgiving love, made stronger by Your spirit, and becoming wise with Your wisdom we would face the unfinished tasks committed to our care this day.

These are times which call for greater courage, higher wisdom, broader sympathy, and deeper faith. May they increasingly become ours as we wait upon You. In all our decisions and in all our doing may we keep our hearts confident, our spirits courageous, our minds clear, and our hands clean. Together may we move forward to a greater day when people shall live together in good will and each one be ready to bear another's burden.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Elizabeth Meyer, Casey Hulshof and Kyle McNew.

The Journal of the fifteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTEENTH DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

*And they that know Thy name will put their trust in Thee: for Thou, Lord, has not forsaken them that seek Thee.
(Psalm 9:10)*

O loving Lord in whose presence our spirits find strength, our minds are given fresh insights and our hearts feel the warmth of Your love - at the gateway of another day we pause in silence before You. Incline our hearts to seek wisdom and truth and mercy at Your hands. Reveal to us the way we should go, the decisions we should make, the plans we should follow, and may all our work be based upon intelligent conviction and dynamic faith.

Hear us as we pray for those of our state who bear the burden of war abroad and are ready to give their lives that we may continue to live free. May we not be heedless of their courage but be ready to bear with them and support them that out of this turmoil there may come an enduring peace. Cleanse our lives from discord and violence and suspicion. Keep us from hurting one another lest in our ill will we destroy ourselves. Lead us in the ways of unity, peace and good will forever in Missouri during this Black History Month.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the sixteenth day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

EIGHTEENTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Pastor Paul Meinsen.

Dear LORD, through Your prophet Isaiah You have revealed that “It is You who sits above the circle of the earth...It is You who stretches out the heavens like a curtain and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in. It is You who reduces rulers to nothing, It is You who makes the judges of the earth meaningless. Scarcely have they been planted, scarcely have they been sown, scarcely has their stock taken root in the earth, but He merely blows on them, and they wither, and the storm carries them away like stubble”. (Isaiah 40:22-24)

Lord, please remind us that we all, regardless of profession and stage in life, are here today and gone tomorrow. Remind each one when we walk down the halls and see the photographs of past legislators that one future day today’s legislators will be past legislators.

But yet, You have each one here now. Therefore, may each one be of a humble mind and spirit. May each one seek You for direction in right and wrong. May each one consider the needs of others as more important than their own. May each one be diligent in his or her service to their constituents. May each one honor You in all that is done.

May each one remember that only You, O Lord, remain eternal. May we all learn to fear You and You alone. Draw each one unto Yourself. We call upon You in this prayer. Please answer and be glorified. For You are good, and Your love endures forever.

To the honor of Your name, O Lord, I pray in Your Son’s name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the seventeenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

NINETEENTH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation; and uphold me with Thy free spirit. (Psalm 51:12)

Eternal God, our refuge and strength in every hour of need, we come to You in this moment of prayer opening our hearts to Your love, our minds to Your truth, and our spirits to Your redeeming grace. Help us to accept our privileges with gratitude, to face our difficulties with courage, and to carry our responsibilities with fidelity.

Deliver us from annoyances and antagonism which corrode our souls and pull us down. Help us so to live with the lift of good will in our hearts that life may be better and brighter for us and for all. Bind us together in one great effort to keep democracy and freedom and faith alive and growing in our day.

God bless Missouri and these leaders of a free people. Give wisdom to these in authority that they may use their power for the welfare of our people and for the well-being of all people. Having done our work faithfully and sincerely, may we come to the end of the day unashamed and unafraid and with the peace of a quiet heart on this Mardi Gras day!

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: D'Andre Mink.

The Journal of the eighteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTIETH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicky, Chaplain.

*Let not mercy and truth forsake Thee; bind them about Thy neck; write them upon the table of Thine heart.
(Proverbs 3:3)*

Our Forgiving God, the source of all that is good in life, once again we come to You on this Ash Wednesday: weak - seeking greater strength; tired - needing more rest; worried - desiring a deeper peace. We have sought satisfaction in the minor details of daily life that do not matter much and have left undone the major duties that matter most. Forgive us, and strengthen us by Your spirit that the labor of this day may be done with Your just causes in our hearts and minds.

Awaken within us the spirit of friendliness, kindness and peace. Keep us from allowing disagreements to make us disagreeable and from permitting differences in us to make differences between us. Kindle in our hearts and in the hearts of all people the spirit of good will. Let tolerance and understanding and compassion rule our spirits and possess our souls. Send us out into this day to do our work with all our might and may this world be a better place because we have lived, worked and prayed.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the nineteenth day was approved as printed.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 48 & 216, Page 6, Section 115.427, Line 186, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"115.430. 1. This section shall apply to primary and general elections where candidates for federal or statewide offices are nominated or elected and any election where statewide issue or issues are submitted to the voters. In addition, any person denied the ability to cast a regular ballot because of a lack of photographic identification under section 115.427, shall be allowed to vote by provisional ballot.

(1) A voter claiming to be properly registered in the jurisdiction of the election authority and eligible to vote in an election, but whose eligibility at that precinct cannot be immediately established upon examination of the precinct register, shall be entitled to vote a provisional ballot after providing a form of personal identification required pursuant to section 115.427 or upon executing an affidavit under section 115.427, or may vote at a central polling place as established in section 115.115 where the voter may vote his or her appropriate ballot for his or her precinct of residence upon verification of eligibility or vote a provisional ballot if eligibility cannot be determined. The provisional ballot provided to a voter under this section shall be the ballot provided to a resident of the voter's precinct determined by reference to the affidavit provided for in this section. If the voter declares that the voter is eligible to vote and the election authority determines that the voter is eligible to vote at another polling place, the voter shall be directed to the correct polling place or a central polling place as established by the election authority pursuant to subsection 5 of section 115.115. If the voter refuses to go to the correct polling place or a central polling place, the voter shall be permitted to vote a provisional ballot at the incorrect polling place, but such ballot shall not be counted if the voter was not eligible to vote at that polling place.

(2) The following steps shall be taken to establish a voter's eligibility to vote at a polling place:

(a) The election judge shall examine the precinct register as provided in section 115.425. If the voter is registered and eligible to vote at the polling place, the voter shall receive a regular ballot;

(b) If the voter's eligibility cannot be immediately established by examining the precinct register, the election judge shall contact the election authority. If the election authority cannot immediately establish that the voter is registered and eligible to vote at the polling place upon examination of the Missouri voter registration system, or if the election judge is unable to make contact with the election authority immediately, the voter shall be notified that the voter is entitled to a provisional ballot.

(3) The voter shall have the duty to appear and vote at the correct polling place. If an election judge determines that the voter is not eligible to vote at the polling place at which a voter presents himself or herself, and if the voter appears to be eligible to vote at another polling place, the voter shall be informed that he or she may cast a provisional ballot at the current polling place or may travel to the correct polling place or a central polling place, as established by the election authority under subsection 5 of section 115.115, where the voter may cast a regular ballot or provisional ballot if the voter's eligibility still cannot be determined. Provisional ballots cast at a polling place shall be counted only if the voter was eligible to vote at such polling place as provided in subsection 5 of this section.

(4) For a voter requesting an absentee ballot in person, such voter shall be entitled to cast a provisional ballot when the voter's eligibility cannot be immediately established upon examination of the precinct registers or the Missouri voter registration system.

(5) Prior to accepting any provisional ballot at the polling place, the election judges shall determine that the information provided on the provisional ballot envelope by the provisional voter is consistent with the identification provided by such person under section 115.427.

[3.] 2. (1) No person shall be entitled to receive a provisional ballot until such person has completed a provisional ballot affidavit on the provisional ballot envelope.

(2) The secretary of state shall produce appropriate sizes of provisional ballot envelopes and distribute them to each election authority according to their tabulating system. All provisional ballot envelopes shall be printed on a distinguishable color of paper that is different from the color of the regular ballot. The provisional ballot envelope shall be in the form required by subsection 4 of this section. All provisional ballots shall be marked with a conspicuous stamp or other distinguishing mark that makes them readily distinguishable from the regular ballots.

(3) Once voted, the provisional ballot shall be placed and sealed in a provisional ballot envelope.

[4.] 3. The provisional ballot in its envelope shall be deposited in the ballot box. The provisional ballot envelope shall be completed by the voter for use in determining eligibility. .....

(Current Address)

(Signature of Election Official)

The voter may provide additional information to further assist the election authority in determining eligibility, including the place and date the voter registered to vote, if known.

[5.] 4. (1) Prior to counting any provisional ballot, the election authority shall determine if the voter is registered and eligible to vote and if the vote was properly cast. The eligibility of provisional votes shall be determined according to the requirements for a voter to cast a ballot in the election as set forth in sections 115.133 and 115.135. A provisional voter ballot shall not be eligible to be counted until the election authority has determined that:

(a) The voter cast such provisional ballot at a polling place established for the voter or the central polling place established by the election authority under subsection 5 of section 115.115;

(b) The individual who cast the provisional ballot is an individual registered to vote in the respective election at the polling place where the ballot was cast;

(c) The voter did not otherwise vote in the same election by regular ballot, absentee ballot, or otherwise; and

(d) The information on the provisional ballot envelope is found to be correct, complete, and accurate.

(2) When the ballot boxes are delivered to the election authority from the polling places, the receiving teams shall separate the provisional ballots from the rest of the ballots and place the sealed provisional ballot envelopes in a separate container. Teams of election authority employees or teams of election judges with each team consisting of one member of each major political party shall photocopy each provisional ballot envelope, such photocopy to be used by the election authority to determine provisional voter eligibility. The sealed provisional ballot envelopes shall be placed by the team in a sealed container and shall remain therein until tabulation.

(3) To determine whether a provisional ballot is valid and entitled to be counted, the election authority shall examine its records and verify that the provisional voter is properly registered and eligible to vote in the election. If the provisional voter has provided information regarding the registration agency where the provisional voter registered to vote, the election authority shall make an inquiry of the registration agency to determine whether the provisional voter is properly registered and eligible to vote in the election.

(4) If the election authority determines that the provisional voter is registered and eligible to vote in the election, the election authority shall provide documentation verifying the voter's eligibility. Such documentation shall be noted on the copy of the provisional ballot envelope and shall contain substantially the following information:

- (a) The name of the provisional voter;
- (b) The name of the reviewer;
- (c) The date and time; and
- (d) A description of evidence found that supports the voter's eligibility.

(5) The local election authority shall record on a provisional ballot acceptance/rejection list the provisional ballot identification number and a notation marking it as accepted.

(6) If the election authority determines that the provisional voter is not registered or eligible to vote in the election, the election authority shall provide documentation verifying the voter's ineligibility. Such documentation shall be noted on the copy of the provisional ballot envelope and shall contain substantially the following information:

- (a) The name of the provisional voter;
- (b) The name of the reviewer;
- (c) The date and time;
- (d) A description of why the voter is ineligible.

(7) The local election authority shall record on a provisional ballot acceptance/rejection list the provisional ballot identification number and notation marking it as rejected.

(8) If rejected, a photocopy of the envelope shall be made and used by the election authority as a mail-in voter registration. The actual provisional ballot envelope shall be kept as ballot material, and the copy of the envelope shall be used by the election authority for registration record keeping.

[6.] 5. All provisional ballots cast by voters whose eligibility has been verified as provided in this section shall be counted in accordance with the rules governing ballot tabulation. Provisional ballots shall not be counted until all provisional ballots are determined either eligible or ineligible and all provisional ballots must be processed before the election is certified. The provisional ballot shall be counted only if the election authority determines that the voter is registered and eligible to vote. Provisional ballots voted in the wrong polling place shall not be counted. If the voter is not registered but is qualified to register for future elections, the affidavit shall be considered a mail-in application to register to vote pursuant to this chapter.

[7.] 6. (1) After the election authority completes its review of the provisional voter's eligibility under subsection 5 of this section, the election authority shall deliver the provisional ballots and copies of the provisional ballot envelopes that include eligibility information to bipartisan counting teams, which may be the board of verification, for review and tabulation. The election authority shall maintain a record of such delivery. The record shall include the number of ballots delivered to each team and shall include a signed receipt from two judges, one from each major political party. The election authority shall provide each team with a ballot box and material necessary for tabulation.

(2) If the person named on the provisional ballot affidavit is found to have been properly qualified and registered to cast a ballot in the election and the provisional ballot otherwise qualifies to be counted under the provisions of this section, the envelope shall be opened, and the ballot shall be placed in a ballot box to be counted.

(3) If the person named on the provisional ballot affidavit is found not to have been properly qualified and registered to cast a ballot in the election or if the election authority is unable to determine such person's right to vote, the envelope containing the provisional ballot shall not be opened, and the person's vote shall not be counted. The members of the team shall follow the procedures set forth in subsection [5] 4 of this section for rejected provisional ballots.

(4) The votes shall be tallied and the returns made as provided in sections 115.447 to 115.525 for paper ballots. After the vote on all ballots assigned to a team have been counted, the ballots, ballot envelopes, and copies of ballot envelopes with the eligibility information provided by the election authority shall be enclosed in sealed containers marked "Voted provisional ballots and ballot envelopes from the election held, 20...". All rejected provisional ballots, ballot envelopes, and copies of ballot envelopes with the eligibility information provided by the election authority shall be enclosed in sealed containers marked "Rejected provisional ballots and ballot envelopes from the election held

....., 20...". On the outside of each voted ballot and rejected ballot container, each member of the team shall write their name and all such containers shall be returned to the election authority. Upon receipt of the returns and ballots, the election authority shall tabulate the provisional votes.

[8.] 7. Challengers and watchers, as provided by sections 115.105 and 115.107, may be present during all times that the bipartisan counting teams are reviewing or counting the provisional ballots, the provisional ballot envelopes, or copies of the provisional ballot envelopes that include eligibility information provided by the election authority. Challengers and watchers shall be permitted to observe the determination of the eligibility of all provisional ballots. The election authority shall notify the county chair of each major political party of the time and location when bipartisan counting teams will be reviewing or counting the provisional ballots, the provisional ballot envelopes, or the copies of the provisional ballot envelopes that include the eligibility information provided by the election authority.

[9.] 8. The certificate of ballot cards shall:

- (1) Reflect the number of provisional envelopes delivered; and
- (2) Reflect the number of sealed provisional envelopes with voted ballots deposited in the ballot box.

[10.] 9. In counties where the voting system does not utilize a paper ballot, the election authority shall provide the appropriate provisional ballots to each polling place.

[11.] 10. The secretary of state may promulgate rules for purposes of ensuring the uniform application of this section. No rule or portion of a rule promulgated pursuant to the authority of this section shall become effective unless it has been promulgated pursuant to chapter 536.

[12.] 11. The secretary of state shall design and provide to the election authorities the envelopes and forms necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

[13.] 12. Pursuant to the Help America Vote Act of 2002, the secretary of state shall ensure a free access system is established, such as a toll-free number or an internet website, that any individual who casts a provisional ballot may access to discover whether the vote of that individual was counted, and, if the vote was not counted, the reason that the vote was not counted. At the time an individual casts a provisional ballot, the election authority shall give the voter written information that states that any individual who casts a provisional ballot will be able to ascertain under such free access system whether the vote was counted, and if the vote was not counted, the reason that the vote was not counted.

[14.] 13. In accordance with the Help America Vote Act of 2002, any individual who votes in an election as a result of a court order or any other order extending the time established for closing the polls in section 115.407 may vote only by using a provisional ballot, and such provisional ballot shall be separated and held apart from other provisional ballots cast by those not affected by the order. Such ballots shall not be counted until such time as the ballots are determined to be valid. No state court shall have jurisdiction to extend the polling hours established by law, including section 115.407."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-FIRST DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, and endures all things. (I Corinthians 13:7)

O Loving God, again we come to You on this St. Valentine's Day with gratitude for the opportunity of loving You and our state. We pray that You will help these representatives of our people in their marriages and relationships. Help them to face the challenges of these times with courage: to accept their responsibilities with confidence and to solve their ever-present problems with creative wisdom and love.

May they learn anew the lesson that the secret of finding love and happiness is not to do what you like to do but to learn to like what you have to do. In this spirit we pray and in this spirit may we do our work this day.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Chloe Till.

The Journal of the twentieth day was approved as printed.

Representative Keeney assumed the Chair.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-THIRD DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Pastor Paul Meinsen.

The heavens will praise Your wonders, O LORD; Your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones. For who in the skies is comparable to the LORD? Who among the sons of the mighty is like the LORD, a God greatly feared in the council of the holy ones, and awesome above all those who are around Him? O LORD God of hosts, who is like You, O mighty LORD? (Psalm 89:5-8a)

We give you much thanks, Father, for another day in which to be of service to You; another day to bring glory to Your Holy Name.

I pray this afternoon on behalf of these men and women before me asking You to grant them the wisdom they need to lead and serve the people of this great state.

Your servant, King Solomon, needed to know how to lead the kingdom You had given to him. And things have not changed in the past 3000 years. All who are in positions of leadership and authority, Father, are still in need of wisdom from You—wisdom to govern, lead and serve so great a people.

I pray today then that You will give freely and generously that which is needed. Let each one know what is right, according to the Scripture You have given us.

Let each one have the fortitude to do that which is right and to do so with a spirit of humility and grace. May we all set aside personal agendas and honor for the good of those we have been called to serve. May we all learn to fear You and You alone. Please, draw each one unto Yourself.

We call upon You in this prayer. Please answer and glorify Yourself. To the honor of Your name, O Lord, I pray in Your Son's name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Macey Hurst, Hayden Hurst and Emma Hurst.

The Journal of the twenty-first day was approved as printed by the following vote:

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Behold, the Lord our God has shown us His glory and His greatness, and we have heard His voice out of the midst of the fire; we have seen this day that God does talk with man and that he lives. (Deuteronomy 5:24)

O Living God, we thank You for the gift of a new Missouri day fresh from Your hand. Help us to use these hours to live cleanly, to labor industriously, to love wisely, and to keep our spirits elevated to positive levels of thought. May we have the strength to overcome our difficulties and the courage to carry our responsibilities with honor and with uplifted hearts.

Sustain us in every effort to make a better state and to bring good will to all. In the midst of this day's work assure us of Your presence and let the light of Your wisdom fall upon our paths.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-third day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative John McCaherty.

In 1 Kings 3, Solomon is praying to God, who has just asked him what he should give him. Solomon's answer is as relevant today as it was thousands of years ago. He said:

You have shown great mercy to Your servant David my father, because he walked before You in truth, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with You; You have continued this great kindness for him, and You have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day. Now, O Lord my God, You have made Your servant king instead of my father David, but I am a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in. And Your servant is in the midst of Your people whom You have chosen, a great people, too numerous to be numbered or counted. Therefore give to Your servant an understanding heart to judge Your people, that I may discern between good and evil...

Father, today, like Solomon so many years before, we also look for wisdom! We seek Your face, Your desire in our lives and the lives of the great people of Missouri.

We acknowledge our own shortsightedness, our sinfulness, and our own lack of understanding. We know that there is no one person here today that has all the answers, yet working together - and with Your guidance - we can and will accomplish great things. Give us the patience, the work ethic, and the wisdom we need to work together, to work for the people and not for our own reward. Help us to accomplish this not because of self, but for Your glory and honor, that Your name would be praised throughout the generations. In the name of Your Son, we pray.

And the House says "Amen."

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-fifth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good. (Romans 12:9)

Eternal God, we pray that in this sacred minute of prayer we may receive guidance for the day, wisdom for each hour, and good will for every moment. Help us to think more and talk less; to pray more and procrastinate less; to live more by high principles and less by low prejudices.

We pray this morning that You will renew a right spirit within us and send us out into this day with gracious thoughts, good words, and a great spirit.

We also pray for former Representative Jerry King who passed away this week. He served here from 1998 through 2004.

And the House says, "Amen!"

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-NINTH DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

I sought the Lord, and He heard me and delivered me from all my fears. (Psalm 34:4)

Our Eternal God, Whose creative spirit summons us to walk in the way of justice and peace and good will, in all reverence of mind and heart we bow before You at the altar of prayer. If we should lose our way in these trying times we would turn from the noise of the seen world to the quiet of the unseen world in Your presence where we can be still and know that You are God.

In the wilderness of our human relationships reveal to us Your will. In the darkness of our day let Your light shine upon our path. In the confusion of conflicting counsels give us wisdom to see clearly the signs of the times and the courage to walk worthily in the way of Your Word to us.

This day may we depart from evil and do good; may we seek peace and pursue it; may we do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with You.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Dylan O'Brien.

The Journal of the twenty-eighth day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTIETH DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 4, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Charles Davis.

Our Heavenly Father, we come to You today in our weakness because You are strength. In the book of Isaiah we are told: He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might He increaseth strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

Give us all strength throughout the week that we might serve the people that elected us to serve, and to serve the One who holds the keys to life and death. For You are a merciful God, full of love, mercy, goodness, kindness and compassion.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-ninth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-FIRST DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 5, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

In Thee, O Lord, do I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion. (Psalm 71:1)

Lord of our lives, we know of no finer way to begin this day than by pausing before You in prayer - and in praying - renew our faith, restore our spirits, and rededicate our lives to You and to the welfare of our beloved state. In these days that call for wisdom, understanding, and good will, may we possess Your spirit or better still - may Your spirit possess us that we may plan with faith, work with courage, and live with love in our hearts.

Grant us and all our people the grace to fearlessly contend against evil, to make no peace with oppression, to be on guard against violence, and may we use our freedom to maintain justice and good will between men and women to the glory of Your Holy Name.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Cadie Buschjost, Kylie Bernskoetter, Aly Alexander, Nita Jones, Jovana Cervantes, Katherine Thompson and Shania Francka.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-SECOND DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

For you were called to freedom. Brethren; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love be servants of one another. (Galatians 5:13)

Almighty and Everlasting God, in our hearts we bow before You in all reverence and humility, confessing our need of Your forgiving grace and our desire for Your directing guidance. Help us to lift our spirits to You in prayer and praise and give us grace to dedicate our lives anew to You, to our state, and to the welfare of our Missouri citizens.

We pray for the captive peoples of the world - for the oppressed, the downtrodden, the persecuted - those who live in the darkness of fear and death. Grant that they may keep aglow in their hearts the desire for freedom. May they have the courage to endure their trials with faith, the strength to resist temptation with honor, and the spirit that continues to dream of a day when justice and mercy shall rule the hearts of all.

During these days that test our patience may the awareness of Your presence give us steady faith and steadfast love enabling us to assist those in need.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the thirty-first day was approved as corrected.

HB 201, relating to a tax credit for a freight line company, was taken up by Representative Torpey.

Representative Zerr offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 201, Page 1, Section A, Line 2, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

"135.1550. 1. Sections 135.1550 to 135.1575 shall be known and may be cited as the "Missouri Export Incentive Act".

2. As used in sections 135.1550 to 135.1575, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Air export tax credit", the tax credit against the taxes imposed under chapters 143, 147, and 148, except for those in sections 143.191 to 143.265, to be issued by the department to a claiming freight forwarder for the shipment of air cargo on a qualifying outbound flight;

(2) "Airport", any international airport located within the state;

(3) "Chargeable kilo", the shipment of a kilo of freight, as measured by the greater of:

(a) Actual weight; or

(b) A dimensional weight, as determined by the conversion factors promulgated by the International Air Transport Association, on a qualifying outbound flight;

(4) "Claiming freight forwarder", the freight forwarder designated as the "agent" on the airway bill for the qualifying outbound flight for which such air export tax credit is sought;

(5) "Department", the Missouri department of economic development;

(6) "Direct international aircraft flight", a single aircraft transoceanic flight that operates to an international destination in accordance with the operators bilateral route authority;

(7) "Freight forwarder", a person who assumes responsibility in the ordinary course of business for the transportation of cargo from the place of receipt to the place of destination, including the utilization of a qualifying outbound flight;

(8) "Qualifying outbound flight", a direct international aircraft flight that carries either all cargo or a mix of passengers and cargo from the airport to an international destination.

135.1555. 1. For all fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 2013, a claiming freight forwarder shall be entitled to an air export tax credit for the shipment of cargo on a qualifying outbound flight in an amount equal to forty cents per chargeable kilo.

2. The department shall index, and the secretary of state shall publish in the Missouri Register, the amount of the air export tax credits to adjust each year depending upon fluctuations in the cost of fuel for over-the-road transportation.

135.1560. 1. To receive benefits provided under section 135.1555, a claiming freight forwarder shall file an application with the department within one hundred twenty calendar days of the date of shipment. The documentation to be presented by the claiming freight forwarder in such an application shall consist of the master airway bill for the shipment on the qualifying outbound flight for which the claiming freight forwarder is seeking air export tax credits. The department shall establish procedures to allow claiming freight forwarders that file applications for air export tax credits to receive such tax credits within twenty business days of the filing of the application.

2. If the fiscal year cap on the issuance of air export tax credits provided under section 135.1565 is met in a given fiscal year, then the amount of such tax credits that have been authorized, but remain unissued, shall be carried forward and issued in the subsequent fiscal year.

3. No tax credits provided under this section shall be authorized after June 30, 2021. Any tax credits authorized on or before June 30, 2021, but not issued, may be issued until all such authorized tax credits have been issued.

135.1565. The total aggregate amount for air export tax credits authorized under section 135.1555 shall not exceed sixty million dollars. The amount of the air export tax credits issued under section 135.1555 shall not exceed seven million five hundred thousand dollars for each fiscal year beginning on or after July 1, 2013, unless authorized by the department. Any amount issued exceeding seven million five hundred thousand dollars in a fiscal year shall be reduced first from the authorized amount for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2021, and then the preceding fiscal years, until all such authorized credits have been issued.

135.1570. If the amount of any tax credit authorized under sections 135.1550 to 135.1575 exceeds the total tax liability for the year in which the applicant is entitled to receive a tax credit, the amount that exceeds the state tax liability may be carried forward for credit against the taxes imposed under chapters 143, 147, and 148, except those in sections 143.191 to 143.265, for the succeeding six years, or until the full credit is used, whichever occurs first. Tax credits authorized under the provisions of sections 135.1550 to 135.1575 may be transferred, sold, or otherwise assigned. Tax credits granted to a partnership, a limited liability company taxed as a partnership, or multiple owners of property shall be passed through to the partners, members, or owners respectively pro rata or pursuant to an executed agreement among the partners, members, or owners documenting an alternate distribution method.

135.1575. 1. The department may promulgate rules to implement the provisions of sections 135.1550 to 135.1575. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010 that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after the effective date of this act, shall be invalid and void.

2. The provisions of section 23.253 of the Missouri sunset act notwithstanding:

(1) The provisions of the new programs authorized under sections 135.1550 to 135.1575 shall automatically sunset eight years after the effective date of this act, unless reauthorized by an act of the general assembly;

(2) If such program is reauthorized, the program authorized under this section shall automatically sunset eight years after the effective date of the reauthorization of this section; and

(3) This section shall terminate on September first of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which the programs authorized under sections 135.1550 to 135.1575 sunset."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-THIRD DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 7, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of His might. (Ephesians 5:10)

O Lord, Whose spirit is truth and Whose heart is love, we would bring our littleness to Your greatness, our weakness to Your strength, and our bad attitude to Your never-failing good will. As flowers open to the sun, as children turn to their parents in moments of need, so we come lifting our seeking souls to You, praying that we may feel about us the power of Your life and the peace of Your love.

We pray for our Speaker and all the Members of this House. With pressures which tax their resources to the utmost, with duties which demand their attention and absorb their time, with criticisms which come from minds that do not understand, may our people begin to think of these men and women more and more with sympathetic hearts, understanding minds, and supporting spirits.

With this hope, we, the leaders of our people, bow before the altar of Your presence and pray for a greatness of spirit, a purity of heart, and a will to serve You and Missouri with all our being.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the thirty-second day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-FIFTH DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 11, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Linda Black.

Dear Heavenly Father, as we come before You today in this, the House of the people, I ask, Lord, that You remind us that Your Holy Spirit is not confined by the walls of our place of worship, but that Your Spirit is welcome and dwells here in this place to guide our way.

I pray, Father, that Your will, and not our own, will direct our paths and our decisions. That You will remind us daily that it is to further Your kingdom that You have chosen us to lead. You have brought us here from many regions, cities, and the countryside to serve. Let the service of our fellow man be our burning desire; let that service be in the name of the one who sits at the right hand of God.

Remind us, O Lord, that You have resolved us to love one another as Christ also loved us and that Lord, there is only but one Judge who will see that our works are worthy of Your redeeming blood. It is Your name, the Great I AM, who wears the title of Judge of man and we, Lord, are called only to serve.

You are spoken of by many names but to me You are "My Lord." You are the Word, the Rose of Sharon, the Bright and Morning Star, the Lion of the Tribe of Judah and the Cleft of the Rock. Let us all now call You Lord of this place so that we may bring comfort to Your people, that through Your master plan we will bring them hope.

Guide us in wisdom, clear our minds of all unrighteousness, fill us with Your love and grant us Your mercy that we may be worthy of the place that You have called us to serve.

I ask You these things through Christ Jesus' name.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ava Mundy and Isabella Mundy.

The Journal of the thirty-third day was approved as printed.

The Journal of the thirty-fourth day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-SIXTH DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 12, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you receive it, and you will. (Mark 11:24)

Eternal God, we pause in Your presence this moment praying that Your spirit may come anew into our hearts and into the hearts of all our people. May we not only hear the cry of humanity for justice and freedom, but may we heed it. May violence cease, may understanding between the peoples increase, may intelligent good will prevail and may the needs of the poor be met, that there be no cause for bitterness and hatred.

We pray that everyone may have a chance to grow, to work and to live, that our state may be in deed and in truth the home of the brave, the land of the free, with liberty and justice for all.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Hayden Altena, Page Bedsworth, Perry Brummett, Matthew Caszett, Nathan Drywater, Ashlee Geisler, Mikayla Glass, Daniel Kang, Madisyn Logan, Claire Reisner, Christina Sherman, Anna Tharakan, Kylie Swearingen and Laura Crossno.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCS SCR 5.

SENATE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 5

WHEREAS, under federal Medicaid law, states are required to make disproportionate share hospital (DSH) payments to hospitals for providing health care to a vast number of low-income patients in an attempt to make up for financial losses by hospitals that do not receive payment for services rendered to uninsured patients and because Medicaid provider payment rates are far lower than those payments received by private insurance; and

WHEREAS, also under federal Medicaid law, the federal government reimburses states for a portion of the state's Medicaid DSH expenditures based on each state's federal medical assistance percentage and each state receives an annual DSH allotment; and

WHEREAS, Missouri hospitals reported providing $1.1 billion in uncompensated care to Missourians in 2011; and

WHEREAS, under the Affordable Care Act (ACA) of 2010, states are mandated to expand Medicaid eligibility for persons with incomes up to 133% of the federal poverty level; however, in June 2012, the United States Supreme Court found such mandate impermissible and now allows each state to decide whether to implement such a Medicaid expansion; and

WHEREAS, under the ACA, under the assumption at the time the law passed that all states were to implement the Medicaid expansion, the federal government is required to reduce more than $22 billion in DSH payments from 2014 to 2022; and

WHEREAS, it is estimated that Missouri will suffer cuts to both Medicaid and Medicare hospital payments in the amount of $3.3 billion from 2013 to 2020 with DSH cuts in the amount generally of $704 million from 2013 to 2019; and

WHEREAS, the federal cuts to DSH hospital payments are set to occur regardless of whether a state has elected to implement the Medicaid expansion under the ACA - a decision the United States Supreme Court found each state has a right to pursue; and

WHEREAS, Missouri hospitals have reported that it will be an "unsustainable situation for hospitals" to absorb more than $1 billion annually in uncompensated care while facing $3.3 billion in cuts:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-seventh General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby urge the federal government to continue to reimburse states for a portion of the state's Medicaid DSH expenditures based on each state's federal medical assistance percentage for those states that have chosen not to implement the Medicaid expansion; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Governor Nixon work with the federal government to ensure that the reduction to such DSH payments do not occur; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the President of the United States, the President Pro Tempore of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the Secretary of the federal Department of Health and Human Services, each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation, and Governor Jay Nixon.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed SS#2 SCS SBs 26, 11 & 31, entitled:

An act to repeal sections 32.087, 66.601, 66.620, 67.395, 67.525, 67.571, 67.576, 67.578, 67.581, 67.582, 67.583, 67.584, 67.712, 67.713, 67.729, 67.737, 67.738, 67.745, 67.782, 67.799, 67.997, 67.1300, 67.1303, 67.1305, 67.1545, 67.1712, 67.1713, 67.1775, 67.1959, 67.1971, 67.2000, 67.2030, 67.2525, 67.2530, 94.578, 94.605, 94.660, 94.705, 143.011, 143.021, 143.071, 143.151, 144.010, 144.014, 144.020, 144.021, 144.030, 144.032, 144.043, 144.049, 144.054, 144.069, 144.070, 144.080, 144.083, 144.100, 144.140, 144.210, 144.285, 144.440, 144.517, 144.526, 144.605, 144.655, 144.710, 144.1000, 144.1003, 144.1006, 144.1009, 144.1012, 144.1015, 221.407, 238.235, 238.410, 644.032, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof eighty new sections relating to taxation, with penalty provisions and effective dates for certain sections.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 13, 2013

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Prove all things; hold fast that which is good. (Thessalonians 5:21)

Our Eternal God, our refuge in ages past, our strength for the present hour and our hope for future days, we come to You, conscious of our own failures and faults, but with faith and fortitude, because our trust is in You.

Deliver us from following and walking the weary ways of a worried world. Remove from us all bitterness which blights our lives, all resentment which ruins our dispositions, all pride which makes us intolerant and closes the door to the needs of others.

Grant that in the adventure of building a better state, we may saturate our good ideas with great idealism; we may combine common sense with an uncommon spirit, and we may be confident that light will triumph over darkness, right will win over wrong, and love will outlast hatred. To this end keep us devoted to the light, to the right and to love.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Sierra Casagrand.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 14, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

“Obey My voice,” saith the Lord, “and I will be your God and you shall be My people; and walk in all the ways that I command you, that it may be well with you.” (Jeremiah 7:23)

O Loving God, Who is the spirit of truth and the life of love, as we set out upon another day of work, may Your presence within give us courage and strength and fidelity. Cleansed by Your forgiving grace, we would make our bodies temples of Your spirit, our hearts the dwelling place of Your love, and our minds the center of Your wisdom.

We bring to this altar of prayer ourselves, cluttered up with a lot of little things, and confused at times about what is right and wrong. May the splendor of Your spirit and the glory of Your greatness shame our little thoughts, our petty prejudices, and our unworthy ways. May the vision of what we ought to be, and by Your grace can be, spur us on to do our best for Missouri and for the citizens we represent.

Grant unto each of us an inner greatness of spirit, an inner purity of heart, and an inner nobility of mind. Finally, bless us and keep us safe on spring break!

And the House says, “Amen!”

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Kalli Burton, Emily Burton, Olyvia Rowland and Samuel Hodges.

The Journal of the thirty-seventh day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTIETH DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 25, 2013

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Ronald L. Cain, Bible Way Church, Eldon, Missouri.

Dear Lord, thank You for this land we live in; keep Your hedge of protection around it, and let us remember the men and women in our armed and civil services. Protect and bless them for what they have given, that we can freely assemble here today without fear.

And God, we ask Your blessing upon this great state and upon those gathered here today. Lord, watch over them, and their families this day, and the days to come. Father, keep, lead, guide, and direct them in their important decisions, that the days to come would be even greater than those past, that in the heart of this great nation, all would see Your great hand at work.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the thirty-eighth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-FIRST DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 26, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest. (Joshua 1:9)

Our God, in a changing world filled with fear and terror we turn to You in Whose unchanging presence is hope, strength and peace. In this quiet moment of morning prayer may we be lifted above our lower selves into a higher realm where Your spirit is real and we can receive anew the ministry of Your grace.

Forgive our surrender to unworthy compromises and our succumbing to unwarranted concessions. Deliver us from majoring in foolishness and flirting with trivia at this time. May we give our highest thought and best efforts to what is truly important—that out of our creative endeavors may come that which is worthwhile for all the people of Missouri as we debate the budget.

Give to these wonderful Representatives the will to work together for the well-being of our state. Amid the persistent pressures of daily duty may they hear Your voice speaking to them and, responding, to be given the faith to trust You for guidance in the decisions which have to be made and in the work which must be done.

And the House says, “Amen!”

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Kathy Embry, Lainny Embry, Nick Potter, Mike Potter and Josh Johnson.

The Journal of the fortieth day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-SECOND DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 27, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. (Ephesians 6:9)

Almighty and everlasting God, we commend unto Your gracious care the citizens of Missouri. Especially do we pray for our wonderful people - that health and strength and wisdom may be theirs as they endeavor to live in these trying economic times.

Upon our Speaker may there rest the rich blessing of Your grace and the wise guidance of Your spirit. To all these Representatives, their staffs, and co-workers, may there come a new realization of Your presence as they bow at the altar of prayer and dedicate themselves to You and to the welfare of our people, our highest law! Increase their faith, deepen their devotion, and enlarge their vision that they may continue to labor for the greater good of our beloved state as we discuss the budget. May they never grow weary of doing well.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Gabrielle (Gigi) Mahley, Danyelle Driver, Katherine Jones, Abigail Jones, Allie Beros and Michael Beros.

(e) One thousand four hundred dollars on each motor vehicle with a licensed gross vehicle weight in excess of thirty-six thousand pounds but less than forty-eight thousand pounds; and

(f) One thousand eight hundred dollars on each motor vehicle with a licensed gross vehicle weight in excess of forty-eight thousand pounds.

(2) Notwithstanding provisions of this section to the contrary, motor vehicles licensed as historic under section 301.131 which are powered by alternative fuel shall be exempt from both the tax imposed by this chapter and the alternative fuel decal requirements of this section.

2. Except interstate fuel users and vehicles licensed under a reciprocity agreement as defined in section 142.617, the tax imposed by section 142.803 shall not apply to motor vehicles registered outside this state which are powered by alternative fuel, and for which a valid temporary alternative fuel decal has been acquired as provided in this section. The owners or operators of such motor vehicles shall, in lieu of the tax imposed by section 142.803, pay a temporary alternative fuel decal fee of [eight] twelve dollars on each such vehicle. Such decals shall be valid for a period of fifteen days from the date of issuance and shall be attached to the lower right-hand corner of the front windshield on the motor vehicle for which it was issued. Such temporary decal and fee shall not be transferable. [All proceeds from such decal fees shall be deposited as specified in section 142.345.] Alternative fuel dealers selling such decals in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the director shall be allowed to retain fifty cents for each decal fee timely remitted to the director.

3. The director shall annually, on or before January thirty-first of each year, collect or cause to be collected from owners or operators of the motor vehicles specified in subsection 1 of this section the annual decal fee. Applications for such decals shall be created and supplied by the department of revenue. In the case of a motor vehicle which is not in operation by January thirty-first of any year, a decal may be purchased for a fractional period of such year, and the amount of the decal fee shall be reduced by one-twelfth for each complete month which shall have elapsed since the beginning of such year.

4. Upon the payment of the fee required by subsection 1 of this section, the director shall issue a decal, which shall be valid for the current calendar year and shall be attached to the lower right-hand corner of the front windshield on the motor vehicle for which it was issued.

5. The decal fee paid pursuant to subsection 1 of this section for each motor vehicle shall be transferable upon a change of ownership of the motor vehicle and, if the LP gas or natural gas equipment is removed from a motor vehicle upon a change of ownership and is reinstalled in another motor vehicle, upon such reinstallation. Such transfers shall be accomplished in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the director.

6. It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a motor vehicle required to have an alternative fuel decal upon the highways of this state without a valid decal.

7. No person shall cause to be put, or put, LP gas or natural gas into the fuel supply receptacle of a motor vehicle required to have an alternative fuel decal unless the motor vehicle has a valid decal attached to it. Sales of fuel placed in the supply receptacle of a motor vehicle displaying such decal shall be recorded upon an invoice, which invoice shall include the decal number, the motor vehicle license number and the number of gallons placed in such supply receptacle.

8. Any person violating any provision of this section is guilty of an infraction and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined five hundred dollars.

9. Motor vehicles displaying a valid alternative fuel decal are exempt from the licensing and reporting requirements of this chapter.

10. All proceeds from the decal fees imposed and collected under this section shall be credited to the state highways and transportation department fund created in section 226.200.

11. For all new alternative fuel-powered vehicles assembled in Missouri, the first year's decal fee shall be one-half of the fees as listed in this section."; and

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-THIRD DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 28, 2013

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Pat Conway.

Almighty Father, we ask this day that You bestow a special blessing upon those who have served us in the military. We devoutly pray, in recognition of those who are to be honored this Saturday, on Missouri's first Vietnam Veterans Day. May their sacrifices never be forgotten! Let us ask Your blessing on those over 58,000 men and women, over 1,400 from Missouri alone, who gave their lives on behalf of their country. Pray too for their families, those parents who lost a child, those brothers and sisters that grew up without their loved ones and especially for those children whose fathers were not there for their birthdays, graduations and weddings.

For those who are living who have faced their challenges and their demons we ask a special prayer. Give them peace in their days and new hope in this Easter season.

Let us please remember as Legislators, much like lawmakers in those chaotic days of Vietnam, that in each of our decisions we must ask for Your guidance, that even the simplest choice can have unimagined repercussions.

As my fellow Vietnam veteran Representative Shumake leads us in the Pledge of Allegiance, let us all stand a little taller, let us speak a little louder, and may we reflect a little deeper, O Lord, on the multitude of blessings You have bestowed upon our nation.

May this Saturday give comfort to all who have served during the Vietnam conflict and bless those who have served these United States and this Great State of Missouri...

And the House says "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Mrs. Evrard's and Mrs. Legters's 4th Grade Classes, Mason Murphy, Zach Leader, Braxton Hardy and Brooklyn Jones.

The Journal of the forty-second day was approved as printed.

On motion of Representative Riddle, House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Representative Haefner offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Bill No. 152, Page 2, Section 162.215, Line 23, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"160.261. 1. The local board of education of each school district shall clearly establish a written policy of discipline, including the district's determination on the use of corporal punishment and the procedures in which punishment will be applied. A written copy of the district's discipline policy and corporal punishment procedures, if applicable, shall be provided to the pupil and parent or legal guardian of every pupil enrolled in the district at the beginning of each school year and also made available in the office of the superintendent of such district, during normal business hours, for public inspection. All employees of the district shall annually receive instruction related to the specific contents of the policy of discipline and any interpretations necessary to implement the provisions of the policy in the course of their duties, including but not limited to approved methods of dealing with acts of school violence, disciplining students with disabilities and instruction in the necessity and requirements for confidentiality.

2. The policy shall require school administrators to report acts of school violence to all teachers at the attendance center and, in addition, to other school district employees with a need to know. For the purposes of this chapter or chapter 167, "need to know" is defined as school personnel who are directly responsible for the student's education or who otherwise interact with the student on a professional basis while acting within the scope of their assigned duties. As used in this section, the phrase "act of school violence" or "violent behavior" means the exertion of physical force by a student with the intent to do serious physical injury as defined in subdivision (6) of section 565.002 to another person while on school property, including a school bus in service on behalf of the district, or while involved in school activities. The policy shall at a minimum require school administrators to report, as soon as reasonably practical, to the appropriate law enforcement agency any of the following crimes, or any act which if committed by an adult would be one of the following crimes:

- (1) First degree murder under section 565.020;
- (2) Second degree murder under section 565.021;
- (3) Kidnapping under section 565.110;
- (4) First degree assault under section 565.050;
- (5) Forcible rape under section 566.030;
- (6) Forcible sodomy under section 566.060;
- (7) Burglary in the first degree under section 569.160;
- (8) Burglary in the second degree under section 569.170;
- (9) Robbery in the first degree under section 569.020;
- (10) Distribution of drugs under section 195.211;
- (11) Distribution of drugs to a minor under section 195.212;
- (12) Arson in the first degree under section 569.040;
- (13) Voluntary manslaughter under section 565.023;
- (14) Involuntary manslaughter under section 565.024;

- (15) Second degree assault under section 565.060;
- (16) Sexual assault under section 566.040;
- (17) Felonious restraint under section 565.120;
- (18) Property damage in the first degree under section 569.100;
- (19) The possession of a weapon under chapter 571;
- (20) Child molestation in the first degree pursuant to section 566.067;
- (21) Deviate sexual assault pursuant to section 566.070;
- (22) Sexual misconduct involving a child pursuant to section 566.083;
- (23) Sexual abuse pursuant to section 566.100;
- (24) Harassment under section 565.090; or
- (25) Stalking under section 565.225;

committed on school property, including but not limited to actions on any school bus in service on behalf of the district or while involved in school activities. The policy shall require that any portion of a student's individualized education program that is related to demonstrated or potentially violent behavior shall be provided to any teacher and other school district employees who are directly responsible for the student's education or who otherwise interact with the student on an educational basis while acting within the scope of their assigned duties. The policy shall also contain the consequences of failure to obey standards of conduct set by the local board of education, and the importance of the standards to the maintenance of an atmosphere where orderly learning is possible and encouraged.

3. The policy shall provide that any student who is on suspension for any of the offenses listed in subsection 2 of this section or any act of violence or drug-related activity defined by school district policy as a serious violation of school discipline pursuant to subsection 9 of this section shall have as a condition of his or her suspension the requirement that such student is not allowed, while on such suspension, to be within one thousand feet of any school property in the school district where such student attended school or any activity of that district, regardless of whether or not the activity takes place on district property unless:

(1) Such student is under the direct supervision of the student's parent, legal guardian, or custodian and the superintendent or the superintendent's designee has authorized the student to be on school property;

(2) Such student is under the direct supervision of another adult designated by the student's parent, legal guardian, or custodian, in advance, in writing, to the principal of the school which suspended the student and the superintendent or the superintendent's designee has authorized the student to be on school property;

(3) Such student is enrolled in and attending an alternative school that is located within one thousand feet of a public school in the school district where such student attended school; or

(4) Such student resides within one thousand feet of any public school in the school district where such student attended school in which case such student may be on the property of his or her residence without direct adult supervision.

4. Any student who violates the condition of suspension required pursuant to subsection 3 of this section may be subject to expulsion or further suspension pursuant to the provisions of sections 167.161, 167.164, and 167.171. In making this determination consideration shall be given to whether the student poses a threat to the safety of any child or school employee and whether such student's unsupervised presence within one thousand feet of the school is disruptive to the educational process or undermines the effectiveness of the school's disciplinary policy. Removal of any pupil who is a student with a disability is subject to state and federal procedural rights. This section shall not limit a school district's ability to:

(1) Prohibit all students who are suspended from being on school property or attending an activity while on suspension;

(2) Discipline students for off-campus conduct that negatively affects the educational environment to the extent allowed by law.

5. The policy shall provide for a suspension for a period of not less than one year, or expulsion, for a student who is determined to have brought a weapon to school, including but not limited to the school playground or the school parking lot, brought a weapon on a school bus or brought a weapon to a school activity whether on or off of the school property in violation of district policy, except that:

(1) The superintendent or, in a school district with no high school, the principal of the school which such child attends may modify such suspension on a case-by-case basis; and

(2) This section shall not prevent the school district from providing educational services in an alternative setting to a student suspended under the provisions of this section.

6. For the purpose of this section, the term "weapon" shall mean a firearm as defined under 18 U.S.C. 921 and the following items, as defined in section 571.010: a blackjack, a concealable firearm, an explosive weapon, a firearm, a firearm silencer, a gas gun, a knife, knuckles, a machine gun, a projectile weapon, a rifle, a shotgun, a spring gun or a switchblade knife; except that this section shall not be construed to prohibit a school board from adopting a policy to allow a Civil War reenactor to carry a Civil War era weapon on school property for educational purposes so long as the firearm is unloaded. The local board of education shall define weapon in the discipline policy. Such definition shall include the weapons defined in this subsection but may also include other weapons.

7. All school district personnel responsible for the care and supervision of students are authorized to hold every pupil strictly accountable for any disorderly conduct in school or on any property of the school, on any school bus going to or returning from school, during school-sponsored activities, or during intermission or recess periods.

8. Teachers and other authorized district personnel in public schools responsible for the care, supervision, and discipline of schoolchildren, including volunteers selected with reasonable care by the school district, shall not be civilly liable when acting in conformity with the established policies developed by each board, including but not limited to policies of student discipline or when reporting to his or her supervisor or other person as mandated by state law acts of school violence or threatened acts of school violence, within the course and scope of the duties of the teacher, authorized district personnel or volunteer, when such individual is acting in conformity with the established policies developed by the board. Nothing in this section shall be construed to create a new cause of action against such school district, or to relieve the school district from liability for the negligent acts of such persons.

9. Each school board shall define in its discipline policy acts of violence and any other acts that constitute a serious violation of that policy. "Acts of violence" as defined by school boards shall include but not be limited to exertion of physical force by a student with the intent to do serious bodily harm to another person while on school property, including a school bus in service on behalf of the district, or while involved in school activities. School districts shall for each student enrolled in the school district compile and maintain records of any serious violation of the district's discipline policy. Such records shall be made available to teachers and other school district employees with a need to know while acting within the scope of their assigned duties, and shall be provided as required in section 167.020 to any school district in which the student subsequently attempts to enroll.

10. Spanking, when administered by certificated personnel and in the presence of a witness who is an employee of the school district, or the use of reasonable force to protect persons or property, when administered by personnel of a school district in a reasonable manner in accordance with the local board of education's written policy of discipline, is not abuse within the meaning of chapter 210. [The provisions of sections 210.110 to 210.165 notwithstanding, the children's division shall not have jurisdiction over or investigate any report of alleged child abuse arising out of or related to the use of reasonable force to protect persons or property when administered by personnel of a school district or any spanking administered in a reasonable manner by any certificated school personnel in the presence of a witness who is an employee of the school district pursuant to a written policy of discipline established by the board of education of the school district, as long as no allegation of sexual misconduct arises from the spanking or use of force.]

11. [If a student reports alleged sexual misconduct on the part of a teacher or other school employee to a person employed in a school facility who is required to report such misconduct to the children's division under section 210.115, such person and the superintendent of the school district shall forward the allegation to the children's division within twenty-four hours of receiving the information. Reports made to the children's division under this subsection shall be investigated by the division in accordance with the provisions of sections 210.145 to 210.153 and shall not be investigated by the school district under subsections 12 to 20 of this section for purposes of determining whether the allegations should or should not be substantiated. The district may investigate the allegations for the purpose of making any decision regarding the employment of the accused employee.]

12. Upon receipt of any reports of child abuse by the children's division other than reports provided under subsection 11 of this section, pursuant to sections 210.110 to 210.165 which allegedly involve personnel of a school district, the children's division shall notify the superintendent of schools of the district or, if the person named in the alleged incident is the superintendent of schools, the president of the school board of the school district where the alleged incident occurred.

13. If, after an initial investigation, the superintendent of schools or the president of the school board finds that the report involves an alleged incident of child abuse other than the administration of a spanking by certificated school personnel or the use of reasonable force to protect persons or property when administered by school personnel pursuant to a written policy of discipline or that the report was made for the sole purpose of harassing a public school employee, the superintendent of schools or the president of the school board shall immediately refer the matter back to the children's division and take no further action. In all matters referred back to the children's division, the division shall treat the report in the same manner as other reports of alleged child abuse received by the division.

14. If the report pertains to an alleged incident which arose out of or is related to a spanking administered by certificated personnel or the use of reasonable force to protect persons or property when administered by personnel of a school district pursuant to a written policy of discipline or a report made for the sole purpose of harassing a public school employee, a notification of the reported child abuse shall be sent by the superintendent of schools or the president of the school board to the law enforcement in the county in which the alleged incident occurred.

15. The report shall be jointly investigated by the law enforcement officer and the superintendent of schools or, if the subject of the report is the superintendent of schools, by a law enforcement officer and the president of the school board or such president's designee.

16. The investigation shall begin no later than forty-eight hours after notification from the children's division is received, and shall consist of, but need not be limited to, interviewing and recording statements of the child and the child's parents or guardian within two working days after the start of the investigation, of the school district personnel allegedly involved in the report, and of any witnesses to the alleged incident.

17. The law enforcement officer and the investigating school district personnel shall issue separate reports of their findings and recommendations after the conclusion of the investigation to the school board of the school district within seven days after receiving notice from the children's division.

18. The reports shall contain a statement of conclusion as to whether the report of alleged child abuse is substantiated or is unsubstantiated.

19. The school board shall consider the separate reports referred to in subsection 17 of this section and shall issue its findings and conclusions and the action to be taken, if any, within seven days after receiving the last of the two reports. The findings and conclusions shall be made in substantially the following form:

(1) The report of the alleged child abuse is unsubstantiated. The law enforcement officer and the investigating school board personnel agree that there was not a preponderance of evidence to substantiate that abuse occurred;

(2) The report of the alleged child abuse is substantiated. The law enforcement officer and the investigating school district personnel agree that the preponderance of evidence is sufficient to support a finding that the alleged incident of child abuse did occur;

(3) The issue involved in the alleged incident of child abuse is unresolved. The law enforcement officer and the investigating school personnel are unable to agree on their findings and conclusions on the alleged incident.

20. The findings and conclusions of the school board under subsection 19 of this section shall be sent to the children's division. If the findings and conclusions of the school board are that the report of the alleged child abuse is unsubstantiated, the investigation shall be terminated, the case closed, and no record shall be entered in the children's division central registry. If the findings and conclusions of the school board are that the report of the alleged child abuse is substantiated, the children's division shall report the incident to the prosecuting attorney of the appropriate county along with the findings and conclusions of the school district and shall include the information in the division's central registry. If the findings and conclusions of the school board are that the issue involved in the alleged incident of child abuse is unresolved, the children's division shall report the incident to the prosecuting attorney of the appropriate county along with the findings and conclusions of the school board, however, the incident and the names of the parties allegedly involved shall not be entered into the central registry of the children's division unless and until the alleged child abuse is substantiated by a court of competent jurisdiction.

21. Any superintendent of schools, president of a school board or such person's designee or law enforcement officer who knowingly falsifies any report of any matter pursuant to this section or who knowingly withholds any information relative to any investigation or report pursuant to this section is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

22.] In order to ensure the safety of all students, should a student be expelled for bringing a weapon to school, violent behavior, or for an act of school violence, that student shall not, for the purposes of the accreditation process of the Missouri school improvement plan, be considered a dropout or be included in the calculation of that district's educational persistence ratio."; and

"210.115. 1. When any physician, medical examiner, coroner, dentist, chiropractor, optometrist, podiatrist, resident, intern, nurse, hospital or clinic personnel that are engaged in the examination, care, treatment or research of persons, and any other health practitioner, psychologist, mental health professional, social worker, day care center worker or other child-care worker, juvenile officer, probation or parole officer, jail or detention center personnel, teacher, principal or other school official, minister as provided by section 352.400, peace officer or law enforcement official, or other person with responsibility for the care of children has reasonable cause to suspect that a child has been or may be subjected to abuse or neglect or observes a child being subjected to conditions or circumstances which would reasonably result in abuse or neglect, that person shall immediately report [or cause a report to be made] to the division in accordance with the provisions of sections 210.109 to 210.183. No internal investigation shall be initiated until such a report has been made. As used in this section, the term "abuse" is not limited to abuse inflicted by a person responsible for the child's care, custody and control as specified in section 210.110, but shall also include abuse inflicted by any other person.

2. [Whenever such person is required to report pursuant to sections 210.109 to 210.183 in an official capacity as a staff member of a medical institution, school facility, or other agency, whether public or private, the person in charge or a designated agent shall be notified immediately. The person in charge or a designated agent shall then become responsible for immediately making or causing such report to be made to the division. Nothing in this section, however, is meant to preclude any person from reporting abuse or neglect] If two or more members of a medical institution who are required to report jointly have knowledge of a known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect, a single report may be made by a member of that team. Any member who has knowledge that the member designated to report has failed to do so shall thereafter immediately make the report.

3. The reporting requirements under this section are individual, and no supervisor or administrator may impede or inhibit any reporting under this section. No person making a report under this section shall be subject to any sanction, including any adverse employment action, for making such report.

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of sections 210.109 to 210.183, any child who does not receive specified medical treatment by reason of the legitimate practice of the religious belief of the child's parents, guardian, or others legally responsible for the child, for that reason alone, shall not be found to be an abused or neglected child, and such parents, guardian or other persons legally responsible for the child shall not be entered into the central registry. However, the division may accept reports concerning such a child and may subsequently investigate or conduct a family assessment as a result of that report. Such an exception shall not limit the administrative or judicial authority of the state to ensure that medical services are provided to the child when the child's health requires it.

[4.] 5. In addition to those persons and officials required to report actual or suspected abuse or neglect, any other person may report in accordance with sections 210.109 to 210.183 if such person has reasonable cause to suspect that a child has been or may be subjected to abuse or neglect or observes a child being subjected to conditions or circumstances which would reasonably result in abuse or neglect.

[5.] 6. Any person or official required to report pursuant to this section, including employees of the division, who has probable cause to suspect that a child who is or may be under the age of eighteen, who is eligible to receive a certificate of live birth, has died shall report that fact to the appropriate medical examiner or coroner. If, upon review of the circumstances and medical information, the medical examiner or coroner determines that the child died of natural causes while under medical care for an established natural disease, the coroner, medical examiner or physician shall notify the division of the child's death and that the child's attending physician shall be signing the death certificate. In all other cases, the medical examiner or coroner shall accept the report for investigation, shall immediately notify the division of the child's death as required in section 58.452 and shall report the findings to the child fatality review panel established pursuant to section 210.192.

[6.] 7. Any person or individual required to report may also report the suspicion of abuse or neglect to any law enforcement agency or juvenile office. Such report shall not, however, take the place of reporting [or causing a report to be made] to the division.

[7.] 8. If an individual required to report suspected instances of abuse or neglect pursuant to this section has reason to believe that the victim of such abuse or neglect is a resident of another state or was injured as a result of an act which occurred in another state, the person required to report such abuse or neglect may, in lieu of reporting to the Missouri division of family services, make such a report to the child protection agency of the other state with the authority to receive such reports pursuant to the laws of such other state. If such agency accepts the report, no report is required to be made, but may be made, to the [Missouri] division [of family services]."; and

On motion of Representative Solon, HB 152, as amended, was ordered perfected and printed.

HB 578, relating to sales and use taxation, was taken up by Representative Funderburk.

Representative Kelly (45) offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 578, Page 1, Section A, Line 3, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"32.070. 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Streamlined Sales and Use Tax Agreement Act".

2. The director of the department of revenue shall enter into the streamlined sales and use tax agreement with one or more states to simplify and modernize sales and use tax administration in order to substantially reduce the burden of tax compliance for all sellers and for all types of commerce. In furtherance of the streamlined sales and use tax agreement, the director of the department of revenue may act jointly with other states that are members of the streamlined sales and use tax agreement to establish standards for certification of a certified service provider and certified automated system and establish performance standards for multistate sellers.

3. The director of the department of revenue may take other action reasonably required to implement the provisions set forth in the streamlined sales and use tax administration act, including, but not limited to, the promulgation of rules and the joint procurement, with other member states, of goods and services in furtherance of the streamlined sales and use tax agreement.

4. For the purposes of representing the state as a member of the agreement and, if necessary, amending the agreement, the state shall be represented by three delegates, one of whom shall be appointed by the governor, one shall be a member of the general assembly appointed by mutual agreement of the president pro tem of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives, with the director of the department of revenue or the director's designee as the third delegate. The delegates shall recommend to the committees responsible for reviewing tax issues in the senate and the house of representatives each year any amendment of state statutes required to be substantially in compliance with the agreement. Such delegates shall make a written report by the fifteenth day of January each year regarding the status of the agreement.

5. The department of revenue shall promulgate rules necessary to implement the provisions of the streamlined sales and use tax agreement.

32.086. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for all local sales and use taxes collected by the department and remitted to a political jurisdiction or taxing district, the department shall remit one percent of the amount collected to the general revenue fund to offset the cost of collection, unless a greater amount is specified in the local sales and use tax law. The department shall not commingle the remaining amounts collected with general revenues and shall remit the remaining amounts collected to the political jurisdiction or taxing district less any credits for erroneous payments, overpayments, and dishonored checks.

32.087. 1. Within ten days after the adoption of any ordinance or order in favor of adoption of any local sales tax authorized under the local sales tax law by the voters of a taxing entity, the governing body or official of such taxing entity shall forward to the director of revenue by United States registered mail or certified mail a certified copy of the ordinance or order. The ordinance or order shall reflect the effective date thereof.

2. Any local sales tax so adopted shall become effective on the first day of the second calendar quarter after the director of revenue receives notice of adoption of the local sales tax, except as provided in subsection [18] 17 of this section.

3. Every retailer within the jurisdiction of one or more taxing entities which has imposed one or more local sales taxes under the local sales tax law shall add all taxes so imposed along with the tax imposed by the sales tax law of the state of Missouri to the sale price and, when added, the combined tax shall constitute a part of the price, and shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price. The combined rate of the state sales tax and all local sales taxes shall be the sum of the rates, multiplying the combined rate times the amount of the sale.

4. [The brackets required to be established by the director of revenue under the provisions of section 144.285 shall be based upon the sum of the combined rate of the state sales tax and all local sales taxes imposed under the provisions of the local sales tax law.

5.] The ordinance or order imposing a local sales tax under the local sales tax law shall impose upon all sellers a tax for the privilege of engaging in the business of selling tangible personal property or rendering taxable services at retail to the extent and in the manner provided in sections 144.010 to 144.525, and the rules and regulations of the director of revenue issued pursuant thereto; except that the rate of the tax shall be the sum of the combined rate of the state sales tax or state highway use tax and all local sales taxes imposed under the provisions of the local sales tax law.

[6.] 5. On and after the effective date of any local sales tax imposed under the provisions of the local sales tax law, the director of revenue shall perform all functions incident to the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of the tax, and the director of revenue shall collect in addition to the sales tax for the state of Missouri all additional local sales taxes authorized under the authority of the local sales tax law. All local sales taxes imposed under the local sales tax law together with all taxes imposed under the sales tax law of the state of Missouri shall be collected together and reported upon such forms and under such administrative rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the director of revenue.

[7.] 6. All applicable provisions contained in sections 144.010 to 144.525 governing the state sales tax and section 32.057, the uniform confidentiality provision, shall apply to the collection of any local sales tax imposed under the local sales tax law except as modified by the local sales tax law.

[8.] 7. All exemptions granted to agencies of government, organizations, persons and to the sale of certain articles and items of tangible personal property and taxable services under the provisions of sections 144.010 to 144.525, as these sections now read and as they may hereafter be amended, it being the intent of this general assembly to ensure that the same sales tax exemptions granted from the state sales tax law also be granted under the local sales tax law, are hereby made applicable to the imposition and collection of all local sales taxes imposed under the local sales tax law.

[9.] 8. The same sales tax permit, exemption certificate and retail certificate required by sections 144.010 to 144.525 for the administration and collection of the state sales tax shall satisfy the requirements of the local sales tax law, and no additional permit or exemption certificate or retail certificate shall be required; except that the director of revenue may prescribe a form of exemption certificate for an exemption from any local sales tax imposed by the local sales tax law.

[10.] 9. All discounts allowed the retailer under the provisions of the state sales tax law for the collection of and for payment of taxes under the provisions of the state sales tax law are hereby allowed and made applicable to any local sales tax collected under the provisions of the local sales tax law.

[11.] 10. The penalties provided in section 32.057 and sections 144.010 to 144.525 for a violation of the provisions of those sections are hereby made applicable to violations of the provisions of the local sales tax law.

[12. (1)] 11. For the purposes of any local sales tax imposed by an ordinance or order under the local sales tax law, all sales[, except the sale of motor vehicles, trailers, boats, and outboard motors, shall be deemed to be consummated at the place of business of the retailer unless the tangible personal property sold is delivered by the retailer or his agent to an out-of-state destination. In the event a retailer has more than one place of business in this state which participates in the sale, the sale shall be deemed to be consummated at the place of business of the retailer where the initial order for the tangible personal property is taken, even though the order must be forwarded elsewhere for acceptance, approval of credit, shipment or billing. A sale by a retailer's agent or employee shall be deemed to be consummated at the place of business from which he works.

(2) For the purposes of any local sales tax imposed by an ordinance or order under the local sales tax law, all sales of motor vehicles, trailers, boats, and outboard motors shall be deemed to be consummated at the residence of the purchaser and not at the place of business of the retailer, or the place of business from which the retailer's agent or employee works.

(3) For the purposes of any local tax imposed by an ordinance or under the local sales tax law on charges for mobile telecommunications services, all taxes of mobile telecommunications service shall be imposed as provided in the Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act, 4 U.S.C. Sections 116 through 124, as amended] shall be sourced as provided by sections 144.040 to 144.043.

[13.] 12. Local sales taxes imposed pursuant to the local sales tax law on the purchase and sale of motor vehicles, trailers, boats, and outboard motors shall not be collected and remitted by the seller, but shall be collected by the director of revenue at the time application is made for a certificate of title, if the address of the applicant is within a taxing entity imposing a local sales tax under the local sales tax law.

[14.] 13. The director of revenue and any of [his] the director's deputies, assistants and employees who have any duties or responsibilities in connection with the collection, deposit, transfer, transmittal, disbursement, safekeeping, accounting, or recording of funds which come into the hands of the director of revenue under the provisions of the local sales tax law shall enter a surety bond or bonds payable to any and all taxing entities in whose behalf such funds have been collected under the local sales tax law in the amount of one hundred thousand dollars for each such tax; but the director of revenue may enter into a blanket bond covering [himself] the director and all such deputies, assistants and employees. The cost of any premium for such bonds shall be paid by the director of revenue from the share of the collections under the sales tax law retained by the director of revenue for the benefit of the state.

[15.] 14. The director of revenue shall annually report on [his] the director's management of each trust fund which is created under the local sales tax law and administration of each local sales tax imposed under the local sales tax law. [He] The director shall provide each taxing entity imposing one or more local sales taxes authorized by the local sales tax law with a detailed accounting of the source of all funds received by [him] the director for the taxing entity. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the state auditor shall annually audit each trust fund. A copy of the director's report and annual audit shall be forwarded to each taxing entity imposing one or more local sales taxes.

[16.] 15. Within the boundaries of any taxing entity where one or more local sales taxes have been imposed, if any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid by [him] such person under the local sales tax law or in the event a determination has been made against [him] such person for taxes and penalty under the local sales tax law, the limitation for bringing suit for the collection of the delinquent tax and penalty shall be the same as that provided in sections 144.010 to 144.525. Where the director of revenue has determined that suit must be filed against any person for the collection of delinquent taxes due the state under the state sales tax law, and where such person is also delinquent in payment of taxes under the local sales tax law, the director of revenue shall notify the taxing entity in the event any person fails or refuses to pay the amount of any local sales tax due so that appropriate action may be taken by the taxing entity.

[17.] 16. Where property is seized by the director of revenue under the provisions of any law authorizing seizure of the property of a taxpayer who is delinquent in payment of the tax imposed by the state sales tax law, and where such taxpayer is also delinquent in payment of any tax imposed by the local sales tax law, the director of revenue shall permit the taxing entity to join in any sale of property to pay the delinquent taxes and penalties due the state and to the taxing entity under the local sales tax law. The proceeds from such sale shall first be applied to all sums due the state, and the remainder, if any, shall be applied to all sums due such taxing entity.

[18.] 17. If a local sales tax has been in effect for at least one year under the provisions of the local sales tax law and voters approve reimposition of the same local sales tax at the same rate at an election as provided for in the local sales tax law prior to the date such tax is due to expire, the tax so reimposed shall become effective the first day of the first calendar quarter after the director receives a certified copy of the ordinance, order or resolution accompanied by a map clearly showing the boundaries thereof and the results of such election, provided that such ordinance, order or resolution and all necessary accompanying materials are received by the director at least thirty days prior to the expiration of such tax. Any administrative cost or expense incurred by the state as a result of the provisions of this subsection shall be paid by the city or county reimposing such tax.

18. If the boundaries of a city in which a sales tax or use tax has been imposed shall thereafter be changed or altered, the city clerk shall forward to the director of revenue by United States registered mail or certified mail a certified copy of the ordinance adding or detaching territory from the city within ten days of adoption of the ordinance. The ordinance shall reflect the effective date of the ordinance and shall be accompanied by a map of the city clearly showing the territory added or detached from the city boundaries. Upon receipt of the ordinance and map, the tax imposed under the local sales tax law or local use tax law shall be effective in the added territory or abolished in the detached territory on the first day of a calendar quarter after one hundred twenty days' notice to sellers.

19. Any change to any local sales tax or local use tax boundary or rate shall be effective on the first day of a calendar quarter after one hundred twenty days' notice to sellers.

66.620. 1. All county sales taxes collected by the director of revenue under sections 66.600 to 66.630 on behalf of any county[, less one percent for cost of collection which shall be deposited in the state's general revenue fund after payment of premiums for surety bonds as provided in section 32.087,] shall be deposited in a special trust fund, which is hereby created, to be known as the "County Sales Tax Trust Fund". [The moneys in the county sales tax trust fund shall not be deemed to be state funds and shall not be commingled with any funds of the state.] The director of revenue shall keep accurate records of the amount of money in the trust fund which was collected in each county imposing a county sales tax, and the records shall be open to the inspection of officers of the county and the public. Not later than the tenth day of each month, the director of revenue shall distribute all moneys deposited in the trust fund during the preceding month to the county which levied the tax; such funds shall be deposited with the county treasurer of the county and all expenditures of funds arising from the county sales tax trust fund shall be by an appropriation act to be enacted by the legislative council of the county, and to the cities, towns and villages located wholly or partly within the county which levied the tax in the manner as set forth in sections 66.600 to 66.630.

2. In any county not adopting an additional sales tax and alternate distribution system as provided in section 67.581, for the purposes of distributing the county sales tax, the county shall be divided into two groups, "Group A" and

"Group B". Group A shall consist of all cities, towns and villages which are located wholly or partly within the county which levied the tax and which had a city sales tax in effect under the provisions of sections 94.500 to 94.550 on the day prior to the adoption of the county sales tax ordinance, except that beginning January 1, 1980, group A shall consist of all cities, towns and villages which are located wholly or partly within the county which levied the tax and which had a city sales tax approved by the voters of such city under the provisions of sections 94.500 to 94.550 on the day prior to the effective date of the county sales tax. For the purposes of determining the location of consummation of sales for distribution of funds to cities, towns and villages in group A, the boundaries of any such city, town or village shall be the boundary of that city, town or village as it existed on March 19, 1984. Group B shall consist of all cities, towns and villages which are located wholly or partly within the county which levied the tax and which did not have a city sales tax in effect under the provisions of sections 94.500 to 94.550 on the day prior to the adoption of the county sales tax ordinance, and shall also include all unincorporated areas of the county which levied the tax; except that, beginning January 1, 1980, group B shall consist of all cities, towns and villages which are located wholly or partly within the county which levied the tax and which did not have a city sales tax approved by the voters of such city under the provisions of sections 94.500 to 94.550 on the day prior to the effective date of the county sales tax and shall also include all unincorporated areas of the county which levied the tax.

3. Until January 1, 1994, the director of revenue shall distribute to the cities, towns and villages in group A the taxes based on the location in which the sales were deemed consummated under section 66.630 and subsection 12 of section 32.087. Except for distribution governed by section 66.630, after deducting the distribution to the cities, towns and villages in group A, the director of revenue shall distribute the remaining funds in the county sales tax trust fund to the cities, towns and villages and the county in group B as follows: To the county which levied the tax, a percentage of the distributable revenue equal to the percentage ratio that the population of the unincorporated areas of the county bears to the total population of group B; and to each city, town or village in group B located wholly within the taxing county, a percentage of the distributable revenue equal to the percentage ratio that the population of such city, town or village bears to the total population of group B; and to each city, town or village located partly within the taxing county, a percentage of the distributable revenue equal to the percentage ratio that the population of that part of the city, town or village located within the taxing county bears to the total population of group B.

4. From and after January 1, 1994, the director of revenue shall distribute to the cities, towns and villages in group A a portion of the taxes based on the location in which the sales were deemed consummated under section 66.630 and subsection 12 of section 32.087 in accordance with the formula described in this subsection. After deducting the distribution to the cities, towns and villages in group A, the director of revenue shall distribute funds in the county sales tax trust fund to the cities, towns and villages and the county in group B as follows: To the county which levied the tax, ten percent multiplied by the percentage of the population of unincorporated county which has been annexed or incorporated since April 1, 1993, multiplied by the total of all sales tax revenues countywide, and a percentage of the remaining distributable revenue equal to the percentage ratio that the population of unincorporated areas of the county bears to the total population of group B; and to each city, town or village in group B located wholly within the taxing county, a percentage of the remaining distributable revenue equal to the percentage ratio that the population of such city, town or village bears to the total population of group B; and to each city, town or village located partly within the taxing county, a percentage of the remaining distributable revenue equal to the percentage ratio that the population of that part of the city, town or village located within the taxing county bears to the total population of group B.

5. (1) For purposes of administering the distribution formula of subsection 4 of this section, the revenues arising each year from sales occurring within each group A city, town or village shall be distributed as follows: Until such revenues reach the adjusted county average, as hereinafter defined, there shall be distributed to the city, town or village all of such revenues reduced by the percentage which is equal to ten percent multiplied by the percentage of the population of unincorporated county which has been annexed or incorporated after April 1, 1993; and once revenues exceed the adjusted county average, total revenues shall be shared in accordance with the redistribution formula as defined in this subsection.

(2) For purposes of this subsection, the "adjusted county average" is the per capita countywide average of all sales tax distributions during the prior calendar year reduced by the percentage which is equal to ten percent multiplied by the percentage of the population of unincorporated county which has been annexed or incorporated after April 1, 1993; the "redistribution formula" is as follows: During 1994, each group A city, town and village shall receive that portion of the revenues arising from sales occurring within the municipality that remains after deducting therefrom an amount equal to the cumulative sales tax revenues arising from sales within the municipality multiplied by the percentage which is the sum of ten percent multiplied by the percentage of the population of unincorporated county which has been annexed or incorporated after April 1, 1993, and the percentage, if greater than zero, equal to the product of 8.5 multiplied by the logarithm (to base 10) of the product of 0.035 multiplied by the total of cumulative per capita sales taxes arising from sales within the municipality less the adjusted county average. During 1995, each group A city, town and village shall receive that portion of the revenues arising from sales occurring within the municipality that remains after deducting therefrom an amount equal to the cumulative sales tax revenues arising from sales within the municipality multiplied by the percentage which is the sum of ten percent multiplied by the percentage of the population of unincorporated county which has been annexed or incorporated after April 1, 1993, and the percentage, if greater than zero, equal to the product of seventeen multiplied by the logarithm (to base 10) of the product of 0.035 multiplied by the total of cumulative per capita sales taxes arising from sales within the municipality less the adjusted county average. From January 1, 1996, until January 1, 2000, each group A city, town and village shall receive that portion of the revenues arising from sales occurring within the municipality that remains after deducting therefrom an amount equal to the cumulative sales tax revenues arising from sales within the municipality multiplied by the percentage which is the sum of ten percent multiplied by the percentage of the population of unincorporated county which has been annexed or incorporated after April 1, 1993, and the percentage, if greater than zero, equal to the product of 25.5 multiplied by the logarithm (to base 10) of the product of 0.035 multiplied by the total of cumulative per capita sales taxes arising from sales within the municipality less the adjusted county average. From and after January 1, 2000, the distribution formula covering the period from January 1, 1996, until January 1, 2000, shall continue to apply, except that the percentage computed for sales arising within the municipalities shall be not less than 7.5 percent for municipalities within which sales tax revenues exceed the adjusted county average, nor less than 12.5 percent for municipalities within which sales tax revenues exceed the adjusted county average by at least twenty-five percent.

(3) For purposes of applying the redistribution formula to a municipality which is partly within the county levying the tax, the distribution shall be calculated alternately for the municipality as a whole, except that the factor for annexed portion of the county shall not be applied to the portion of the municipality which is not within the county levying the tax, and for the portion of the municipality within the county levying the tax. Whichever calculation results in the larger distribution to the municipality shall be used.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the fifty percent of additional sales taxes as described in section 99.845 arising from economic activities within the area of a redevelopment project established after July 12, 1990, pursuant to sections 99.800 to 99.865, while tax increment financing remains in effect shall be deducted from all calculations of countywide sales taxes, shall be distributed directly to the municipality involved, and shall be disregarded in calculating the amounts distributed or distributable to the municipality. Further, any agreement, contract or covenant entered into prior to July 12, 1990, between a municipality and any other political subdivision which provides for an appropriation of incremental sales tax revenues to the special allocation fund of a tax increment financing project while tax increment financing remains in effect shall continue to be in full force and effect and the sales taxes so appropriated shall be deducted from all calculations of countywide sales taxes, shall be distributed directly to the municipality involved, and shall be disregarded in calculating the amounts distributed or distributable to the municipality. In addition, and notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, economic development funds shall be distributed in full to the municipality in which the sales producing them were deemed consummated. Additionally, economic development funds shall be deducted from all calculations of countywide sales taxes and shall be disregarded in calculating the amounts distributed or distributable to the municipality. As used in this subdivision, the term "economic development funds" means the amount of sales tax revenue generated in any fiscal year by projects authorized pursuant to chapter 99 or chapter 100 in connection with which such sales tax revenue was pledged as security for, or was guaranteed by a developer to be sufficient to pay, outstanding obligations under any agreement authorized by chapter 100, entered into or adopted prior to September 1, 1993, between a municipality and another public body. The cumulative amount of economic development funds allowed under this provision shall not exceed the total amount necessary to amortize the obligations involved.

6. If the qualified voters of any city, town or village vote to change or alter its boundaries by annexing any unincorporated territory included in group B or if the qualified voters of one or more city, town or village in group A and the qualified voters of one or more city, town or village in group B vote to consolidate, the area annexed or the area consolidated which had been a part of group B shall remain a part of group B after annexation or consolidation. After the effective date of the annexation or consolidation, the annexing or consolidated city, town or village shall receive a percentage of the group B distributable revenue equal to the percentage ratio that the population of the annexed or consolidated area bears to the total population of group B and such annexed area shall not be classified as unincorporated area for determination of the percentage allocable to the county. If the qualified voters of any two or more cities, towns or villages in group A each vote to consolidate such cities, towns or villages, then such consolidated cities, towns or villages shall remain a part of group A. For the purpose of sections 66.600 to 66.630, population shall be as determined by the last federal decennial census or the latest census that determines the total population of the county and all political subdivisions therein. For the purpose of calculating the adjustment based on the percentage of unincorporated county population which is annexed after April 1, 1993, the accumulated percentage immediately before each census shall be used as the new percentage base after such census. After any annexation, incorporation or other municipal boundary change affecting the unincorporated area of the county, the chief elected official of the county shall certify the new population of the unincorporated area of the county and the percentage of the population which has been annexed or incorporated since April 1, 1993, to the director of revenue. After the adoption of the county sales tax ordinance, any city, town or village in group A may by adoption of an ordinance by its governing body cease to be a part of group A and become a part of group B. Within ten days after the adoption of the ordinance transferring the city, town or village from one group to the other, the clerk of the transferring city, town or village shall forward to the director of revenue, by registered mail, a certified copy of the ordinance. Distribution to such city as a part of its former group shall cease and as a part of its new group shall begin on the first day of January of the year following notification to the director of revenue, provided such notification is received by the director of revenue on or before the first day of July of the year in which the transferring ordinance is adopted. If such notification is received by the director of revenue after the first day of July of the year in which the transferring ordinance is adopted, then distribution to such city as a part of its former group shall cease and as a part of its new group shall begin the first day of July of the year following such notification to the director of revenue. Once a group A city, town or village becomes a part of group B, such city may not transfer back to group A.

7. If any city, town or village shall hereafter change or alter its boundaries, the city clerk of the municipality shall forward to the director of revenue, by registered mail, a certified copy of the ordinance adding or detaching territory from the municipality. The ordinance shall reflect the effective date thereof, and shall be accompanied by a map of the municipality clearly showing the territory added thereto or detached therefrom. Upon receipt of the ordinance and map, the tax imposed by sections 66.600 to 66.630 shall be redistributed and allocated in accordance with the provisions of this section on the effective date of the change of the municipal boundary so that the proper percentage of group B distributable revenue is allocated to the municipality in proportion to any annexed territory. If any area of the unincorporated county elects to incorporate subsequent to the effective date of the county sales tax as set forth in sections 66.600 to 66.630, the newly incorporated municipality shall remain a part of group B. The city clerk of such newly incorporated municipality shall forward to the director of revenue, by registered mail, a certified copy of the incorporation election returns and a map of the municipality clearly showing the boundaries thereof. The certified copy of the incorporation election returns shall reflect the effective date of the incorporation. Upon receipt of the incorporation election returns and map, the tax imposed by sections 66.600 to 66.630 shall be distributed and allocated in accordance with the provisions of this section on the effective date of the incorporation.

8. The director of revenue may authorize the state treasurer to make refunds from the amounts in the trust fund and credited to any county for erroneous payments and overpayments made, and may redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such counties. If any county abolishes the tax, the county shall notify the director of revenue of the action at least ninety days prior to the effective date of the repeal and the director of revenue may order retention in the trust fund, for a period of one year, of two percent of the amount collected after receipt of such notice to cover possible refunds or overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of the tax in such county, the director of revenue shall remit the balance in the account to the county and close the account of that county. The director of revenue shall notify each county of each instance of any amount refunded or any check redeemed from receipts due the county.

9. Except as modified in sections 66.600 to 66.630, all provisions of sections 32.085 and 32.087 shall apply to the tax imposed under sections 66.600 to 66.630.

67.395. 1. All sales taxes collected by the director of revenue under sections 67.391 to 67.395 on behalf of any county[, less one percent for cost of collection which shall be deposited in the state's general revenue fund after payment of premiums for surety bonds as provided in section 32.087] shall be deposited with the state treasurer in a special trust fund, which is hereby created, to be known as the "County AntiDrug Sales Tax Trust Fund". [The moneys in the county antidrug sales tax trust fund shall not be deemed to be state funds and shall not be commingled with any funds of the state.] The director of revenue shall keep accurate records of the amount of money in the trust fund which was collected in each county imposing a sales tax under sections 67.391 to 67.395, and the records shall be open to the inspection of officers of the county and the public. Not later than the tenth day of each month, the director of revenue shall distribute all moneys deposited in the trust fund during the preceding month to the county which levied the tax. Such funds shall be deposited with the county treasurer of each such county, and all expenditures of funds arising from the county antidrug sales tax trust fund shall be by an appropriation act to be enacted by the governing body of each such county.

2. The director of revenue may authorize the state treasurer to make refunds from the amounts in the trust fund and credited to any county for erroneous payments and overpayments made, and may redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such counties. If any county abolishes the tax, the county shall notify the director of

After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of the tax in such county, the director of revenue shall authorize the state treasurer to remit the balance in the account to the county and close the account of that county. [The moneys in such county sales tax trust fund shall not be deemed to be state funds and shall not be commingled with any funds of the state.] The director of revenue shall keep accurate records of the amount of money in the trust fund which was collected in each county imposing a county sales tax, and the records shall be open to the inspection of officers of the county and to the public. Not later than the tenth day of each month the director of revenue shall distribute all moneys deposited in the trust fund during the preceding month by distributing to the county treasurer, or such other officer as may be designated by the county ordinance or order, of each county imposing the tax authorized by sections 67.500 to 67.545, the sum due the county as certified by the director of revenue.

2. The director of revenue may authorize the state treasurer to make refunds from the amounts in the trust fund and credited to any county for erroneous payments and overpayments made, and may redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such counties. If any county abolishes the tax, the county shall notify the director of revenue of the action at least ninety days prior to the effective date of the repeal, and the director of revenue may order retention in the trust fund, for a period of one year, of two percent of the amount collected after receipt of such notice to cover possible refunds or overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of the tax in such county, the director of revenue shall authorize the state treasurer to remit the balance in the account to the county and close the account of that county. The director of revenue shall notify each county of each instance of any amount refunded or any check redeemed from receipts due the county.

3. Except as modified in sections 67.500 to 67.545, all provisions of sections 32.085 [and] to 32.087 shall apply to the tax imposed under sections 67.500 to 67.545.

For purposes of this section, the term "funding of museums and festivals" shall mean:

(1) Funding of museums operating in the county, which are registered with the United States Internal Revenue Service as a 501(C)(3) corporation and which are considered by the board to be tourism attractions; and

(2) Funding of organizations that are registered as 501(C)(3) corporations which promote cultural heritage tourism including festivals and the arts.

2. Any question submitted to the voters of such county to establish a sales tax pursuant to this section shall be submitted in substantially the following form:

Shall the county of (insert the name of the county) impose a sales tax of (insert rate of percent) percent to be used to fund (museums, cultural heritage, festivals) in certain areas of the county?

☐ YES

☐ NO

3. If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the proposal, and the tax takes effect pursuant to this section, the museums and festivals board appointed pursuant to subsection 5 of this section shall determine in what manner the tax revenue moneys will be expended, and disbursements of these moneys shall be made strictly in accordance with directions of the board which are consistent with the provisions of sections 67.571 to 67.577. Expenditures of these tax moneys may be made for the employment of personnel selected by the board to assist in carrying out the duties of the board, and the board is expressly authorized to employ such personnel. Expenditures of these tax moneys may be made directly to corporations pursuant to subsection 1 of this section. No such tax revenue moneys shall be disbursed to or on behalf of any corporation, organization or entity that is not duly registered with the Internal Revenue Service as a 501(C)(3) organization.

Each member shall be a resident of the county from which he or she is appointed. The members of the board shall not receive compensation for service on the board, but shall be reimbursed from the tax revenue money for any reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in service on the board.

6. In the area of each county in which a sales tax has been imposed in the manner provided by sections 67.571 to 67.577, every retailer within such area shall add the tax imposed by the provisions of sections 67.571 to 67.577 to his sale price, and this tax shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price.

7. In counties imposing a tax under the provisions of sections 67.571 to 67.577, in order to permit sellers required to collect and report the sales tax to collect the amount required to be reported and remitted, but not to change the requirements of reporting or remitting the tax, or to serve as a levy of the tax, and in order to avoid fractions of pennies, the governing body may authorize the use of a bracket system similar to that authorized by the provisions of section 144.285, and notwithstanding the provisions of that section, this new bracket system shall be used where this tax is imposed and shall apply to all taxable transactions.

8. Except as modified in this section, all provisions of sections 32.085 to 32.087 shall apply to the tax imposed under this section.

(1) All applicable provisions contained in sections 144.010 to 144.510 governing the state sales tax and section 32.057, the uniform confidentiality provision, shall apply to the collection of the tax imposed by the provisions of sections 67.571 to 67.577;

(2) All exemptions granted to agencies of government, organizations, and persons under the provisions of sections 144.010 to 144.510 are hereby made applicable to the imposition and collection of the tax imposed by sections 67.571 to 67.577.

2. The same sales tax permit, exemption certificate and retail certificate required by sections 144.010 to 144.510 for the administration and collection of the state sales tax shall satisfy the requirements of sections 67.571 to 67.577, and no additional permit or exemption certificate or retail certificate shall be required; except that, the director of revenue may prescribe a form of exemption certificate for an exemption from the tax imposed by sections 67.571 to 67.577.

3. All discounts allowed the retailer pursuant to the provisions of the state sales tax law for the collection of and for payment of taxes pursuant to that act are hereby allowed and made applicable to any taxes collected pursuant to the provisions of sections 67.571 to 67.577.

4. The penalties provided in section 32.057 and sections 144.010 to 144.510 for a violation of those acts are hereby made applicable to violations of the provisions of sections 67.571 to 67.577.

5. [For the purposes of the sales tax imposed by an order pursuant to sections 67.571 to 67.577, all retail sales shall be deemed to be consummated at the place of business of the retailer] Except as provided in sections 67.571 to 67.577, all provisions of sections 32.085 to 32.087 shall apply to the tax imposed under sections 67.571 to 67.577.

67.578. 1. For purposes of this section, the term "museums" means museums operating in the county, which are registered with the United States Internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)(3) corporation and which are considered by the board to be a tourism attraction. The tax authorized by this section shall be in addition to any and all other sales taxes allowed by law, except that no sales tax shall be imposed pursuant to this section unless the governing authority submits to the voters of the county, at a county or state general, primary, or special election, a proposal to authorize the governing authority to impose the tax.

2. The ballot of submission shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following language:

Shall the county of (insert the name of the county) impose a sales tax of (insert rate of percent) percent for the funding of museums? "Museums" means museums operating in the county, which are registered with the United States Internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)(3) corporation and which are considered by the museum board to be a tourism attraction.

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO". If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the proposal, then the sales tax shall become effective on the first day of the second calendar quarter after the director of revenue receives notice of the adoption of the tax. If the proposal receives less than the required majority of votes, then the governing authority shall have no power to impose the tax unless and until the governing authority has again submitted another proposal to authorize the governing authority to impose the sales tax authorized by this section and such proposal is approved by the required majority of the qualified voters voting thereon.

3. On or after the effective date of the tax, the director of revenue shall be responsible for the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of the tax, and sections 32.085 [and] to 32.087 shall apply. The director may retain an amount not to exceed one percent for deposit in the general revenue fund to offset the costs of collection. In order to permit sellers required to collect and report the sales tax to collect the amount required to be reported and remitted, but not to change the requirements of reporting or remitting the tax, or to serve as a levy of the tax, and in order to avoid fractions of pennies, the governing authority may authorize the use of a bracket system similar to that authorized in section 144.285, and notwithstanding the provisions of that section, this new bracket system shall be used where this tax is imposed and shall apply to all taxable transactions. Beginning with the effective date of the tax, every retailer in the county shall add the sales tax to the sale price, and this tax shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price. For purposes of this section, all retail sales shall be deemed to be consummated at the place of business of the retailer.

4. All applicable provisions in sections 144.010 to 144.525 governing the state sales tax, and section 32.057, the uniform confidentiality provision, shall apply to the collection of the tax, and all exemptions granted to agencies of government, organizations, and persons pursuant to sections 144.010 to 144.525 are hereby made applicable to the imposition and collection of the tax. The same sales tax permit, exemption certificate, and retail certificate required by sections 144.010 to 144.525 for the administration and collection of the state sales tax shall satisfy the requirements of this section, and no additional permit or exemption certificate or retail certificate shall be required; except that, the director of revenue may prescribe a form of exemption certificate for an exemption from the tax. All discounts allowed the retailer pursuant to the state sales tax law for the collection of and for payment of taxes are hereby allowed and made applicable to the tax. The penalties for violations provided in section 32.057 and sections 144.010 to 144.525 are hereby made applicable to violations of this section. If any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid pursuant to this section, or in the event a determination has been made against the person for taxes and penalty pursuant to this section, the limitation for bringing suit for the collection of the delinquent tax and penalty shall be the same as that provided in sections 144.010 to 144.525.

5. The governing authority may authorize any museum board already existing in the county, or may establish a museum board, to expend revenue collected pursuant to this section. In the event that no museum board already exists, the board established pursuant to this section shall consist of six members who are appointed by the governing authority from a list of candidates supplied by the chair of each of the two major political parties of the county, with three members from each of the two parties. Members shall serve for three-year terms, but of the members first appointed, [one] two shall be appointed for a term of one year, two shall be appointed for a term of two years, and two shall be appointed for a term of three years. Each member shall be a resident of the county. The members shall not receive compensation for service on the board, but shall be reimbursed from the revenues collected pursuant to this section for any reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in service on the board. The board shall determine in what manner the revenues will be expended, and disbursements of these moneys shall be made strictly in accordance with this section. Expenditures may be made for the employment of personnel selected by the board to assist in carrying out the duties of the board, and the board is expressly authorized to employ such personnel.

6. The governing authority may submit the question of repeal of the tax to the voters at any county or state general, primary, or special election. The ballot of submission shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following language:

Shall the county of (insert name of county) repeal the sales tax of (insert rate of percent) percent for the funding of museums?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES".

If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO". [If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal are in favor of repeal, that repeal shall become effective on December thirty-first of the calendar year in which the repeal was approved.]

67.581. 1. In addition to the sales tax permitted by sections 66.600 to 66.630, any county of the first class having a charter form of government and having a population of nine hundred thousand or more may impose an additional countywide sales tax upon approval by a vote of the qualified voters of the county. The proposal may be submitted to the voters by the governing body of the county and shall be submitted to the voters at the next general election upon petitions signed by a number of qualified voters residing in the county equal to at least eight percent of the votes cast in the county in the next preceding gubernatorial election filed with the governing body of the county. The submission shall include the levying of a sales tax at a rate of not to exceed two hundred seventy-five one-thousandths of one percent on the receipts from the sale at retail of all tangible personal property or taxable services within the county which are also taxable under the provisions of sections 66.600 to 66.630, and shall provide for the distribution of the proceeds in the manner provided in either subsection 4 or subsection 5 of this section. If either of the alternative distribution systems as provided in subsection 4 or subsection 5 of this section is approved by the voters, then the alternative system of distribution may not be submitted to the voters for at least three years from the date of such voter approval.

2. The ballot of submission shall contain, but is not limited to, the following language:

Shall the County of levy an additional sales tax at the rate of (insert rate) and distribute the proceeds in the manner provided in (insert proper reference) (subsection 4)(subsection 5) of section 67.581, RSMo?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the proposal, the additional sales tax shall be levied and collected and the proceeds from the additional tax shall be distributed as provided in either subsection 4 or subsection 5 of this section. If a majority of the votes cast by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the proposal, then the governing body of the county shall have no power to impose the additional sales tax authorized by this section unless and until a proposal for the levy of such tax is submitted to and approved by the voters of the county.

3. The provisions of sections 66.600 to 66.630 and sections 32.085 [and] to 32.087, except to the extent otherwise provided in this section, shall govern the levy, collection, distribution and other procedures related to an additional sales tax imposed pursuant to this section.

4. In any county adopting an additional sales tax pursuant to the provisions of this section, and selecting the method of distribution provided in this subsection, the proceeds from the sales tax imposed pursuant to this section, less one percent collection cost, shall be distributed first to those municipalities that did not receive during the preceding calendar year ninety-five percent of the amount the municipality would have received by multiplying the population of the municipality by the average per capita sales tax receipt for such county in an amount which will bring each municipality receipt of sales tax moneys up to ninety-five percent of the average per capita receipts from the proceeds of the sales tax imposed pursuant to sections 66.600 to 66.630. Any remainder of the money received from the sales tax imposed pursuant to this section shall be distributed to all municipalities on the ratio that the population of each municipality bears to the total population of the county. The average per capita sales tax distribution shall be calculated by dividing the sum of the total sales tax revenue derived from the tax imposed pursuant to sections 66.600 to 66.630 by the total population of the county. Population of each municipality, of the unincorporated area of the county, and the total population of the county shall be determined on the basis of the most recent federal decennial census. For the purposes of this subsection, any city, town, village or the unincorporated area of the county shall be considered a municipality.

5. In any county adopting an additional sales tax pursuant to the provisions of this section and selecting the method of distribution provided in this subsection, the proceeds from the sales tax imposed pursuant to this section, less one percent collection cost, shall be distributed to all cities, towns and villages, and the unincorporated areas of the county in group B and to such cities, towns and villages in group A as necessary so that no city, town, or village in group

A receives from the combined proceeds of both the sales tax imposed pursuant to this section and the sales tax imposed pursuant to sections 66.600 to 66.630, less than the per capita amount received by the cities, towns and villages and the unincorporated area of the county in group B receives from the total proceeds from both sales taxes.

6. The governing body of any county which is imposing a sales tax under the provisions of sections 66.600 to 66.630 may on its own motion and shall, upon petitions filed with the governing body of the county signed by a number of qualified voters residing in the county equal to at least eight percent of the votes cast in the county at the next preceding gubernatorial election, submit to the qualified voters of the county a proposal to change the method of distribution of sales tax proceeds from the manner provided in subsection 2 of section 66.620 to the method provided in this subsection. The ballot of submission shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall the proceeds from the county sales tax be distributed among the county of and the various cities, towns and villages therein in the manner provided in subdivisions (1) and (2) of subsection 6 of section 67.581, RSMo, in lieu of the present manner of distribution?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by the qualified voters of the county voting thereon are in favor of the proposal, the sales tax imposed by the county under the provisions of sections 66.600 to 66.630 shall be distributed in the manner provided in this subsection and not in the manner provided in subsection 2 of section 66.620. If a majority of the votes cast by the qualified voters of the county voting thereon are opposed to the proposal, then the governing body of the county shall have no power to order the proceeds from the sales tax imposed pursuant to the provisions of sections 66.600 to 66.630 in the manner provided in this subsection in lieu of the method provided in subsection 2 of section 66.620, unless and until a proposal authorizing such method of distribution is submitted to and approved by the voters of the county. If the voters approve the change in the method of distribution of the sales tax proceeds in the manner provided in this subsection, the county clerk of the county shall notify the director of revenue of the change in the method of distribution within ten days after adoption of the proposal and shall inform the director of the effective date of the change in the method of distribution, which shall be on the first day of the third calendar quarter after the director of revenue receives notice. After the effective date of the change in the manner of distribution, the director of revenue shall distribute the proceeds of the sales tax imposed by such county under the provisions of sections 66.600 to 66.630 in the manner provided in this subsection in lieu of the manner of distribution provided in subsection 2 of section 66.620. The proceeds of the sales tax imposed under the provisions of sections 66.600 to 66.630 in any county which elects to have the proceeds distributed in the manner provided in this subsection shall be distributed in the following manner:

(1) The proceeds from the sales taxes shall be distributed to the cities, towns and villages in group A and to the cities, towns and villages, and the county in group B as defined in section 66.620 in the manner provided in subsection 2 of section 66.620, until an amount equal to the total amount distributed under section 66.620, for the twelve-month period immediately preceding the effective date of the tax levied pursuant to the provisions of this section has been distributed;

(2) All moneys received in excess of the total amount distributed under section 66.620 for the twelve-month period immediately preceding the effective date of the tax levied pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be distributed to all cities, towns and villages and to the county on the basis that the population of each city, town or village, and in the case of the county the basis that the population of the unincorporated area of the county, bears to the total population of the county. The average per capita sales tax distribution shall be calculated by dividing the sum of the remaining amount of the total sales tax revenues by the total population of the county. Population of each city, town or village, of the unincorporated area of the county, and the total population of the county shall be determined on the basis of the most recent federal decennial census.

7. No municipality incorporated after the adoption of the tax authorized by this section shall be included as other than part of the unincorporated area of the county nor receive any share of either the proceeds from the tax levied pursuant to the provisions of this section or the tax levied pursuant to the provisions of sections 66.600 to 66.630 unless, at the time of incorporation, such municipality had a population of ten thousand or more.

8. The county sales tax imposed pursuant to this section on the purchase and sale of motor vehicles shall not be collected and remitted by the seller, but shall be collected by the director of revenue at the time application is made for a certificate of title, if the address of the applicant is within the county imposing the additional sales tax. [The amounts so collected, less one percent collection cost, shall be deposited in the county sales tax trust fund to be distributed in accordance with section 66.620. The purchase or sale of motor vehicles shall be deemed to be consummated at the address of the applicant for a certificate of title.]

9. No tax shall be imposed pursuant to this section for the purpose of funding in whole or in part the construction, operation or maintenance of a sports stadium, field house, indoor or outdoor recreational facility, center, playing field, parking facility or anything incidental or necessary to a complex suitable for any type of professional sport, either upon, above or below the ground.

10. The director of revenue may authorize the state treasurer to make refunds from the amounts in the trust fund and credited to any county for erroneous payments and overpayments made, and may redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such counties. If any county abolishes the tax, the county shall notify the director of revenue of the action at least ninety days prior to the effective date of the repeal and the director of revenue may order retention in the trust fund, for a period of one year, of two percent of the amount collected after receipt of such notice to cover possible refunds or overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of the tax in such county, the director of revenue shall remit the balance in the account to the county and close the account of that county. The director of revenue shall notify each county of each instance of any amount refunded or any check redeemed from receipts due the county.

67.582. 1. The governing body of any county, except a county of the first class with a charter form of government with a population of greater than four hundred thousand inhabitants, is hereby authorized to impose, by ordinance or order, a sales tax in the amount of up to one-half of one percent on all retail sales made in such county which are subject to taxation under the provisions of sections 144.010 to 144.525 for the purpose of providing law enforcement services for such county. The tax authorized by this section shall be in addition to any and all other sales taxes allowed by law, except that no ordinance or order imposing a sales tax under the provisions of this section shall be effective unless the governing body of the county submits to the voters of the county, at a county or state general, primary or special election, a proposal to authorize the governing body of the county to impose a tax.

2. The ballot of submission shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following language:

(1) If the proposal submitted involves only authorization to impose the tax authorized by this section the ballot shall contain substantially the following:

Shall the county of (county's name) impose a countywide sales tax of (insert amount) for the purpose of providing law enforcement services for the county?

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "Yes". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "No"; or Shall the county of (county's name) be authorized to enter into agreements for the purpose of forming a regional jail district and obligating the county to impose a countywide sales tax of (insert amount) to fund dollars of the costs to construct a regional jail and to fund the costs to operate a regional jail, with any funds in excess of that necessary to construct and operate such jail to be used for law enforcement purposes?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "Yes". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "No".

If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the proposal submitted pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection, then the ordinance or order and any amendments thereto shall be in effect [on the first day of the second quarter immediately following the election approving the proposal] as provided by section 32.087. If the constitutionally required percentage of the voters voting thereon are in favor of the proposal submitted pursuant to subdivision (2) of this subsection, then the ordinance or order and any amendments thereto shall be in effect [on the first day of the second quarter immediately following the election approving the proposal] as provided by section 32.087. If a proposal receives less than the required majority, then the governing body of the county shall have no power to impose the sales tax herein authorized unless and until the governing body of the county shall again have submitted another proposal to authorize the governing body of the county to impose the sales tax authorized by this section and such proposal is approved by the required majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. However, in no event shall a proposal pursuant to this section be submitted to the voters sooner than twelve months from the date of the last proposal pursuant to this section.

3. All revenue received by a county from the tax authorized under the provisions of this section shall be deposited in a special trust fund and shall be used solely for providing law enforcement services for such county for so long as the tax shall remain in effect. Revenue placed in the special trust fund may also be utilized for capital improvement projects for law enforcement facilities and for the payment of any interest and principal on bonds issued for said capital improvement projects.

4. Once the tax authorized by this section is abolished or is terminated by any means, all funds remaining in the special trust fund shall be used solely for providing law enforcement services for the county. Any funds in such special trust fund which are not needed for current expenditures may be invested by the governing body in accordance with applicable laws relating to the investment of other county funds.

5. All sales taxes collected by the director of revenue under this section on behalf of any county[, less one percent for cost of collection which shall be deposited in the state's general revenue fund after payment of premiums for surety bonds as provided in section 32.087,] shall be deposited in a special trust fund, which is hereby created, to be known as the "County Law Enforcement Sales Tax Trust Fund". [The moneys in the county law enforcement sales tax trust fund shall not be deemed to be state funds and shall not be commingled with any funds of the state.] The director of revenue shall keep accurate records of the amount of money in the trust and which was collected in each county imposing a sales tax under this section, and the records shall be open to the inspection of officers of the county and the public. (11) To have and exercise all rights and powers necessary or incidental to or implied from the specific powers granted by this section.

10. There is hereby created the "Exhibition Center and Recreational Facility District Sales Tax Trust Fund", which shall consist of all sales tax revenue collected pursuant to this section. The director of revenue shall be custodian of the trust fund, and moneys in the trust fund shall be used solely for the purposes authorized in this section. [Moneys in the trust fund shall be considered nonstate funds pursuant to section 15, article IV, Constitution of Missouri.] The director of revenue shall invest moneys in the trust fund in the same manner as other funds are invested. Any interest and moneys earned on such investments shall be credited to the trust fund. All sales taxes collected by the director of revenue pursuant to this section on behalf of the district, less one percent for the cost of collection which shall be deposited in the state's general revenue fund after payment of premiums for surety bonds as provided in section 32.087, shall be deposited in the trust fund. The director of revenue shall keep accurate records of the amount of moneys in the trust fund which was collected in the district imposing a sales tax pursuant to this section, and the records shall be open to the inspection of the officers of each district and the general public. Not later than the tenth day of each month, the director of revenue shall distribute all moneys deposited in the trust fund during the preceding month to the district. The director of revenue may authorize refunds from the amounts in the trust fund and credited to the district for erroneous payments and overpayments made, and may redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of the district.

11. The sales tax authorized by this section is in addition to all other sales taxes allowed by law. After the effective date of any tax imposed under the provisions of this section, the director of revenue shall perform all functions incident to the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of the tax and collect, in addition to the sales tax for the state of Missouri, the additional tax authorized under the authority of this section. The tax imposed under this section and the tax imposed under the sales tax law of the state of Missouri shall be collected together and reported upon such forms and under such administrative rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the director of revenue.

12. Except as modified in this section, all provisions of sections 32.085 [and] to 32.087 apply to the sales tax imposed pursuant to this section.

[12.] 13. Any sales tax imposed pursuant to this section shall not extend past the initial term approved by the voters unless an extension of the sales tax is submitted to and approved by the qualified voters in each county in the manner provided in this section. Each extension of the sales tax shall be for a period not to exceed twenty years. The ballot of submission for the extension shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall the (name of district) extend the sales tax of one-fourth of one percent for a period of (insert number of years) years to fund the acquisition, construction, maintenance, operation, improvement, and promotion of an exhibition center and recreational facilities?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast favor the extension, then the sales tax shall remain in effect at the rate and for the time period approved by the voters. If a sales tax extension is not approved, the district may submit another sales tax proposal as authorized in this section, but the district shall not submit such a proposal to the voters sooner than twelve months from the date of the last extension submitted.

[13.] 14. Once the sales tax authorized by this section is abolished or terminated by any means, all funds remaining in the trust fund shall be used solely for the purposes approved in the ballot question authorizing the sales tax. The sales tax shall not be abolished or terminated while the district has any financing or other obligations outstanding; provided that any new financing, debt, or other obligation or any restructuring or refinancing of an existing debt or obligation incurred more than ten years after voter approval of the sales tax provided in this section or more than ten years after any voter-approved extension thereof shall not cause the extension of the sales tax provided in this section or cause the final maturity of any financing or other obligations outstanding to be extended. Any funds in the trust fund which are not needed for current expenditures may be invested by the district in the securities described in subdivisions (1) to (12) of subsection 1 of section 30.270 or repurchase agreements secured by such securities. If the district abolishes the sales tax, the district shall notify the director of revenue of the action at least ninety days before the effective date of the repeal, and the director of revenue may order retention in the trust fund, for a period of one year, of two percent of the amount collected after receipt of such notice to cover possible refunds or overpayment of the sales tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of the sales tax in the district, the director of revenue shall remit the balance in the account to the district and close the account of the district. The director of revenue shall notify the district of each instance of any amount refunded or any check redeemed from receipts due the district.

[14.] 15. In the event that the district is dissolved or terminated by any means, the governing bodies of the counties in the district shall appoint a person to act as trustee for the district so dissolved or terminated. Before beginning the discharge of duties, the trustee shall take and subscribe an oath to faithfully discharge the duties of the office, and shall give bond with sufficient security, approved by the governing bodies of the counties, to the use of the dissolved or terminated district, for the faithful discharge of duties. The trustee shall have and exercise all powers necessary to liquidate the district, and upon satisfaction of all remaining obligations of the district, shall pay over to the county treasurer of each county in the district and take receipt for all remaining moneys in amounts based on the ratio the levy of each county bears to the total levy for the district in the previous three years or since the establishment of the district, whichever time period is shorter. Upon payment to the county treasurers, the trustee shall deliver to the clerk of the governing body of any county in the district all books, papers, records, and deeds belonging to the dissolved district.

67.2030. 1. The governing authority of any city of the fourth classification with more than one thousand six hundred but less than one thousand seven hundred inhabitants and located in any county of the first classification with more than seventy-three thousand seven hundred but less than seventy-three thousand eight hundred inhabitants is hereby authorized to impose, by ordinance or order, a sales tax in the amount not to exceed one-half of one percent on all retail sales made in such city which are subject to taxation pursuant to sections 144.010 to 144.525 for the promotion of tourism in such city. The tax authorized by this section shall be in addition to any and all other sales taxes allowed by law, except that no ordinance or order imposing a sales tax pursuant to this section shall be effective unless the governing authority of the city submits to the qualified voters of the city, at any municipal or state general, primary, or special election, a proposal to authorize the governing authority of the city to impose a tax.

2. The ballot of submission shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall the city of (city's name) impose a citywide sales tax of (insert amount) for the purpose of promoting tourism in the city?

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the proposal, then the ordinance or order and any amendments thereto shall be in effect [on the first day of the first calendar quarter immediately following notification to the director of the department of revenue of the election approving the proposal] as provided by section 32.087. If a proposal receives less than the required majority, then the governing authority of the city shall have no power to impose the sales tax unless and until the governing authority of the city has submitted another proposal to authorize the imposition of the sales tax authorized by this section and such proposal is approved by the required majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. However, in no event shall a proposal pursuant to this section be submitted to the voters sooner than twelve months from the date of the last proposal pursuant to this section.

3. [On and after the effective date of any tax authorized in this section, the city may adopt one of the two following provisions for the collection and administration of the tax:

(1) The city may adopt rules and regulations for the internal collection of such tax by the city officers usually responsible for collection and administration of city taxes; or

(2) The city may enter into an agreement with the director of revenue of the state of Missouri for the purpose of collecting the tax authorized in this section. In the event any city enters into an agreement with the director of revenue of the state of Missouri for the collection of the tax authorized in this section, the director of revenue shall perform all functions incident to the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of such tax, and the director of revenue shall collect the additional tax authorized in this section. The tax authorized in this section shall be collected and reported upon such forms and under such administrative rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the director of revenue, and the director of revenue shall retain an amount not to exceed one percent for cost of collection.

4. If a tax is imposed by a city pursuant to this section, the city may collect a penalty of one percent and interest not to exceed two percent per month on unpaid taxes which shall be considered delinquent thirty days after the last day of each quarter] After the effective date of any tax imposed under the provisions of this section, the director of revenue shall perform all functions incident to the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of the tax and collect, in addition to the sales tax for the state of Missouri, the additional tax authorized under the authority of this section. The tax imposed under this section and the tax imposed under the sales tax law of the state of Missouri shall be collected together and reported upon such forms and under such administrative rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the director of revenue.

[5.] 4. (1) The governing authority of any city that has adopted any sales tax pursuant to this section shall, upon filing of a petition calling for the repeal of such sales tax signed by at least ten percent of the qualified voters in the city, submit the question of repeal of the sales tax to the qualified voters at any primary or general election. The ballot of submission shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall (insert name of city) repeal the sales tax of (insert rate of percent) percent for tourism purposes now in effect in (insert name of city)?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal are in favor of repeal, that repeal shall become effective on December thirty-first of the calendar year in which such repeal was approved. If the city or county abolishes the tax, the city or county shall notify the director of revenue of the action at least one hundred twenty days prior to the effective date of the repeal.

(2) Once the tax is repealed as provided in this section, all funds remaining in any trust fund or account established to receive revenues generated by the tax shall be used solely for the original stated purpose of the tax. Any funds which are not needed for current expenditures may be invested by the governing authority in accordance with applicable laws relating to the investment of other city funds.

(3) The governing authority of a city repealing a tax pursuant to this section shall notify the director of revenue of the action at least forty-five days before the effective date of the repeal and the director of revenue may order retention in any trust fund created in the state treasury associated with the tax, for a period of one year, of two percent of the amount collected after receipt of such notice to cover refunds or overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of repeal of the tax in the city, the director of revenue shall remit the balance in the trust fund to the city and close the account of that city. The director of revenue shall notify each city of each instance of any amount refunded or any check redeemed from receipts due the city.

(4) In the event that the repeal of a sales tax pursuant to this section dissolves or terminates a taxing district, the governing authority of the city shall appoint a person to act as trustee for the district so dissolved or terminated. Before beginning the discharge of duties, the trustee shall take and subscribe an oath to faithfully discharge the duties of the office, and shall give bond with sufficient security, approved by the governing authority of the city, to the use of the dissolved or terminated district, for the faithful discharge of duties. The trustee shall have and exercise all powers necessary to liquidate the district, and upon satisfaction of all remaining obligations of the district, shall pay over to the city treasurer or the equivalent official and take receipt for all remaining moneys. Upon payment to the city treasurer, the trustee shall deliver to the clerk of the governing authority of the city all books, papers, records, and deeds belonging to the dissolved district.

[6.] 5. Except as modified in this section, all provisions of sections 32.085 [and] to 32.087 shall apply to the tax imposed pursuant to this section.

67.2525. 1. Each member of the board of directors shall have the following qualifications:

(2) Be at least twenty-one years of age and a registered voter in the district.

2. The district shall be subdivided into at least five but not more than fifteen subdistricts, which shall be represented by one representative on the district board of directors. All board members shall have terms of four years, including the initial board of directors. All members shall take office upon being appointed and shall remain in office until a successor is appointed by the mayor or chairman of the municipality in which the district is located, or elected by the property owners in those subdistricts without registered voters.

3. For those subdistricts which contain one or more registered voters, the mayor or chairman of the city, town, or village shall, with the consent of the governing body, appoint a registered voter residing in the subdistrict to the board of directors.

4. The clerk of the city, town, or village in which the petition was filed shall, unless waived in writing by all property owners in the subdistrict, give notice by causing publication to be made once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, the last publication of which shall be at least ten days before the day of the meeting required by this section, to call a meeting of the owners of real property within the subdistrict at a day and hour specified in a public place in the city, town, or village in which the petition was filed for the purpose of electing members of the board of directors.

5. The property owners, when assembled, shall organize by the election of a temporary chairman and secretary of the meeting who shall conduct the election. At the election, each acre of real property within the subdistrict shall represent one share, and each owner, including corporations and other entities, may have one vote in person or for every acre of real property owned by such person within the subdistrict. Each voter which is not an individual shall determine how to cast its vote as provided for in its articles of incorporation, articles of organization, articles of partnership, bylaws, or other document which sets forth an appropriate mechanism for the determination of the entity's vote. If a voter has no such mechanism, then its vote shall be cast as determined by a majority of the persons who run the day-to-day affairs of the voter. The results of the meeting shall be certified by the temporary chairman and secretary to the municipal clerk if the district is established by a municipality described in this section, or to the circuit clerk if the district is established by a circuit court.

6. Successor boards shall be appointed or elected, depending upon the presence or absence of resident registered voters, by the mayor or chairman of a city, town, or village described in this section, or the property owners as set forth above; provided, however, that elections held by the property owners after the initial board is elected shall be certified to the municipal clerk of the city, town, or village where the district is located and the board of directors of the district.

7. Should a vacancy occur on the board of directors, the mayor or chairman of the city, town, or village if there are registered voters within the subdistrict, or a majority of the owners of real property in a subdistrict if there are not registered voters in the subdistrict, shall have the authority to appoint or elect, as set forth in this section, an interim director to complete any unexpired term of a director caused by resignation or disqualification.

8. The board shall possess and exercise all of the district's legislative and executive powers, including:

(1) The power to fund, promote and provide educational, civic, musical, theatrical, cultural, concerts, lecture series, and related or similar entertainment events or activities, and fund, promote, plan, design, construct, improve, maintain, and operate public improvements, transportation projects, and related facilities within the district;

(2) The power to accept and disburse tax or other revenue collected in the district; and

(3) The power to receive property by gift or otherwise.

9. Within thirty days after the selection of the initial directors, the board shall meet. At its first meeting and annually thereafter the board shall elect a chairman from its members.

10. The board shall appoint an executive director, district secretary, treasurer, and such other officers or employees as it deems necessary.

11. At the first meeting, the board, by resolution, shall define the first and subsequent fiscal years of the district, and shall adopt a corporate seal.

In those subdistricts that approve the sales tax, the sales tax shall become effective [on the first day of the first calendar quarter immediately following the action by the district board of directors imposing the tax] as provided by section 32.087.

14. Each director shall devote such time to the duties of the office as the faithful discharge thereof may require and be reimbursed for his or her actual expenditures in the performance of his or her duties on behalf of the district. Directors may be compensated, but such compensation shall not exceed one hundred dollars per month.

15. In addition to all other powers granted by sections 67.2500 to 67.2530, the district shall have the following general powers:

(1) To sue and be sued in its own name, and to receive service of process, which shall be served upon the district secretary;

(2) To fix compensation of its employees and contractors;

(3) To enter into contracts, franchises, and agreements with any person or entity, public or private, affecting the affairs of the district, including contracts with any municipality, district, or state, or the United States, and any of their agencies, political subdivisions, or instrumentalities, for the funding, including without limitation, interest rate exchange or swap agreements, planning, development, construction, acquisition, maintenance, or operation of a district facility or to assist in such activity;

(4) To acquire, develop, construct, equip, transfer, donate, lease, exchange, mortgage, and encumber real and personal property in furtherance of district purposes;

(13) To contract for transfer to a city, town, or village such district facilities and improvements free of cost or encumbrance on such terms set forth by contract;

(14) To exercise such other powers necessary or convenient for the district to accomplish its purposes which are not inconsistent with its express powers.

16. A district may at any time authorize or issue notes, bonds, or other obligations for any of its powers or purposes. Such notes, bonds, or other obligations:

(1) Shall be in such amounts as deemed necessary by the district, including costs of issuance thereof;

(2) Shall be payable out of all or any portion of the revenues or other assets of the district;

(3) May be secured by any property of the district which may be pledged, assigned, mortgaged, or otherwise encumbered for payment;

(4) Shall be authorized by resolution of the district, and if issued by the district, shall bear such date or dates, and shall mature at such time or times, but not in excess of forty years, as the resolution shall specify;

(6) May be sold at either public or private sale, at such interest rates, and at such price or prices as the district shall determine.

The provisions of this subsection are applicable to the district notwithstanding the provisions of section 108.170.

67.2530. 1. Any note, bond, or other indebtedness of the district may be refunded at any time by the district by issuing refunding bonds in such amount as the district may deem necessary. Such bonds shall be subject to and shall have the benefit of the foregoing provisions regarding notes, bonds, and other obligations. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, refunding bonds may include amounts necessary to finance any premium, unpaid interest, and costs of issuance in connection with the refunding bonds. Any such refunding may be effected whether the bonds to be refunded then shall have matured or thereafter shall mature, either by sale of the refunding bonds and the application of the proceeds thereof to the payment of the obligations being refunded or the exchange of the refunding bonds for the obligations being refunded with the consent of the holders of the obligations being refunded.

2. Notes, bonds, or other indebtedness of the district shall be exclusively the responsibility of the district payable solely out of the district funds and property and shall not constitute a debt or liability of the state of Missouri or any agency or political subdivision of the state. Any notes, bonds, or other indebtedness of the district shall state on their face that they are not obligations of the state of Missouri or any agency or political subdivision thereof other than the district.

3. Any district may by resolution impose a district sales tax of up to one-half of one percent on all retail sales made in such district that are subject to taxation pursuant to the provisions of sections 144.010 to 144.525. Upon voter approval, and receiving the necessary certifications from the governing body of the municipality in which the district is located, or from the circuit court if the district was formed by the circuit court, the board of directors shall have the power to impose a sales tax at its first meeting, or any meeting thereafter. Voter approval of the question of the imposing sales tax shall be in accordance with section 67.2520. [The sales tax shall become effective in those subdistricts that approve the sales tax on the first day of the first calendar quarter immediately following the passage of a resolution by the board of directors imposing the sales tax.

4. In each district in which a sales tax has been imposed in the manner provided by this section, every retailer shall add the tax imposed by the district pursuant to this section to the retailer's sale price, and when so added, such tax shall constitute a part of the price, shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price.

5. In order to permit sellers required to collect and report the sales tax authorized by this section to collect the amount required to be reported and remitted, but not to change the requirements of reporting or remitting tax or to serve as a levy of the tax, and in order to avoid fractions of pennies, the district may establish appropriate brackets which shall be used in the district imposing a tax pursuant to this section in lieu of those brackets provided in section 144.285.

6.] 4. All revenue received by a district from the sales tax authorized by this section shall be deposited in a special trust fund and shall be used solely for the purposes of the district. Any funds in such special trust fund which are not needed for the district's current expenditures may be invested by the district board of directors in accordance with applicable laws relating to the investment of other district funds.

[7.] 5. The sales tax may be imposed at a rate of up to one-half of one percent on the receipts from the sale at retail of all tangible personal property or taxable services at retail within the district adopting such tax, if such property and services are subject to taxation by the state of Missouri pursuant to the provisions of sections 144.010 to 144.525. Any district sales tax imposed pursuant to this section shall be imposed at a rate that shall be uniform throughout the subdistricts approving the sales tax.

[8. The resolution imposing the sales tax pursuant to this section shall impose upon all sellers a tax for the privilege of engaging in the business of selling tangible personal property or rendering taxable services at retail to the extent and in the manner provided in sections 144.010 to 144.525 and the rules and regulations of the director of revenue issued pursuant thereto; except that the rate of the tax shall be the rate imposed by the resolution as the sales tax and the tax shall be reported and returned to and collected by the district.

9. (1) On and after the effective date of any sales tax imposed pursuant to this section, the district shall perform all functions incident to the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of the tax. The sales tax imposed pursuant to this section shall be collected and reported upon such forms and under such administrative rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the district.

(2)] 6. After the effective date of any tax imposed under the provisions of this section, the director of revenue shall perform all functions incident to the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of the tax and collect, in addition to the sales tax for the state of Missouri, the additional tax authorized under the authority of this section. The tax imposed under this section and the tax imposed under the sales tax law of the state of Missouri shall be collected together and reported upon such forms and under such administrative rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the director of revenue.

7. All [such] sales taxes [collected by the district] shall be deposited by the district in a special fund to be expended for the purposes authorized in this section. The district shall keep accurate records of the amount of money which was collected pursuant to this section, and the records shall be open to the inspection of officers of each district and the general public.

[(3) The district may contract with the municipality that the district is within for the municipality to collect any revenue received by the district and, after deducting the cost of such collection, but not to exceed one percent of the total amount collected, deposit such revenue in a special trust account. Such revenue and interest may be applied by the municipality to expenses, costs, or debt service of the district at the direction of the district as set forth in a contract between the municipality and the district.

10. (1) All applicable provisions contained in sections 144.010 to 144.525 governing the state sales tax, sections 32.085 and 32.087, and section 32.057, the uniform confidentiality provision, shall apply to the collection of the tax imposed by this section, except as modified in this section.

(2) All exemptions granted to agencies of government, organizations, persons, and to the sale of certain articles and items of tangible personal property and taxable services pursuant to the provisions of sections 144.010 to 144.525 are hereby made applicable to the imposition and collection of the tax imposed by this section.

(3) The same sales tax permit, exemption certificate, and retail certificate required by sections 144.010 to 144.525 for the administration and collection of the state sales tax shall satisfy the requirements of this section, and no additional permit or exemption certificate or retail certificate shall be required; except that the district may prescribe a form of exemption certificate for an exemption from the tax imposed by this section.

(4) All discounts allowed the retailer pursuant to the provisions of the state sales tax laws for the collection of and for payment of taxes pursuant to such laws are hereby allowed and made applicable to any taxes collected pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(5) The penalties provided in section 32.057 and sections 144.010 to 144.525 for violation of those sections are hereby made applicable to violations of this section.

(6) For the purpose of a sales tax imposed by a resolution pursuant to this section, all retail sales shall be deemed to be consummated at the place of business of the retailer unless the tangible personal property sold is delivered by the retailer or the retailer's agent to an out-of-state destination or to a common carrier for delivery to an out-of-state destination. In the event a retailer has more than one place of business in this state which participates in the sale, the sale shall be deemed to be consummated at the place of business of the retailer where the initial order for the tangible personal property is taken, even though the order must be forwarded elsewhere for acceptance, approval of credit, shipment, or billing.

A sale by a retailer's employee shall be deemed to be consummated at the place of business from which the employee works.

(7)] 8. Subsequent to the initial approval by the voters and implementation of a sales tax in the district, the rate of the sales tax may be increased, but not to exceed a rate of one-half of one percent on retail sales as provided in this subsection. The election shall be conducted in accordance with section 67.2520; provided, however, that the district board of directors may place the question of the increase of the sales tax before the voters of the district by resolution, and the municipal clerk of the city, town, or village which originally conducted the incorporation of the district, or the circuit clerk of the court which originally conducted the incorporation of the district, shall conduct the subsequent election. In subsequent elections, the election judges shall certify the election results to the district board of directors. The ballot of submission shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall (name of district) increase the (insert amount) percent district sales tax now in effect to..... (insert amount) in the (name of district)?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by the qualified voters of the district voting thereon are in favor of the increase, the increase shall become effective [December thirty-first of the calendar year in which such increase was approved] as provided by section 32.087.

[11.] 9. (1) There shall not be any election as provided for in this section while the district has any financing or other obligations outstanding.

(2) The board, when presented with a petition signed by at least one-third of the registered voters in a district that voted in the last gubernatorial election, or signed by at least two-thirds of property owners of the district, calling for an election to dissolve and repeal the tax shall submit the question to the voters using the same procedure by which the imposing tax was voted. The ballot of submission shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall (name of district) dissolve and repeal the (insert amount) percent district sales tax now in effect in the (name of district)?

☐ YES

☐ NO

(5) The location where the order is received by or on behalf of the seller means the physical location of a seller or third party such as an established outlet, office location or automated order receipt system operated by or on behalf of the seller where an order is initially received by or on behalf of the seller and not where the order may be subsequently accepted, completed or fulfilled. An order is received when all of the information from the purchaser necessary to the determination whether the order can be accepted has been received by or on behalf of the seller. The location from which a product is shipped shall not be used in determining the location where the order is received by the seller.

(6) When taxable services are sold with tangible personal property or digital products pursuant to a single contract or in the same transaction, are billed on the same billing statement or statements, and, because of the application of this section, would be sourced to different jurisdictions, this subsection shall apply to determine the source for tax.

2. Except as provided in subsection 7 of this section, when the location where the order is received by the seller and the location where the receipt of the product by the purchaser (or the purchaser's donee, designated as such by the purchaser) occurs are in different states, the retail sale, excluding lease or rental, of a product shall be sourced as follows:

(1) When the product is received by the purchaser at a business location of the seller, the sale shall be sourced to such business location;

(2) When the product is not received by the purchaser at a business location of the seller, the sale shall be sourced to the location where receipt by the purchaser (or the purchaser's donee, designated as such by the purchaser) occurs, including the location indicated by instructions for delivery to the purchaser or donee, known to the seller;

(3) When subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection do not apply, the sale shall be sourced to the location indicated by an address for the purchaser that is available from the business records of the seller that are maintained in the ordinary course of the seller's business when use of this address does not constitute bad faith;

(4) When subdivisions (1), (2), and (3) of this subsection do not apply, the sale shall be sourced to the location indicated by an address for the purchaser obtained during the consummation of the sale, including the address of a purchaser's payment instrument, if no other address is available, when use of this address does not constitute bad faith;

(5) When none of the previous rules of subdivisions (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this subsection do not apply, including the circumstances in which the seller is without sufficient information to apply the previous rules, then the location will be determined by the address from which tangible personal property was shipped, from which the digital good or computer software delivered electronically was first available for transmission from the seller, or from which the service was provided (disregarding for these purposes any location that merely provided the digital transfer of the product sold).

3. Notwithstanding subsections 1 and 2 of this section, all sales of motor vehicles, trailers, semitrailers, watercraft and aircraft that do not qualify as transportation equipment shall be sourced to the address of the owner thereof.

4. The lease or rental of tangible personal property, other than property identified in subsection 2 or 3 of this section or transactions regulated under sections 407.660 to 407.665, shall be sourced as follows:

(1) For a lease or rental that requires recurring periodic payments, the first periodic payment is sourced the same as a retail sale in accordance with the provisions of subsection 1 of this section. Periodic payments made subsequent to the first payment are sourced to the primary property location for each period covered by the payment. The primary property location shall be as indicated by an address for the property provided by the lessee that is available to the lessor from its records maintained in the ordinary course of business, when use of this address does not constitute bad faith. The property location shall not be altered by intermittent use at different locations, such as use of business property that accompanies employees on business trips and service calls;
